

longer be delayed, which... down the spirit of the nation, destroying all confidence in itself and its political institutions; and... perpetuating a state of... suffering or regaining, by... costly sacrifices and more... struggles, our boat rank and... among independent powers.

On the issue of the war are... our national sovereignty on... high seas, and security of an... class of citizens, whose... give the proper value to... of every other class. Not to... for such a stake, is to... our equality with other powers... on the element common to all;... to violate the sacred title, which... every member of the society has... its protection. I need not call... view the unlawfulness of the... practice, by which our mariners... of the will of every... officer, from their own... into foreign ones, nor paint the... inseparable from it. The... in the records of each... administration of our government... and the cruel sufferings of that... of the American people have... their way to every... to the sympathies of human... nature.

As the war was just in its... and necessary and noble in its... objects, we can reflect with a... satisfaction, that in carrying it... no principle of justice or honor... usage of civilized nations, no... of courtesy or humanity have... been infringed. The war has... been waged on our part, with... regard to all these nations, and... a spirit of liberality which was... never surpassed.

How little has been the effect... of this example on the conduct... of the enemy?

They have retained as prisoners... of war citizens of the United... States, not liable to be so... considered under the usages of war.

They have refused to consider... as prisoners of war, and threatened... to punish as traitors and deserters... persons emigrating without... restraint to the United States;... incorporated by naturalization... into our political family, and... fighting under the authority... of their adopted country, in... open and honorable war, for... the maintenance of its rights... and safety. Such is the... avowed purpose of a government... which is in the practice... of naturalizing, by thousands... citizens of other countries, and... not only of permitting but... compelling them to fight its... battles against their native... country.

They have not, it is true, taken... into their own hands the... hatchet and the knife, devoted... to indiscriminate massacre, but... they have let loose the savages... armed with these cruel instruments;... have allured them into their... service, and carried them to... battle by their sides, eager to... glut their savage thirst with the... blood of the vanquished, and to... finish the work of torture and... death on maimed and defenceless... captives. And what was never... before seen, British commanders... have exhorted victory over the... unconquerable valor of our... troops, by presenting to the... sympathy of their chief awaiting... massacre from their savage associates.

And now we find them in further... contempt of the modes of honorable... warfare supplying the place of a... conquering force, by attempts to... disorganize our political society, to... dismember our confederated Republic... Happily, like others these will... recoil on the authors; but they... mark the degenerate councils from... which they emanate; and if they... did not belong to a series of... unexampled inconsistencies, might... excite the greater wonder at... proceeding from a government... which founded the very war... which it has been so long engaged... against the disorganizing and... insurrectionary policy of its... adversary.

To render the justice of the... war on our part, more conspicuous, the... reluctance to commence it was... followed by the earliest and... strongest manifestations of a... disposition to arrest its progress... The sword was scarcely out of the... scabbard, before the enemy was... apprized of the reasonable terms... on which it would be re-sheathed... Still more precise advances were... repeated, and have been received... in a spirit of forbidding every... reliance, not placed on the... military resources of the nation.

These resources are amply... sufficient to bring the war to an... honorable issue. Our nation... is in number more than half that... of the British Isles. It is composed of a... brave, free, a virtuous, and an... intelligent people. Our country... abounds in the necessities, the... arts, and the comforts of life... A general prosperity visible in the public countenance, the means employed by the British... cabinet to undermine it, have recoiled... on themselves; have given to our... national faculties a more rapid... development; and draining or diverting... the precious metals from British... vaults, have enriched them into those of the... United States. It is a propitious... consideration, that an unavoidable... war should have found this... seasonable facility for the... contributions required to support it... When the public voice... called for war, all knew, and... will know that without them it... could not be carried on, through... the period which it might last;... and the patriotism, the good sense... and the manly spirit of our... fellow citizens, are pledges for... their usefulness with which they will... bear each his share of the common... garden. To render the war... short, and its success sure, animated... and systematic exertions alone are... necessary; and the success of our... arms may long preserve our... country from the necessity of... another resort to them. Already... have the gallant exploits of our... naval heroes proved to the world... our inherent capacity to maintain... our fights on one element. If the... reputation of our arms has been... thrown under clouds on the other,... presaging flashes of heroic... enterprise assure us that nothing... is wanting to correspondent triumphs... there also, but the discipline and... habits which are in daily progress.

