Gentlemen of the Senate We have, upon reconsideration, stricken out the clause contained in the bill, entitled, An act for the valuation of real and personal property within this State, making an appropriation to the registers of the Land-offices. and fent the same to you for reconsideration, under an expectation that the bill will now meet with your approbation.

On motion by Mr. Emery, the following message was read and ordered to lie on the table.

Gentlemen of the Senate

We have received your message proposing to adjourn on the 18th inft. The present crifis in our national affairs requires that the refources of the state should be husbanded, and having but little important business before us, all which may be concluded by that time, we are disposed to accede to your proposition.

The clerk of the senate delivers the bill to confirm an act paffed at November fession eighteen hundred & eleven, enritled, Anact to alter the time of the meeting of the General Assembly of this state, and for other purposes. And the following message :

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates, We return you the bill, entitled, An act to confirm an act passed at November session, eighteen hundred and eleven, entitled, An act to alter the time of the meeting of the General Assembly of this State, and for occurrences ther purpoles, and hope, on reconsideration, you will agree to pass it. We understand the ground upon which the House of Delegates have refused their assent to the bill is, because an interregnum would thereby occur in the executive of the state. We beg leave to observe, that the constitution provides for the election of a Governor and Council annually, on the days therein mentioned; various instances have occurred wherein the Governor and Council have not been elected on the specified days, yet fuch elections, and the acts and doings of the Executive, in confequence thereof, have been considered valid & effectual, and we know of no inconvenience that has resulted to the state in consequence thereof; and we beg leave, (if you agree to pals the bill) to suggest the propriety of immediately passing a law authorising and empowering the present executive to act as such, until the time appointed for electing a Governor and Council, agreeably to the contemplated change. Read.
