DOCUMENTS

Accompanying the report of the secretary of state respecting our foreign relations.

(A.)
Extract of a letter from Mr. Barlow to Mr. Monroe, dated Paris, May 12, 1812.

"After the date of my letter, of which I have the honour to enclose you a copy, I found, from a pretty sharp conversation with the Duke of Bassano, that there was a singular reluctance to answering my note of the 1st of May. Some traces of that reluctance you will perceive in the answer which finally came, of which a copy is here enclosed. This, though dated the 10th, did not come to me till last evening. I consider the communication to be so important in the present crisis of our affairs with England, that I despatched the Wasp immediately to carry it to Mr. Russell, with orders to return with his answer as soon as possible.

"I am confident that the president will approve the motive of my solicitude in this affair and the earnest manner in which I pressed the minister with it as soon as my knowledge of the declaration of the Prince Regent enabled me to use the argument that belonged to the subject. When in the conversation above alluded to, the Duke first produced to me the decree of the 28th April, 1811, I made no comment on the strange manner in which it had been so long concealed from me, and probably from you. I only asked him if that decree had been published: he said, no; but declared it had been communicated to my predecessor here, and likewise sent to Mr. Serrurier with orders to communicate it to you. I assured him it was not among the archives of this legation; that I never before had heard of it, and, since he had consented to answer my note, I desired him to send me in that official manner, a copy of that decree, and of any other documents that might prove to the incredulous of my country (not to me) that the decrees of Berlin and Milan were in good faith and unconditionally repealed with regard to the U. S. He then promised me he would do it, and he has performed his promise.

"I send you a copy of the April decree, as likewise of the letter of the grand judge and that of the minister of finances, though the two latter pieces have been before communicated to our government and published."

(B.)
The Duke of Bassano to Mr. Barlow.
[TRANSLATION.]
Paris, May 10, 1812.

"In conversing with you about the note which you did me the honour to address to me on the 1st of May, I could not conceal from you my surprise at the doubt which you had expressed in that note, respecting the revocation of the decrees of Berlin and Milan. That revocation was proven by many official acts, by all my correspondents with your predecessors and which you, by the decisions in favour of American vessels. You have done me the honour to ask a copy of the letters which the grand judge and minister of finances wrote on the 25th December, 1810, to state the first effects of that measure, and you have said, sir, that the decree of the 28th April, 1811, which proves definitively the revocation of the decrees of Berlin and Milan in regard to the Americans, was not known to you.

"I have the honour to send you, as you have desired, a copy of these three acts; you will consider them without doubt, sir, the plainest answer which I could give to this part of your note. As to the two other questions to which that note relates, I will take care to lay them before the Emperor. You know already, of the U. S. issued on the 2d of November, a proclamation to announce the revocation of the decrees of Berlin and Milan, and declared that in consequence thereof all the restrictions imposed by the act of the 1st May must cease with respect to France and her dependencies: on the same day the treasury department addressed a circular to all the collectors of the customs of the U. S. which enjoins them to admit into the ports and waters of the U. S. armed French vessels; prescribes to them to apply after the 2d of February next to English vessels of every description, and to productions arising from the soil and industry, or the commerce of England and her dependencies, the law which prohibits all commercial relations, if at that period the revocation of the English orders in council, and of all the acts violating the neutrality of the U. S. should not be announced by the treasury department.

In consequence of this arrangement entered into by the government of the U. S. to cause their rights to be respected, his majesty orders, that all causes that may be pending in the council of prizes of capture of American vessels, made after the first of Nov. and those that may in future be brought before it, shall not be judged according to the principles of the decrees of Berlin and Milan, but that they shall remain suspended; the vessels captured or seized to remain only in a state of sequestration, and the rights of the proprietors being reserved for them until the 2d of February next, the period at which the U. S. have fulfilled the engagements to cause their rights to be respected, the said captures shall be declared null by the council, and the American vessels restored, together with their cargoes, to their proprietors.

Receive Mr. President the new assurances of my most distinguished consideration.

The DUKE OF MESSA.

Palace of St. Cloud, April 28, 1811.
Napoleon, Emperor of the French, &c. &c.

On the report of our minister of foreign relations:—
Seeing by a law passed on the second of March, 1811, the Congress of the U. S. has ordered the execution of the provisions of the act of non-intercourse, which prohibits the vessels and merchandize of G. Britain, her colonies and dependencies, from entering into the ports of the U. S.

Considering that the said law is an act of resistance to the arbitrary pretensions consecrated by the British orders in council, and a formal refusal to adhere to a system invading the independence, of neutral powers and of their flag, we have decreed and do decree as follows:—
The decrees of Berlin and Milan are definitively, and to date from the 1st of Nov. last, considered as not having existed (non avenue) in regard to American vessels.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Barlow to Mr. Russell, dated Paris, May 11th, 1812.
"I have concluded to despatch the Wasp to England, expressly to carry to you the documents here-with enclosed.
"I was not a little surprised to learn, by the declaration of the Prince Regent in council of the 21st of April, that it was still believed by the British government, that the French decrees of Berlin and Milan yet remained in force as applicable to the U. S. On reading that declaration, I therefore addressed to the Duke of Bassano, a note bearing date 1st of May, of which I enclose you a copy.
"This drew from him the answer, of which I likewise hand you a copy, with the three documents that accompanied it. The most remarkable of these is the decree of the 28th of April, 1811. This piece I had never before seen: it appears that it had not been published at the time of its date, and, not finding it among the archives of this legation, I suspect, that by some omission or neglect, it was not communicated to you as it ought to have been. The duke, however, assures me that it was so communicated. Be this as it may, I am convinced it has not been made known to the British government.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Russell to Mr. Barlow.
London, May 29th, 1812.