NEW-YORK, MARCH 4.
The captain of the Swedish ship Ann... arrived from Gothenburg, via the... Downes, informs, that on the 27th... Feb. he was boarded by an officer... from a British fleet of 7 sail of the... line and one brig, under command... of admiral Cockburn, bound to the... Chesapeake. By this arrival we have... a London paper of the 27th January... one day later than before... received; but it contains nothing new.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.
Albany, Saturday Feb. 28.
A Dragoon, at Greenbush, escaped... from his quarters last night, and... being pursued by a sentinel killed him... on the spot.

Albany is all in confusion. An... express has arrived from Col. Pike, but... I cannot ascertain its contents. This... morning Gen. Dearborn started for... Sackett's Harbor in a coach and four, and... was stationed at Greenbush, amounting... to about 300, to commence their... march at that place to-morrow morning... Governor Prevozt has adjourned the... legislature of Canada, and has... marched with his force to Kingston. Something... moment is certainly about transpiring.

This moment forty sailors have... arrived in stages from Newport, on their... way to Sackett's Harbour.

Extract of another letter, same date.
Two expresses arrived here this... morning from Plattsburg and Sackett's... Harbor; and at twelve o'clock... General Dearborn set off for the... latter place. He gave orders for about... 300 men to be sent to follow him... immediately. Sir Geo. Prevost is at... Kingston and it is expected that he will... make an attempt to burn our vessels. The... camp have carried off or destroyed all... the public stores at Ogdensburgh.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.
The lateness of the hour at which... we received the London papers and... political intelligence brought by... Captain Terry on Thursday evening, and... the pre-occupancy of our paper, prevented us not only from giving... more than a brief abstract of the... Russian success, but obliged us to... omit the whole of his marine news. He... informs us, that the voice of... England is, "that the thunders of... British cannon is to be heard in the... American ports the ensuing summer." "That... in six months the American flag... will disappear from the sea!"

There were lying in Portsmouth, ready for sea, 19 sail of the line, which... are to be joined by several... frigates, sloops of war and gun-brigs, well provided with the necessities... of war, for the purpose of blockading... the American coast. It was... reported they had taken on board a great... quantity of shells for bombarding, and... that an attack on New-York was... contemplated as soon as the winter... season would permit.

Several 74 gun ships were cutting... out for frigates, and several large... es buildings. These are intended to... go alongside our frigates. There are... also several large vessels ready... to sail, each carrying 32 guns, and... called privateers.

It was believed in England that... an attempt to destroy our harbours... or to report towns would take place... from the American troops were... sailing into Canada.

GLORIOUS NEWS.
Postscript of a letter, dated Philadelphia, March 5—late at night.
"Open my letter to communicate to you the pleasing intelligence of the capture of the British frigate Castor, of 32 guns, by the Essex. This information was endorsed on the way, bill of the Baltimore stage by Mr. Anderson, of Chester, who has received a letter from his son-in-law, Captain Porter. A large ship has arrived off Reedy Island supposed to be the Essex. It was announced to a crowded audience at the theatre by Mr. Wood, when every countenance demonstrated the most lively joy and exultation."
Another letter states that there were 150 killed and wounded on board the Castor.
It is reported that the Castor, not the Essex, has arrived off Reedy Island. [C. H. Boats.]

