

Valuable Lands for Sale.

Will be sold, to the highest bidder, (on the premises of the late Doctor John Gassaway, of Rhode River, in Anne-Arundel county) on the fourth Monday in December next, on a credit of one, two and three years, with interest on the purchase money from the day of sale, THAT MOST VALUABLE FARM On which the Doctor resided, containing about four hundred and ninety-three acres; the situation is high and healthy, and commands a beautiful prospect of the Chesapeake Bay. The improvements on the said farm are, a comfortable Dwelling House, Quarter, Tobacco House and Barn. Also, on the same day, will be sold his Lower Farm, distant about two miles from the place he resided, called Cetter's Desire, containing about two hundred and forty-one acres. Both farms are well wooded, and convenient to the water, and a bounds in wild fowl, fish and oysters. It is unnecessary to go into a detail of the value of the above property, as those who are inclined to purchase will take a view of the premises previous to the day of sale. The lands will be shown by Mr. Thomas & Mr. Carnes, who are now living on the property. The sale will commence at 11 o'clock on said day, if fair, if not, the next fair day thereafter.

Alexander Stuart, Sarah C. White, November 12.

Public Sale.

Pursuant to the testament and last will of Helen Weedon, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, the subscribers will expose to public sale, on Monday the 14th day of December next, if fair, if not, on the next fair day thereafter,

ALL THE FARM OR PLANTATION On which the said Helen Weedon lately resided, containing about ninety-seven acres of land. Also all the residue of the personal estate of the said deceased, not heretofore disposed of, consisting of Negroes, Horses, Cows, Corn, and Fodder, and sundry utensils of Husbandry, and articles of household and kitchen furniture. The sale to commence at 10 o'clock on the premises, when attendance will be given, and the terms made known, by Horatio Ridout, Henry Duvall, Executors, November 12.

The Subscribers

Being informed that it has been circulated in this city that they were not willing to receive on freight, Bricks, Stone, Coal, or any other articles of a similar nature; they therefore declare, that such a report is without foundation, and that they will carry any article offered on freight, either to or from Baltimore, at the usual prices.

To those who give their more valuable business to Craft, not being in the Packet line, they would observe, that if they continue the practice, their letters and small commissions will not be attended to. To those who continue their business to them they assure a ready and punctual attention, and every reasonable exertion to please.

To their punctual customers they return their sincere thanks, with an assurance that their future exertions shall be equal to their former to render general satisfaction to those who employ them.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY ROBERT BOWIE, ESQUIRE GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND. A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the General Assembly of Maryland did by an act passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, entitled, "An act to reduce into one the several acts of Assembly respecting elections, and to regulate said elections," directed that the governor and council after having received the returns of the members to represent the state in the Congress of the U. S. should enumerate and ascertain the number of votes given for each and every person voted for as a member for Congress aforesaid respectively, and shall thereupon declare, by proclamation, signed by the Governor, the name of the person or persons duly elected in each respective district. We in pursuance of the direction of the said act, do by this our proclamation, declare that by the returns made to us, it appears that Philip Stewart, Esq. was elected for the first district; Joseph Kent, Esq. was elected for the second district; Alexander Cottee Hanson, Esq. was elected for the third district; Samuel Ringgold, Esq. was elected for the fourth district; Alexander McKim, and Nicholas Ruxton Moore, Esqs. were elected for the fifth district; Stevenson Archer, Esq. was elected for the sixth district; Robert Wright, Esq. was elected for the seventh district, and Charles Goldsborough, Esq. was elected for the eighth district.

Given in Council, at the city of Annapolis, under the great seal of the State of Maryland, this twenty-third day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the thirty-seventh.

Robert Bowie, By the Governor, Ninian Pinkney, Clerk of the Council.

ORDERED. That the foregoing proclamation be published twice in each week, for the space of four weeks, in the Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican, of Annapolis; in the Whig, Sun, American and Federal Gazette, of Baltimore; in the National Intelligencer, at Washington; in Bartgig's paper at Frederick-Town; in the Maryland Herald, at Hagers-town; and in the Star at Easton.

By Order, Ninian Pinkney, Clerk of the Council, November 12.

This land lies within two miles of Herring Creek Church, five miles from Pig Point, and about the same distance from Herring Bay. It will be divided to suit purchasers, if desired. For terms apply to the subscriber.

Samuel Harrison, Sept. 24, 1812.

Augustus Uz, Respectfully informs the Citizens of Annapolis, that at the earnest solicitations of some of the most respectable inhabitants he has made arrangements, and is now enabled, to devote his leisure hours to their benefit and gratification, with his new and elegant mode of Colouring and Ornamenting Walls, either in imitation of paper hangings, or otherwise. This so eminently useful invention is too generally known throughout the Union to need any further illustration. Directions, in writing, left at Mr. Jarvis's, on Hill Point, or at Mr. Isaac Parker's Tavern, (where a rough specimen of the work may be seen,) will be strictly attended to, and all necessary information respecting expenses and durability given. October 8.

EXCHANGE OF OLD SIX PER CENT AND DEFERRED STOCKS.

Pursuant to the act of Congress, entitled, "An act authorizing a subscription for the old six per cent and deferred stocks, and providing for the exchange of the same," passed on the 6th day of July, 1812, books will be opened on the first day of October next, at the Treasury, and at the several loan offices, and will continue open till the 17th day of March next, for receiving subscriptions of the old six per cent and deferred stocks, in the manner prescribed by the said act. New certificates, bearing interest from the first day of the quarter in which the subscription shall be made, at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable quarterly, for the unredeemed amount of principal of the old six per cent and deferred stocks which may be subscribed, will be issued at the Treasury or at the Loan Offices respectively where the old stock subscribed may at the time stand credited. The new stock will be redeemable at the pleasure of the United States at any time after the 31st day of December, 1824; but no reimbursement will be made except for the whole amount of the stock standing at the time, to the credit of any proprietor, on the books of the treasury or of the commissioners of loans respectively, nor till after at least six months previous public notice of such intended reimbursement.
