Head Quarters, Fort George, June 25th, 1813.

SIR-I have the mortification of forming you of an unfortunate and paccountable event which occurred esterday. On the 23d, at evening, jeat, Col. Beerstler, with 570 men, mantry, artillery, cavalry and riflemen, in due proportion, was ordered march by the way of Queenstown, oa place called the Beaver Dams, the high ground, about eight or ine miles from Queenstown, to atack and disperse a body of the enecollected there for the purpose procuring provisions and harrasthose inhabitants who are consirightose inhabitants who are consi-ered friendly to the United States. Their force was, from the most di-ed information, composed of one ompany of the 104th Regiment aove 80 strong; from 150 to 200 ilitia, and from 50 to 60 Indians. tt eight o'clock yesterday morning hen within about two miles of the eaver Dams, our detachment was tacked from an ambuscade; but on drove the enemy some dis-ace into the woods, and then rered to a clear field, and sent an exress for a reinforcement, saying he hald maintain his position until reforced; a reinforcement of 300 men arched immediately under the comand of Col. Chrystie; but on arring at Queenstown, Col. Chryie received authentic information at Lieut. Col. Berstler with his mmand had surrendered to the e-

ZANESVILLE, JUNE 30.

An express has just arrived from Camp Meigs, bringing information that an army of British and Indians were about to make another attack upon that place. I think it probable that Fort Meigs is not the object, but that the attack will be upon Lower Sandusky, Cleveland or Erie. I shall set out early in the morning for Sandusky, and will keep you constantly apprised of the events passing in that direction.

Off Sandy Hook, July 6, 1813.

I have the pleasure to inform you of the capture of the British sloop tender (Eagle) which for some time had been employed by commodore Berresford for the purpose of burning the coasters, &c. Her force was two officers and 11 men, with a 32 lb. brass howitzer.

This service was performed in a most gallant and officer-like manner by Sailing master Percival, who with volunteers from the flotilla which I have the honor to command, jumped on board a fishing smack, ran the enemy along side, and carried him by a coup de main. I am sorry to add that in this little affair the enemy lost the commanding officer, one midshipman mortally wounded and two seamen badly. I am happy to say we suffered no injury, which is to be attributed to the superior management of Sailing-master Per cival, and the coolness with which his men fired, for which they all deserve well of their country.

I have the honor to be, &c J. LEWIS, Com. U. S. Flotilla. Hon. Wm. Jones,

Secretary of the Navy. P. S. The capture was on Sunday the 4th inst.

FROM THE N. W. ARMY. PRIVATE CORRESPONDENCE. Camp Meigs, June 23.

Information has reached us, by two men who escaped from Detroit, that Col. Proftor intends to besiege this place again, and that we may expect him with 1500 regulars and 4000 Indians the first fair wind. The result cannot be doubted, as we have repaired the fortifications considerably. Col. Johnson's regiment of mounted men arrived last night. Col. Anderson's regiment is expected to-morrow, and Gen. M'Arthur with 500 recruits will be here in a few days, which will give us a respectable force. Our situation will be much more advantageous than it was at the former siege, as the men will not be worn down by fatigue. Gen. Harrison is expected here tomorrow. It is supposed that the enemy has retreated with all his force from Lake Ontario with the intention of cutting off this place. We shall be prepared for them at all points and in any shape he may make the attack.

CHILICOTHE, JULY 2. The express mail has just arrived from Franklington, with the following important intelligence, for which we are indebted to the politeness of Gov. Meigs. If ever there was a time when the services of our fellowcitizens was necessary, that time has now arrived, and our worthy Governor relies with confidence on the disposition of the people to repel invasion by an immediate and voluntary recourse to arms.

mation of an attack upon that post, | go down to the commodore then a yesterday evening by 300 Indians. Colonel Ball's squadron, and Major Croghan's battalion were 5 miles in advance of Upper Sandusky this morning and were pushing on to Lower Sandusky.

Gen. Harrison, with Anderson's regiment; left Lower Sandusky on Sunday for the Rapids. Johnson's regiment had reached that place on the 25th ult. My letter further states that firing had been heard for two days in the direction of the Rapids. The Gen. must have got into the Fort the day before the firing commenced.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your most obedient servant, J. C. BARTLET. His Ex. Gov. Meigs.