NON-IMPORTATION.
By our Washington news, it appears that the bill for the repeal of the non-importation act, has passed the house as amended, and has gone up to the senate for concurrence. As the repeal of the non-importation act is a cabinet measure, and the government Gazette is now drilling the members of the legislature, in order to prepare them to act upon the bill once more; we should not be surprised if the expunged section should be restored in the senate, and the original bill should yet pass before the end of the session. The government must have money, and any measure, however objectionable, will be resorted to obtain it.

The following conversation we understand lately took place at Washington:
Member of C.—Mr. Secretary, is it absolutely necessary to raise the non-importation this session?
Secretary.—If you expect I shall find de money, you must provide some way to raise it. You pledge de impost to pay de old national debt—You pledge it to pay de treasury notes—You pledge it to pay de loan, and you pledge it to carry on de war; and at de same time you make one law dat destroy dat impost altogether.
Member.—Well if the non-importation is raised, will that bring money enough?
Sec.—I do not say it will—I know it will not. De taxes must be laid, and dat directly too, or you must not expect dat I can find de money to pay de armies, de navies, de interest of de loans, and great many appropriations beside, dat you have made dis session.
Mem.—But will it be politic to lay the taxes?
Sec.—POLITIQUE! ah! dat one oder question. You ask me how we must get de money—you make de war—you raise grand armies—build great ships, appropriate thousands and tens of thousands, and now ask if it is politic to lay de taxes—You should ask one such question two, tree, four years ago, before you had pledged yourselves and de nation to carry on de war. If you will be one grand nation, and spend great deal of money, you must pay taxes, and de sooner you begin de better. Don't you see de expenses rolling up like one grand snow-ball, and not one single dollar in my house to melt dem down.—You must, I say again provide some way to raise de money, or you must stop making appropriations, and your war must cease for de want of l'argent. If you expect to carry on war without money, you must find one more able financier dan your humble servant.

Extract of a letter from Cadiz, dated January 3d.
"Arrived at this port the ship Fair American, from Baltimore, who informs, that he fell in with the French frigate Lx Gloire off the south side of the Western Islands, who have overboard 1200 barrels of flour of the Fair American's cargo, the frigate had destroyed several American vessels. There was another French frigate cruising to the northward of the Islands."
Lord Wellington had left Cadiz for his army, having previously concerted measures for the regulation of the Spanish troops. He made a present of £. 100,000 sterling towards the payment of them. Lord Wel-ington is to have the command of all the armies. In the Cortes, Jan. 22, a resolution was carried, 90 to 60, that "the tribunal of the Inquisition is incompatible with the constitution."

On receiving information of an Algerine frigate having been seen cruising at the entrance into the Straits, the captains of American licensed vessels at Gibraltar, had applied to the government for a convoy; which had been granted. [N. Y. Gazette.]

50 Dollars Reward.
Ran away from the subscriber living in South River Neck, Saturday the 27th February, a negro fellow who calls himself THOMAS BROWN, about 43 years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, has a bald place on the back part of his head; when spoken to has an impediment in his speech; and is much given to intoxication—Had on when he made his escape, a kersey round-about jacket and trousers, two osonburg shirts, old hat and shoes—he also took with him some shoemaker's tools. This fellow was originally from Benedict, Charles county, and may have gone thither as he has some connections in that neighbourhood, or probably to Alexandria, as he is there well acquainted. If taken ten miles from home ten dollars will be given, if 20 miles, 20 dollars, if 30 miles, 30 dollars, if 40 miles, 40 dollars, and if out of the state, the above reward if brought home to the subscriber. All persons are forewarned harbouring said fellow, as the law will be enforced against all such offenders. JOSEPH N. BREWER, A. A. County, March 11. tf.

It is probable he is lurking about in the lower end of this county, where he has an extensive acquaintance and many relations, and from whence I lately purchased him of John Serviner, living near Friendship; he likewise has relations in Alexandria. Whoever takes up the above mentioned negro and brings him home or confines him in any goal so that I get him, shall receive if in this county, 20 dollars, if fifty miles from home, 30 dollars, and if out of the state the above reward. FREDERICK MACKUBIN, March 11. ta.
