CONGRESSIONAL
OF REPRESENTATIVES.
Saturday, June 27.
cock offered the following resoluolved, That a committee be appointinto the expediency of so the naturalization laws of the U. S. to the rights of citizens such as migrated from the United Kingdom tain and Ireland, previous to the une, 1812; with leave to report otherwise. Adopted.
ouse took up the amendment of the the bill authorizing the President our additional companies of rangers. ndment reduces the number from panies to one. On motion of Mr.
was disagreed to.
ouse took up the amendment of the
the bill authorizing the issuing of Notes.
gelow moved that the further consiof the bill be postponed indefinitely. on for this was, that as the House lay taxes, the issuing of these notes detrimental to the public credit. fterwards withdrew his motion, and dment was agreed to. So the bill ouse went into committee of the Mr. Breckenridge in the chair, on to prohibit the exportation of naval stores to the British settlements America.

Mr. Gholson opposed it. He said it would not only be highly unpolitic, but an absolute violation of our treaties with Russia, Prussia, &c. He wished to have as much trade as possible during the war.
Mr. Williams supported the amendment.
If some such measure was not adopted, G.
Britain would in a short time possess the whole of our import and export trade, and the principal reason on our part for going to war would be defeated.
Mr. Wright said this amendment would operate most unjustly upon the agricultural part of community, by prohibiting them from selling their produce to nations in amity with us. Besides, this proposition resembled a declaration of war against the whole world.
It was an act of ours prohibiting the entry of French vessels, that produced the Rambouillet decree.
Mr. M. Kim and Mr. Williams spoke in favor of the amendment, and Mr. Lowndes against it.
Mr. Potter said he should support the amendment, with a view of putting an end to the war as soon as possible. Surely the American people would consent to bear taxes or privations of some sort, to prosecute the war vigorously. If they would not war ought not to have been declared.
Mr. Widgey opposed the amendment. If adopted it would operate as a permanent embargo, the last measure on earth that he would vote for except as a precursor of war.
The question was taken by ayes and noes, and it was rejected, ayes 15, noes 91.
Mr. Williams then offered another amendment, for excluding British merchandize, except imported in American vessels.
Mr. Bibb said this was unnecessary, as they were already prohibited by law.
Mr. Williams withdrew the amendment.
Mr. Rhea renewed the proposition he made some days ago, prohibiting the entry of British built vessels by whomsoever owned, except such as may be captured. Lost ayes 4, noes 44.
Mr. M. Kim proposed two new sections; one declaring that no merchandize shall be imported after the first of October, from any other place of any foreign state in amity with the U. S. except the produce and manufacture of such state; the other providing that the vessels of any nation which shall prohibit the free entry of American vessels, shall not be permitted to an entry.
They were both rejected.
Mr. Pitkin enquired whether by prohibiting clearances to certain specified dependencies of G. Britain, it was intended to permit vessels to clear out for all other parts of the British empire?
Mr. Calhoun replied that it was not. The particular places had been designated on account of their contingency to the U. S.
On motion of Mr. M. Kim, the bill was recommitted to the committee of foreign relations,
And the house adjourned, (half past 3 o'clock.)
Monday, June 29.
Mr. White presented a memorial from the inhabitants of Salem (Mass.) deprecating war with G. Britain. Ordered to lie on the table.
Mr. Morrow reported a bill concerning the lead mines in the territory of Missouri, (heretofore called Upper Louisiana.) Referred to a committee of the whole to-morrow.
Mr. Lacock reported a bill supplementary to the several laws respecting naturalization.
This bill authorizes all aliens who were in the U. S. before the 18th inst. to become citizens notwithstanding the war.
Mr. Calhoun, from the committee of foreign relations, to whom was recommitted the bill prohibiting the exportation of certain articles to certain British ports, reported the same without amendment.
Mr. Newton offered a new section, declaring that no foreign vessel shall be permitted to import any articles, except such as are the produce or manufacture of the country to which such vessel belongs.
Mr. N. observed that without such a provision the non-importation law would be a dead letter. G. Britain would make use of other flags to introduce her merchandize, and would in fact be in a better situation as to our trade during the war, than she was in time of peace. By this means, the war would be protracted to an unnecessary length.
Mr. Grundy said this would be doing precisely what we declared war against G. Britain for doing—interfering with the trade of the neutrals. It was in fact re-enacting the British navigation system.
Mr. M. Kim denied that we had gone to war with G. Britain because she interfered with our trade to her own ports, but because she attempted to regulate our trade with all the rest of the world.
The question was taken by ayes and noes, on Mr. Newton's amendment, and it was rejected: Ayes 31, noes 49.
The bill was then ordered to be engrossed for a third reading to-morrow.
The bill for the more perfect organization of the militia of the District of Columbia was read a third time and passed.

