LEGISLATURE OF MARYLAND.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.
WEDNESDAY, NOV. 18, 1812.
The house met. Present as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. The bill for the relief of John Tobin, the bill to change the names of Henry and Charles Cochrane to that of Irvine, and the resolution in favor of Charles Richardson were sent to the Senate.

Mr. Marriott delivers a petition from Thomas B. Daisey, and others, praying for the repeal of an act passed last session authorizing the opening a road from Richard Owen's mill, in Harford county, and Eliza and Nathaniel Tyson, of the city of Baltimore, praying a supplement to the law for opening and extending Pratt-street. Read and referred.

The bill to repeal the supplement to an act to ascertain the allowance of members of the general assembly, &c. was, on motion of Mr. Bowles, postponed until the 25th day of December next—yeas 36, nays 27.
On motion by Mr. Bowles, Leave given to bring in a bill, entitled, An act to make public a road from Hancock-town, in Washington county, to Cumberland, in Allegany county.

The clerk of the senate delivers a bill annulling the marriage of Jerome Buonaparte King of Westphalia, and Elizabeth Buonaparte, of the city of Baltimore, endorsed "will pass". Also a letter from the Governor or clerk, notifying the Legislature of the receipt of their joint letter, and that he will repair to Annapolis as early as practicable. Severally read.

Mr. Ferry delivers a petition from Thomas Grimes, of Allegany county, praying a divorce. Mr. Francis Hall a petition from John Mitchell, sen. of P. G. county, praying a support by said county. Read and referred.

The resolutions in favor of Rezin Simpson, Thomas Cahoe, John Williams, Josias Avery and Anthony Davis, were severally read and assented to.

Mr. Belt delivers a report and resolution in favor of Ingram Cann. Read.
Mr. Quinton delivers a report and resolution in favor of Moser Green; also a report and resolution in favor of John Folliott. Severally read.

According to the order of the day, the House proceeded to the second reading of the preamble and order relative to the mobs at riots in Baltimore; and on motion by Mr. Donaldson, the question was put, that the words of the said preamble and order from the first word "Whereas," to the end thereof, stricken out; and that the following be inserted in their stead? "It is the solemn duty every government to maintain inviolate the majesty of the laws, whether set at defiance by riotous assemblages and excesses of minded men, or by associations of armed citizens combined for mutual support: And whereas, when such instances of the violation of law, and of the disturbance of the public peace and safety unfortunately occur, it is the duty of the House of Delegates, with temper and impartiality, to investigate the same, and the causes leading thereto, in order legislatively to provide the suitable remedy for such evils; Therefore, Ordered, That the committee of grievances and courts justice be and they are hereby instructed to inquire into the late unhappy disturbances of the city of Baltimore, and the cause which produced those disturbances, with a view to ascertain whether any and what legislative remedy may be necessary to prevent a recurrence of similar mischiefs, and that they report by bill or otherwise.

The yeas and nays being required appeared as follows:

RICHARD KENT, Sw.*
Nov. 3, 1812.

State of Maryland, &c.
On application, by petition, of Thomas Woodfield, administrator de bonis non of John Jacobs, senior, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased; it is ordered that he give the notice required by law, for the creditors to bring in their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week for the space of six successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette.
John Gassaway, Reg. Wills,
for A. A. County.

This is to give Notice,
That the subscriber, of Anne-Arundel county, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration de bonis non on the personal estate of John Jacobs, senior, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, on or before the seventeenth day of December next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Given under my hand this 25th day of October, 1812.
Thomas Woodfield, Administrator de bonis non.

60 Dollars Reward.
Ran away from the subscriber living in South River Neck, on Monday the 2d inst a negro fellow who call himself Thomas Brown, about forty three years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, has a bald place on the back part of his head; when spoken to has an impediment in his speech; and is much given to intoxication.—Had on when he made his escape, a kersey round about jacket and trowsers, an osenburg shirt, old hat and shoes.—This fellow was originally from Benedict, Charles county, and it is probable may have gone thither as he has some connexions in that neighborhood. If taken twenty miles from home twenty dollars will be given, if thirty miles, thirty dollars, if forty miles, forty dollars, and if out of the State the above reward, if secured in any goal so that I get him again. All persons are forewarned harbouring said fellow, as the law will be enforced against all such offenders.

