

FOREIGN.

NEW-YORK, JULY 8. By the ship Atlas, capt. Congar, arrived here yesterday from Ireland, the editors of the N. York Gazette, have received a Belfast paper of the 27th of May, containing London dates of the 23d. This paper states the important intelligence of a complete change in the English administration. All the former members had resigned—and a new administration was to be formed of the Prince of Wales's old friends. The following important change, it appears originated from a motion brought forward on the 21st May; by Mr. S. Wortley. The motion which produced an animated debate, was—"For an humble address to his royal highness the Prince Regent, praying that he take such measures as should lead to the forming of a strong and efficient administration. This motion was seconded by Lord Milton. After a heated discussion the house divided—for the previous question, 170; against it, 174. Majority against ministers. Mr. Wyne moved that the address should be carried up by Mr. Wortley, the mover, and by Lord Milton, the seconder, only. The gallery was cleared for a division on this motion but it was agreed to without that resort. The change in the English administration might have led to very important consequences to us, if war had not been declared—But as it is, it may be the means of shortening the war.—The Orders in Council, will no doubt be repealed; particularly as Buonaparte by a decree dated at the Palace of St. Cloud, the 28th of April, 1811, declares American vessels excepted from the operation of the Berlin and Milan decrees, from the 1st of Nov. 1810. MOST IMPORTANT INTELLIGENCE FROM ENGLAND. We congratulate the readers of the Mercantile Advertiser and our country that the whole of the British cabinet have given in their resignation.—This event, so interesting to the civilized world, we have received in a London paper of May 23, with which we were favoured by captain Congar of the ship Atlas, arrived last evening in 41 days from Belfast. On the motion in the English House of Commons, which led to this happy consequence, the ministers were in a minority of 4. In our next we shall give their debates on the occasion. BELFAST, MAY 27. Resignation of Ministers. This very important circumstance is thus announced in two of the London papers of Friday. SECOND EDITION. "Courier Office, half past 6. "We have just learned that his majesty's ministers have sent in their resignations this afternoon." SECOND EDITION OF THE GLOBE. "Ministers resigned this day.—The whole cabinet is out.—This is certain." PACKET BY EXPRESS. The London Journals of Saturday have arrived by express from Donaghadee, bringing the following additional particulars respecting ministerial arrangements, besides other articles of interesting intelligence: LONDON, SATURDAY, MAY 23. We stated in a second edition last night, that the Prince Regent, in answer to the address of the House of Commons, requesting that he would be pleased to form an efficient ministry stated that he would take the same into his serious and immediate consideration. In the course of the evening, Lord Callreagh communicated to the principal members of opposition, that ministers were all, in fact, out, and they only continued to hold the seals until the formation of a new ministry. His Royal Highness, we understand, last night sent a message to Marquis Wellesley inviting his lordship's attendance at Carlton-House this day to consult him upon a new arrangement. [Globe.] The following list of a new ministry, and of some of the intended arrangements, is handed about in the higher political circles this day. NEW CABINET. Lord Holland, first lord of the treasury. Lord Grenville, president of the council. Lord Moira, privy seal. Mr. Canning, home secretary. Mr. Ponsonby, war secretary. Lord Grey, foreign secretary. Marquis Wellesley, first lord of the admiralty. Mr. Tierney, chancellor of the exchequer. Lord Erskine, lord Chancellor. Lord Lauderdale, president of the board of control.

By his Excellency ROBERT BOWIE Esquire, Governor of Maryland, A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been stated to me that Levin C. Mackall has lately lost to houses by fire, and that he has reason to suspect that some wicked and evil disposed person set fire to the same; and whereas it is highly important that all offenders against the laws and peace of society should be brought to justice; I have thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do hereby and with the advice and consent of the council, offer a reward of

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS To any person who shall discover and make known the author or perpetrator of said offence; provided he, she or they, any of them, be brought to justice: And do further in virtue of the powers vested in me by law, offer a full and free pardon to any person being an accomplice, who shall discover the perpetrator or perpetrators of the said crime on the aforesaid condition.