NEWBURYPORT, JULY 4. Arrived sloop Ranger, Denns.

from Penobscot, 17 days. A passenger states, that on the 21st ult. discovered a privateer sloop in Owl's Head Narrows, about 1 mile to westward, in chase of a sloop, which run and came to anchor, where 3 others were lying, all of which were taken. Two others, a sloop belonging to Penobscott and a Thomastown schr. Captain Spear, which were standing on to the westward were also captured. The same afternoon, three of the prizes were moved down into the Thoroughfare, preparatory to manning them out; 2 escaped by running on shore, the other slipped her cables and run back to Thomastown. One of the prizes was a sloop from Boston for monument to the memory of a Bri-Bucks-town, with rum, molasses, tish officer of the Assistance, of 50 corn, &c. which they removed into guns) Mr. Henry Morris master's the Thomas-town schr. intending to give up the sloop to send in the prisoners. During this time from two to 300 militia collected, and proceeded down to Fox-Island, it being thick foggy weather; when, at half past 2 on the morning of the 22d the fog clearing away, the privateer appeared at anchor about 20 rods from the shore, where they commenced firing upon her, with small arms and 1 field piece, which killed the privateersmen almost as fast as they came

The 1st Lieut. cut the cable, and in attempting to hoist the jib (lying flat on his back) had his under jaw shot away; the captain was killed, and but 9 men it was said survived, the rest being either killed or wounded; it being ebb tide, she drifted out, and when out of reach of the musketry got under way, leaving all her prizes, which again fell into the hands of the rightful owners. The crews put in to man them, in attempting to escape to the privateer in boats, were either killed or wounded. The action lasted about an hour. The above information was received from the American prisoners, who were on board during the action, and who were afterwards put on shore on the White-Islands. The privateer proved to be the Buckskin, formerly of Salem, carrying 3 guns, was fitted out of St. Andrews. She had on board a number of U. S. soldiers, who had deserted from Eastport, and entered on board the Buckskin. They were many of them known by the Americans belonging to the above coast-

noon a fishing smack was sent out from Musquito Cove by Commodore Lewis, who has the command of the florilla of gun-boats stationed at the Hook, for the purpose of taking by stratagem the sloop Eagle, tender to the British 74 Poictiers, cruizing off and on Sandy Hook Light House. The smack, named the Yankee, was borrowed of some fishermen at Fly Market, and a calf, a sheep and a goose, purchased and secured on Between 30 and 40 men well armed with muskets, were secreted in the cabin and forepeake of the smack. Thus prepared she stood out to sea, as if going on a fishing trip to the banks, three men only being on deck, dressed in fishermens apparel with buff caps on. The Ea-bout's miles distant. The helmsman of the smack answered aye, aye, sir, and apparently put up the helm for that purpose, which brought him along side the Eagle not more than 3 yards distant. The watch word, Lawrence, was then given, when the armed men rushed on deck from their hiding places, and poured into her a volley of musketry, which struck her crew with dismay, and drove them all down so precipitately into the hold of the vessel, that they had not time to strike their colours. Seeing the deck was cleared of the enemy, sailing master Percival who commanded the expedition, ordered his men to cease firing. Upon which one of the enemy came out the hold and struck the colours of the Eagle. She had on board a 32 pound brass howitzer, loaded with cannister shot; but so sudden was the surprize that they had not time to discharge it. The crew of the Eagle consisted of H. Morris, master-mate of the Poictiers, W. Price midshipman, and 11 marines. Mr. Morris was killed, and Mr. Price mortally wounded; one marine killed, and 1 severely wounded. The Eagle with the prisoners, was brought up to town yesterday afternoon, and landed at Whitehall, amid the shouts and plaudits of thousands of spectators, assembled on the battery celebrating the 4th of July.

On Monday, July 5, was interred at Sandy Hook, with military honors (on the spot where was erecled the monument to the memory of a Brimate commanding His B. M. Tender Eagle, who fell in the action with the smack Yankee, under the command of John Percival of U.S. flotilla, on the morning of the same day. Every appropriate mark of respect was paid to his memory that was due to a brave and gallant officer of his rank.

CHILLICOTHE, JUNE 29. On Monday the 21st instant, General Harrison held a council in Franklington with the chiefs of the Delaware, Shawanoe, Wyandot and Seneca tribes of Indians, to the amount of about 50. The General, in his talk to these chiefs, observed to them that he had been induced to call them together in order to ascertain their real intentions. He informed them that a crisis had arrived which demanded that all the tribes, which had heretofore remained neutral, should take a decided stand either for us or against us; and that in order to give the U. States a guarantee of their good dispositions, the friendly tribes should either move with their families, into the settlements, or their warriors should accompany him in the ensuing campaign, and fight for the United States. The chiefs having expressed their willingness to accede to the propositions of the General, and their satisfaction in having an opportunity of fighting for the U. States, he would let them know when their services should be required .-He also informed them that all those who should go with him must follow his mode of warfare, and not kill or injure old men, women, children, nor prisoners : that no one but a coward or a squary would kill those who were unable to defend themselves; and that as gen. Proctor had agreed to deliver him (Harrison) up to Tecumseh, if they had succeeded in taking Fort Meigs he promised them in his turn, if he should be successful, to deliver Proctor into their hands, provided they ing up with her, and finding she had