The bill authorizing the president to lease certain public lots in Washington city, was read a third time and passed.
Mr. Bacon from the committee of ways & means, asked and obtained leave to report a bill authorizing a subscription for the old six per cent. deferred stock, and providing for the exchange of the same. Referred to a committee of the whole to-morrow.
Mr. Macon also reported a bill supplementary to the act authorizing the loan of eleven millions. Referred to a committee of the whole to-morrow.
The bill from the Senate for the relief of gen. James Wilkinson, was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading. It was afterwards read and passed. [This bill allows him remuneration for the transportation of his baggage.]
The bill to facilitate the transfer of Louisiana Stock was read a third time and passed, as was also the bill making compensation to the President of the Senate acting as Vice-President of the U. S.
And the house adjourned, 3 o'clock.
Tuesday, June 30.
The Speaker read a letter from Wm. Duane of Philadelphia, accompanying a book on military affairs, written by him. Referred to a committee on that subject.
The bill to prohibit the exportation of naval stores, &c. to Canada, was read the third time.
Mr. Wright moved to postpone it till November; there was no necessity for passing a special law to prohibit the exportation of our produce; and the declaration of war and president's proclamation did this already.
This bill moreover was a palpable violation of our treaties with other powers, Russia; Prussia, Denmark, France and Sweden, congress had no right to legislate on those nations out of their rights solemnly secured to them by treaty.
The question was taken by ayes and noes, on Mr. Wright's motion, and lost, ayes 44, noes 44—the Speaker voting in the negative.
Mr. Pitkin was opposed to the passage of the bill. He contended that it contained a very important modification of the crime of treason. By the law of the U. States at present in force, any citizens furnishing the enemy with ammunitions of war was punishable with death; whereas by this bill, if any citizen should be guilty of so doing he was merely liable to fine and imprisonment.
Mr. Calhoun denied that the bill violated any treaty, or contained any new definition of treason. It embraced nothing but municipal regulation.
Mr. Grundy contended that the object of this bill was not to punish treason, but to prevent its being committed.
The question was then taken by ayes and noes on the passage of the bill, and it was REJECTED, ayes 50, noes 52.
Mr. Harper from the committee of foreign relations, reported a bill respecting alien enemies. Referred to a committee of the whole to-morrow.
A message was received from President, recommending the creation of an additional number of general officers, Quarter-masters, &c. Referred to the committee on military affairs.
The house took up the Resolution passed by the Senate, for the appointment of a committee to wait on the President and request him to appoint, a day of HUMILIATION and PRAYER, throughout the U. S. It was agreed to, and a committee of three appointed.
And the house adjourned, 3 o'clock.
Wednesday, July 1.
Mr. Turner from the joint committee appointed to inquire what business ought to be done during the present session, when it will be proper to adjourn, and what day congress ought to stand adjourned, reported a resolution authorizing the President of the Senate and Speaker of the H. of Representatives to adjourn their respective Houses on Monday the 6th inst. and a bill fixing the next meeting of Congress on the first Monday in November. The resolution was concurred in by the House, and the bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading. It was afterwards read and passed.
Mr. Wright from the committee on military affairs, reported a bill making further provision for the Army of the U. States. This bill authorizes the president to appoint four additional brigadier generals, &c. Referred to a committee of the whole to-morrow.
Mr. Hall moved that the vote of the house yesterday, rejecting the bill prohibiting the exportation of naval stores, &c. be re-considered. The ayes and noes were taken, and the motion was agreed to, ayes 53, noes 38. The bill was then referred to a committee of the whole this day.
The house went into com. of the whole, Mr. Desha, in the chair, on the bill making further appropriations for the defence of the maritime frontiers of the U. States.
Mr. Chévéz offered several amendments to the bill making appropriation for the repair and keeping in service of the frigates Constellation, Chesapeake and Adams, and 90 gun-boats; also for the repair of such of our frig-gates as may be damaged in action, and for the purchase and repair of such vessels as may be taken from the enemy. They were all agreed to. The appropriation for fortifications is 500,000 dollars.

The committee rose and reported the bill as amended. It was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.
The bill to amend the several acts respecting naturalization was also ordered to be engrossed for a third reading; as was also the bill respecting alien enemies.
On motion of Mr. Ridgely, (of Del.) the doors were closed and remained so the remainder of the day.
Public Sale.