"Your letter of the 11th of this month, with its enclosures, was handed me on the 20th, and I immediately communicated copies of the letters from the French ministers of the 21st of Dec. 1810, and also of the decree of the 28th April, 1811, to this government. The letters were already known, but the decree, from the cause undoubtedly which you so justly assign, namely "an omission or neglect in not having communicated it to me," was entirely new.

The duke of Bassano has unquestionably full faith in what he assures you, but the date of the decree is so very remote, that it is not surprising that our memories should not accord on the subject."

(E)
Extract of a letter from Mr. Russell to Mr. Monroe.
London, 30th May, 1812.

"With regard to the French decree of the 28th of April, 1811, Mr. Barlow, in a letter to me makes the following remark: "this piece I had never before seen, it seems that it had not been published at the time of its date, and not finding it among the archives of the legation, I suspect, that, by some omission or neglect, it was not communicated to you, as it ought to have been. The Duke assures me that it was so communicated. Be this as it may, I am convinced it has not been made known to the British government."

I content myself with saying, that, until communicated to me by Mr. Barlow, I had never heard of such a thing. I persuade myself that there is no necessity of my adding any further explanation or comment on this strange business."

With great respect,
I am, sir, &c. &c.

(F)
Mr. Russell to Mr. Monroe.
London, 25th May, 1812.

Sir,
I have the honor to hand you herein a copy of my note of the 20th of this month, communicating to Lord Castlereagh a decree of the French government dated the 28th of April, 1811, and two letters of the French Ministers of the 25th of Dec. 1810. I also send you copies of that decree and of a note from his Lordship acknowledging the receipt of my communication, and engaging to submit the documents above mentioned to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

I have the honor to be, with profound respect, sir, your faithful servant,
(Signed)
JONA. RUSSELL.

The Hon. James Monroe, &c. &c. &c.
Mr. Russell to Lord Castlereagh.
18, Bentick St. 20th May, 1812.

The undersigned Charge d'Affaires of the United States of America, has the honor to transmit to Lord Castlereagh authentic copies of a decree purporting to be passed by the Emperor of the French on the 28th day of April, 1811, of a letter addressed by the French Minister of Finances to the Director General of the Customs on the 25th day of December, 1810, and of another letter of the same date from the French Minister of Justice to the President of the Council of Prizes.

As these acts explicitly recognize the revocation of the Berlin and Milan decrees, in relation to the U. S. and distinctly make this revocation to take effect from the first day of November, 1810, the undersigned cannot but persuade himself that they will, in the official and authentic form in which they are now presented to his Britannic majesty's government, remove all doubt with respect to the revocation in question, and, joined with all the powerful considerations of justice and expediency so often suggested, lead to a like repeal of the British Orders in Council, and thereby to a renewal of that perfect amity and unrestrained intercourse between this country and the United States, which the obvious interests of both nations require.

The undersigned avails himself of this occasion, to assure his lordship of his highest consideration.
(Signed)
JONATHAN RUSSELL.
The Right Hon. Lord Viscount Castlereagh, &c.

NOTE.—For the enclosures, see correspondence between Mr. Barlow and the Duke of Bassano, communicated herewith.
Lord Castlereagh to Mr. Russell.
Foreign Office, May 23, 1812.

Lord Castlereagh presents his compliments to Mr. Russell and has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of his official note of the 21st instant transmitting copies of two official letters of the French ministers, dated Dec. 25th, 1810, and of a decree of the French government, bearing date on the 28th of April 1811.

Lord Castlereagh will immediately lay these documents before his Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and avails himself of this opportunity to renew to Mr. Russell the assurances of his high consideration.
Jonathan Russell, Esq. &c. &c.

(G)
Mr. Russell to Mr. Monroe.
London, May 25, 1812.

Sir,
The assassination of Mr. Perceval has led to a dissolution of his ministry, and I hope may lead to an abandonment of his system, as far as we are concerned.
The vote, on motion of Mr. Steward Wortley, on the 21st, for an address to the Prince Regent, to form a more efficient administration, has driven the old ministers to offer their resignation. The new arrangements are entrusted to lord Wellesley, but nothing is yet effected.
Mr. Canning appears to be associated with his lordship in this business, which I cannot consider as a circumstance very auspicious to us. There will, undoubtedly, be much difficulty in forming the new cabinet, none of the old ministers will act under lord Wellesley, he having so recently refused to act under them.— Besides there is considerable difference on essential points of policy. The members of opposition have a repugnance to act under any leader not taken from their own ranks, and they certainly will not constitute a part of any administration that does not adopt their system.
The probability, therefore, is, that either lord Wellesley and Mr. Canning will not succeed in performing the task imposed upon them, or that they will perform it so imperfectly as to expose their work to early destruction.
Whatever may be the ingredients of which the new cabinet may be composed, I am not altogether without hope: that the orders in council will be modified if not removed.— The effects of our embargo, the evidence before Parliament of the distresses occasioned by those orders, and the change of ministers itself, afford both cause and color for this proceeding.
I say nothing of the French decree, of which I this day send you a copy, as, without the circumstances just mentioned, it would, I am persuaded, have been disregarded.
I shall dismiss the Wasp as soon as the new ministry is formed or before, unless that event happens in a few days. She will return to Chebourg.
With great respect,
I am, &c.
(Signed)
JONA. RUSSELL.
