In Council, February 14, 1812.

ORDERED, That the "Supplement to an act, entitled, An act for regulating write of error, and granting appeals from and to the courts of common law within this province," and the " Act to alter the time of the meeting of the court of appeals, and for other purposes," be published twice in each week, for the space of three weeks, in the Maryland Republican and Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis; in the Whig, American, Sun and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; in the Star, at Easton; in the Republican Gazette, at Frederick-town, and in the Maryland Herald, at Hagar's-town.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clk.

A supplement to an act, entitled, Anact for regulating writs of error, and grating appeals from and to the courts of common law within this province.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person or persons, against whom any judgment hath been or shall be rendered in any county court of this state, or any person in his, her or their behalf, being desirous of appealing from such judgment to the court of appeals of the shore, may at any time within the period pre-scribed by law for entering appeals, instead of prosecuting a writ of error for the remo-val of the said judgment, apply to the clerk of the county court in which such judgment hath been or shall be rendered, and direct the said clerk to enter and appeal, in the u-sual manner, from the judgment of the said county court to the court of appeals of the shore, and that such entry shall be made accordingly, the said clerk noting the time of entering such appeal; and there shall be the same proceedings had upon such appeal, as if the application for an appeal had been made to, and the appeal had been granted by the county court, during the sittings of the said Provided, that execution upon any such judgment, shall not be stayed or delay ed, or any supersedeas upon such judgment granted or issued forth upon any such appeal, unless such person or persons, in whose name such appeal shall be made, or some other, in his, her or their behalf, shall immediately upon making such appeal, enter into bond with sufficient sureties, such as the chief judge or an associate judge of the district in which the said judgment shall be rendered shall approve of, in the manner and agreeably to the form or according to the tenor of the condition of the said bond, as prescribed by the act to which this is a supplement.

An act to alter the times of the meeting of the Court of Appeals, and for other pur poses.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the court of appeals shall be holden for the eastern shore at the town of Easton, on the first Monday in June and the last Monday in November, in each and every year; and that from and after the first day of February next, the court of appeals shall be holden for the western shore at the city of Annapolis, on the last Monday in May and first Monday in December, in each and every year; and that the said court to be holden for the western and eastern shores respectively. in the months of June and December, in each and every year, shall be holden by the judges thereof, or any three or more of them : Provided always, that any one or more of the said judges, attending as aforesaid, shall have power to make all necessary rules and orders, touching any suit, action, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings or proceedings, returned to the said court held for the western and eastern shores respectively, or depending therein, preparatory to the hearing, trial or decision of such action, suit, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings or proceedings. And so much of the act, entitled, An act to provide for the organization and regulation of the courts of common law in this state, and for the administration of justice therein, passed at November session, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five. as provides for the holding of the court of appeals at different or other times than those herein mentioned, be and the same is hereby repealed.

And be it enacted, That it shall not be ne cessary for the judges of the said court of appeals, or any of them, except the judge of the said court, resident in the second judicial district, to attend the said court to be holden at Easton for the eastern shore, on the last Monday in November, in each an arry year; and it shall be the duty of the judge of the court of appeals resident in the second judicial district, to attend at the town of Easton, on the last Monday in November next, and on the last Monday in November in each and every year shereafter, who shall have power to make all necessary rules and orders touching any suit, action, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings, or proceedings, returned to the court of appeals for the eastern shore, or depending therein, preparatory to the hearing trial or decision of such action, seit, appeal, writ of error, process pleadings or proceedings; and that all write & process may be returnable to the said court on the said last Monday in November, in the same manner as to the session of the said court, herein before directed to be holden on the first Monday in June, and may also bear teste on the said last Monday in November, as though a session of the said court was holden on that day. And it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court of appeals for the eastern shore, to attend the said judge on the said last Monday in November, in each and every year, who shall make due entry of all such matters and things, as shall or may be ordered as aforesaid, by the said judge; and at each and every such November session, all actions, pleas and other proceedings, relative to any cause, appeal or writ of error, civil or criminal, shall be continued over to the ensuing June

And be it enacted, That it shall not be ne cessary for the judges of the said court of ap-peals or any of them, except the judge of the said court resident in the third judicial district, to attend the said court to be holden at the city of Annapolis, for the Western Shore, on the last Monday in May, in each and e-very year; and it shall be the duty of the judge of the court of appeals, resident in the third judicial district, to attend at the city of Annapolis on the last Monday in May next, and on the last Monday in May in each and every year thereafter; who shall have power to make all necessary rules and orders touching any suit, action, appeal, writ of er ror, process, pleadings or proceedings, returned to the court of appeals for the Western Shore, or depending therein, preparatory to the hearing, trial or decision of such action, suit, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings or proceedings; and that all writs and process may be returnable to the said court, on the said last Monday in May, in the same manner, as to the session of the said court, herein before directed to be holden on the first Monday in December, and may bear teste on the said last Monday in May, as though a session of the said court was holden on that ay ;-and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court of appeals for the Western Shore, to attend the said judge on the said last Monday of May, in each and every year who shall make due entry of all such matters and things, as shall or may be ordered as a foresaid by the said judge; and at each and every such May session, all actions, pleas and other proceedings, relative to any cause, appeal, writ of error, civil or criminal, shall be continued over to the ensuing December

And be it enacted, That if the judge of the court of appeals, required by this act to attend at Easton, on the last Monday in November in each and every year, or the judge of the said court so required to attend at Annapolis, on the last Monday in May in each and every year, shall not attend as aforesaid on the said respective days, for the purposes by this act directed, the clerk of the said cour is hereby authorised and empowered to adjourn the said coart from day to day, until the said clerk can no fy one of the other judges of the court of appeals, who shall attend within a convenient time, and shall have power as aforesaid, to make all necessary rules and orders, touching any suit, action, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings or proceedings, as aforesaid, preparatory to the hearing, trial, or decision of such action, suit, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings or proceedings as aforesaid; and the clerk of the said court is hereby empowered to adjound the said court from day to day, until the said judge so no-tified, shall attend for the purposes by this act required.

And be it enacted, That appeals and writs of errors may be prosecuted and brought to the court of appeals for the Eastern Shore, in the month of November, and to the said court for the Western Shore, in the month of May, in the same manner as to the session of the said court berein before directed to be holden for the Eastern State on the first Mon-day in June, or to the to an of the said court herein before directed to be holden for the Western Shore, on the first Monday in December, and such rules, orders and proceedings shall be had thereon, preparatory to the hearing trial or decision of such appeal or writ of error, as is herein before directed.

And be it enacted, That any one of the said judges, in court sitting, shall have power and authority to enter judgments by confession, to call executions, and enter judgments thereon by default, or to enter them not called by consent, and to order writs of venditioni exponas in all cases where the same may be necessary, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.
