WILMINGTON, (D.) FEB. 17. ANOTHER SPLENDID NAVAL VICTORY.

By the frigate CONSTITUTION, Commodore BAINBRIDGE. We have been obligingly favoured by Maj. R. Carr, who has just returned from New-Castle, with the following interesting account of another splendid naval victory. The account was brought to New-Castle by an officer of the Constitution, who had just landed from a schooner-prize to the Hornet, who was in sight at the close of the action, and from whose journal Major Carr extracted it. The officer has gone on to Washington with dispatches.

Dec. 29, 1812, at meridian, lat. 13, 6, S. long. 36, W. 10 leagues from St. Salvadore, descried a sail, which was soon discovered to be an English frigate. We took in main sail and royals. Tacked ship and stood for her. At 50 minutes past 1 P. M. the enemy bore down with intention of raking us, which we avoided by wearing. At 2 P. M. within half a mile and to windward, having hauled down his colours, except union jack at mizen mast head, the Constitution fired one gun ahead of the enemy to make him show his colours, on which he gave us his whole broadside. A general action with round and grape shot then commenced, the enemy keeping at a much greater distance than we wished, but we could not bring him to close action without exposing ourselves to severe raking. Both vessels manœuvred some time to rake and avoid being raked.

At 2 P. M. commenced action within good grape canon distance. At 30 minutes past 2, our wheel was entirely shot away. At 40 minutes past 2, determined to close with the enemy, notwithstanding his raking fire; set fore and main-sail, and luffed up close to him. At 50 minutes past 2, the enemy's jib-boom got foul of our mizen rigging. At 5, head of the enemy's bowsprit and jib-boom shot away by us. At 5 min. past 3, shot away enemy's bowsprit by the board. At 15 min. past 3, shot away enemy's maintopmast just above the cap. At 40 min. past 3, shot away their gaff & spanker boom. At 55 min. shot away their mizen-mast nearly by the board. At 5 min. past 4, having completely silenced the enemy, and his colours in the main being down, we supposed he had struck, and shot ahead to repair our rigging, which was much cut, leaving the enemy a complete wreck.

Soon after we discovered the enemy's flag still flying. At 20 min. past 4, the enemy's mainmast went by the board. At 50 min. past 4, we wore ship and stood for the enemy. At 25 min. past 5, got close to her in an effectual position for raking, athwart her bows, and at the very instant we were preparing to give our broadside, the enemy prudently struck his colours. Lieut. Parker was sent on board to take possession of the prize, which proved to be his B. M. ship JAVA, raking 38 but mounting 49 guns, commanded by Capt. Lambert, a distinguished officer who was mortally wounded, with a crew of upwards of 400 men, besides 100 supernumerary men going out to the East Indies for different ships there.

On board were a number of passengers among whom were Lieut. gen. Hislop, governor of Bombay, Maj. Walker and Capt. Wood of his staff, Capt. Marshall, Mas. and com. in the royal navy, and several officers appointed to ships in the East Indies. On board the Java were 60 killed and 170 wounded. The Constitution had 9 killed and 25 wounded. She had on board despatches for St. Helena, Cape of Good Hope, and the different establishments in the East-Indies and China, and copper for a 74 and two frigates, building at Bombay.

The crew with the officers baggage being taken out, the ship was set on fire January 1, and blew up, being so crippled as to render it impossible to bring her into port.

Com. BAINBRIDGE was slightly wounded.

SALEM, FEB. 12. AFFECTING LETTER.

Extract of a letter from George Tittle to his major in Beverly, dated "Algiers Prison, Oct. 4, 1812." "On the 26th of August we were taken by an Algerine on our passage home, and on that fatal day I lost my liberty and all that I held dear to be made a slave in this cruel country. When taken, we were strip and plundered of every thing, and remain almost naked; and here we are without friends or any one to assist us. We are all in as good health as can be expected in our deplorable situation, which to describe would wound your feelings too much. I hope it will not be long before our country will redeem us from our unmerciful tyrants. We are obliged to labour hard, and every night we are confined in this prison. In the few hours allowed for rest, I write this, which I send by the same brig that we were taken in. She is now under Moorish colours, and bound to Gibraltar. I hope you will get some persons to intercede for myself and companions, if in their power.

Your unfortunate son, &c.

We have a letter from Samuel Larabee, giving a similar description of his slavery, chained to hard labor, &c. He adds, "I hear there is war between the U. States and England. If that be the case, I fear we shall not get clear for some time."

BOSTON, FEB. 13. A BRITISH FLEET.

A letter from Bermuda, dated Jan. 15, to a gentleman in this city, says a new admiral has arrived on this station from England, and the British force at present consists of 12 ships of the line, 20 frigates, besides sloops of war, brigs, &c.

The Board of Admiralty met today, and it is said, have determined to release the American licensed vessels brought in here.

BUFFALO, FEB. 2.