Augustus Uz,
Respectfully informs the Citizens of Annapolis, that at the earnest solicitations of some of the most respectable inhabitants he has made arrangements, and is now enabled, to devote his leisure hours to their benefit and gratification, with his new and elegant mode of Colouring and Ornamenting Walls, either in imitation of paper hangings, or otherwise. This so eminently useful invention is too generally known throughout the Union to need any further illustration. Directions, in writing, left at Mr. Jarvis's, on Hill Point, or at Mr. Isaac Parker's Tavern, (where a rough specimen of the work may be seen,) will be strictly attended to, and all necessary information respecting expenses and durability given.
October 8.

EXCHANGE OF OLD SIX PER CENT AND DEFERRED STOCKS.
Pursuant to the act of Congress, entitled, "An act authorizing a subscription for the old six per cent and deferred stocks, and providing for the exchange of the same," passed on the 6th day of July, 1812, books will be opened on the first day of October next, at the Treasury, and at the several loan offices, and will continue open till the 17th day of March next, for receiving subscriptions of the old six per cent and deferred stocks, in the manner prescribed by the said act. New certificates, bearing interest from the first day of the quarter in which the subscription shall be made, at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable quarterly, for the unredeemed amount of principal of the old six per cent and deferred stocks which may be subscribed, will be issued at the pleasure of the United States at any time after the 31st day of December, 1824; but no reimbursement will be made except for the whole amount of the stock standing at the time, to the credit of any proprietor, on the books of the treasury or of the commissioners of loans respectively, nor till after at least six months previous public notice of such intended reimbursement.
Albert Gallatin.
Treasury Department, Sept. 10, 1812.

Anne-Arundel County Court, September Term, 1812.
On application to the judges of the said county court, by petition in writing of Samuel Hopkins, of said county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November Session, eighteen hundred and five, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said county court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said Samuel Hopkins has resided the two preceding years prior to the passage of the said act within the State of Maryland, and the said Samuel Hopkins, at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having produced to the said court the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of filing his said petition, it is therefore adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said Samuel Hopkins, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday of April next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, to be held at the City of Annapolis, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said third Monday of April, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said Samuel Hopkins then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property.

Valuable Lands for Sale.
Will be sold, to the highest bidder, (on the premises of the late Doctor John Gassaway, of Rhode River, in Anne-Arundel county) on the fourth Monday in December next, on a credit of one, two and three years, with interest on the purchase money from the day of sale.
THAT MOST VALUABLE FARM
On which the Doctor resided, containing about four hundred and ninety-three acres: the situation is high and healthy, and commands a beautiful prospect of the Chesapeake Bay. The improvements on the said farm are, a comfortable Dwelling House, Quarter, Tobacco Houses and Barn. Also, on the same day, will be sold, his Lower Farm, distant about two miles from the place he resided, called Cotter's Desire, containing about two hundred and forty-one acres. Both farms are well wooded, and convenient to the water, and a bounds in wild fowl, fish and oysters. It is unnecessary to go into a detail of the value of the above property, as those who are inclined to purchase will take a view of the premises previous to the day of sale. The lands will be shewn by Mr. Thomas & Mr. Carnes, who are now living on the property. The sale will commence at 11 o'clock on said day, if fair, if not, the next fair day thereafter.

The Subscribers
Being informed that it has been circulated in this city that they were not willing to receive on freight, Bricks, Stone, Coal, or any other articles of a similar nature; they therefore declare, that such a report is without foundation, and that they will carry any article offered on freight, either to or from Baltimore, at the usual prices.
To those who give their more valuable business to Craft, not being in the Facket line, they would observe, that if they continue the practice, their letters and small commissions will not be attended to. To those who continue their business to them they assure a ready and punctual attention, and every reasonable exertion to please.
To their punctual customers they return their sincere thanks, with an assurance that their future exertions shall be equal to their former to render general satisfaction to those who employ them.
