Boston, August 31.

The United States frigate Constitution, Capt. Hull, anchored yesterday in the outer harbour, from a short cruise, during which she fell in with the English frigate Guerriere, which she captured, after a short but severe action. The damage sustained by the fire of the Constitution, was so great, that it was found impossible to tow her into port, and accordingly the crew were taken out and the ship sunk. The brilliancy of this action, however we may regret the occasion that has produced it, will still excite the liveliest emotions in every American bosom.

Particulars of the late action between the U. S. frigate Constitution and the British frigate Guerriere.

[Communicated to the Editors of the Boston Gazette by an officer on board the Constitution.]

M. discovered a vessel to the southward; made all sail in chase; at 3 perceived the chafe to be a ship on the starboard tack, close hauled to the wind; hauled S. S. W.: at half past 3, made out the chafe to be a frigate; at 4, coming up with the chafe very fast; at quarter before 5, the chafe laid her maintopmast to the mast; took in our top-gallant sails, stay-sails, and flying jib; took a second reef in the topmasts, hauled the courses up; sent the royal yards down; and got all clear for action; beat to quarters on which the crew gave three cheers; at 5 the chafe hoisted 3 English ensigns, at five minutes past 5 the enemy commenced firing; at 20 minutes past 5, set our colours, one at each mast head, and one at the mizen peak, and began firing on the enemy, and continued to fire occasionally, he wearing very close, and we manœuvring to close with him, and avoid being raked; at 6, set the main top-gallant sail, the enemy having bore up; at 5 minutes past 6, brought the enemy to close action, standing before the wind; at 15 minutes past 6, the enemy's mizen mast fell over on the starboard side; at 20 minutes past 6, finding we were drawing ahead of the enemy, luffed short round his bows to rake him; at 53 minutes past 6, the enemy fell on board of us, his bowsprit foul of our mizen rigging. We prepared to board, but immediately after, his fore and mainmast went by the board, and it was deemed unnecessary. Our cabin had taken fire from his guns; but soon extinguished, without material injury; at 30 minutes past 6, shot ahead of the enemy, when the firing ceased on both sides, he making the signal of submission, by firing a gun to leeward; set fore-sail and main-sail, and hauled to the eastward to repair damage; all our braces and much of our standing and running rigging and some of our spars being shot away. At 7, wore ship, and stood under the lee of the prize—sent our boat on board, which returned at 8, with Capt. Dacres, late of his Majesty's ship Guerriere, mounting 49 carriage guns, and manned with 302 men; got our boats out and kept them employed in removing the prisoners and baggage from the prize to our own ship. Sent a surgeon's mate to assist in attending the wounded, wearing ship occasionally to keep in the best position to receive the boats. At twenty minutes before 2, A. M. discovered a fall off the larboard beam, standing to the south; saw all clear for another action; at 3 the fall stood off again; at daylight was hailed by the lieut. on board the prize, who informed he had four feet of water in the hold, and that she was in a sinking condition: all hands employed in removing the prisoners, and repairing our own damage, through the remainder of the day. Friday the 21st commenced with light breezes from the northward, and pleasant; our boats and crew still employed as before. At 3 P. M. made the signal of recall for our boats, (having received all the prisoners) they immediately left her on fire, and a quarter past 3 she blew up. Our loss in the action was 7 killed and 7 wounded, among the former Lieut. Bush of marines, and among the latter Lieut. Morris, severely; and Mr. Aylwin, the master, slightly. On the part of the enemy, 16 men killed, and 64 wounded. Among the former, Lt. Reedy, 2d of the ship; among the latter, Capt. Dacres, Lt. Kent, 1st; Mr. Scott maffer, & maffer's mate.