On Wednesday last orders came to this place to march the U. S. volunteers under Capt. Moore, and Lieut. Doyle and Marshall, to Utica. Arrangements were accordingly made to march the Penn. volunteers, Lieut. Marshall, and Albany Greens, Lieut. Doyle, on Sunday last, and the Baltimore volunteers on Monday. But in consequence of the flag of Saturday, announcing the defeat of Winchester, the orders were countermanded. The men are again ordered to march to-morrow morning.

OGDENSBURG, FEB. 3.

Deserters from Canada cross almost every evening—the number since our last is not correctly ascertained. A deserter who came over last evening, informs that a party of about 50 Indians arrived at Prescott in the afternoon of yesterday—they are intended no doubt for regulars, as the Canadian militia and patriots cannot be depended on—whole picket guards having deserted. Deserters disagree as to the force at Prescott, it is stated from two to six hundred men. For several days past large and numerous trains of Canadian sleighs have passed Prescott, on their way to the lakes—deserters say they contain powder and ball.

NEW-YORK, FEB. 16.

We understand that the Flag of Truce, Chichester Packet, will sail from this port on about the 20th inst. for Bermuda and Falmouth, and that in the mean time, letters will be received at No. 69, Cedar-st.

The passengers by the Albany stage report, that the Governor convened the Council of appointment on Saturday, at which time Mr. Emmett was removed from the office of Attorney General of the state, and Mr. Van Vechten, of Albany, was appointed to the situation.

[Statesman.]

ALBANY, FEB. 12.

A letter was read in the Assembly yesterday from Mr. King, in which he accepts the appointment of Senator.

From the N. Y. Evening Post, Feb. 10. LAW INTELLIGENCE.

Yesterday before the Court of Sessions for this city and county, a soldier by the name of M'Donald, belonging to the garrison of Governor's Island, was indicted for stabbing Mr. Keith in the public street at Whitehall slip. It appeared in evidence that a file of men had been sent from Governor's Island to apprehend a deserter; they found the man and took him to Mr. Hatfield's grocery store near Whitehall slip, and placed M'Donald as a centinel on the walk before the house. The marching of the guard to Hatfield's excited some curiosity among the inhabitants of the neighbourhood, and several went towards the door to see what was going forward. The soldier, (M'Donald) ordered them off, and one man refusing to step back, was stabbed in two places, and driven from the walk; at this moment Mr. Keith came out of a neighbouring house, not knowing that any soldiers were near, or that any disturbance had taken place, and in attempting to pass Hatfield's house, received the point of the soldier's bayonet in the thigh.

The jury found M'Donald guilty. The recorder immediately ordered him to be brought to the bar for sentence. Addressing himself to the prisoner, he said, that though he was sorry the prisoner was like to suffer for doing what he might have been erroneously taught was his duty, yet, as such outrages could not be tolerated in a state of civil society, the Court had thought itself called upon to take an especial notice of this case. He said that it was a principle to be maintained at every hazard, that the military must be subservient to the civil authority, and it was high time that officers and soldiers knew it, if they did not know it already. It had become indispensable to make a public example, and to make it now, that this evil might be checked in the bud. He added many very pertinent and impressive observations on the duties of the citizen and soldier, and concluded by sentencing the prisoner to one year's confinement in the city prison.

On the same day another soldier was convicted of obscene behaviour in the public street of the city, and sentenced to three months imprisonment in the city prison. The conduct of this prisoner was so outrageously indecent that we cannot report it.

Soldiers and Citizens: A few days since, five or six armed soldiers took a fancy to march abreast on the side walk, in the bowery, sweeping every man, woman, and child they met with into the snow. At length coming up to a poor man who was sawing wood and piling it on the side walk, they ordered him to remove his wood that they might march without impediment. The Sawyer not readily complying with the command, one of them struck him on the head with the butt end of his musket, and cut his hat through to his head. They were proceeding to abuse him further when Mr. Tier a butcher and an aged man between 70 and 80, interferred; on which the soldiers began to ill treat him also—At this moment a sleigh with a number of butchers, friends to Mr. Tier, coming up, they immediately landed, attacked the soldiers in turn, disarmed them in an instant, and gave them such a drubbing, that they soon ordered a retreat, and it is not probable this party will again be found abusing peaceable citizens.

PHILADELPHIA, FEB. 17.

The Pilot, Captain Clark, from Bourdeaux, has arrived below. She sailed the first of Jan. and confirms in a great degree, the news of Buonaparte's arriving at Paris on the 18th December. Mr. Barlow, the American minister who had gone all the way to Wilna, to have an interview with Buonaparte, was at Dresden, (the Capital of Saxony) on his way back to Paris.

He had, however, met the Emperor at Wilna and had a conference of two hours with him. Mr. Taylor of this city is a passenger in the Pilot, and is bearer of despatches. He landed at N. Castle, and proceeded immediately to Washington.
