GENERAL ORDERS.

The goveryor in chief and commander of the forces, has the satisfaction to announce to the troops, that the corps of observation with the division of Gun-boats which he had ordered from Kingaton to follow the movements of the enemy's army under Major General Wilkinson, to be placed under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Morrison of the 80th regiment, has completely defeated a large division of the American army consisting of cavalry, riflemen and infantry, exceeding 4000 men, which attacked it on the 11th inst. near Chrystler's about 20 miles above Cornwall, taking from the enemy 1 field piece (six pounder,) and 400 prisoners. As his excellency is not yet in possession of the particulars of this brilliant achievement, he cannot specify the loss sustained by either: that of the enemy, as represented by an eye witness to the action, has been very considerable. It has been further reported to his excellency that lieut. col. Morrison of the 89th regiment, and capt. Mutcaster, of the royal navy, with a division of gun-boats, has effected a landing at Hamilton, where they were put in possession of that place, and all the public stores left for the use of the American army, and among other articles, they restor d to them the goods that had been taken on board of the 7 merchant batteaux belonging to Montreat, captured a few weeks ago, and atter destroying the public buildings, our torces again united and continued to hung on the enemy's rear.

His ex ellency has also a report from capt. Mulcaster of the royal navy; stat og his having brought over from Ogdensburgh to Prescott, a 13 men and a ten inch brass mortar, with their stores, and a large supply o: provisions, which had been deposited there by the American army.

It will also be satisfactory to the troops to learn, that our loss of brave and gallant soldiers was not considerable, neither Lt. Col. Morrison, Harvey or Pearson, has suffered or the occasion, and on the 12th the daring little band were renewing ti c molestation of the enemy in its progress towards Montreal, where May Gen. Wilkinson had publicly declared it was the orders of his government to take up his winter quar-

This order to be publicly read at the head of every regiment of regular troops, and battalien of militia. By his excellency's command, mocratic paper.

It is even so. The predictions of those baleful epirits whose maledictions have accompanied the American arms in every stage of their progress, fare half accomplished. Although our armies are not wholly destroyed or taken by the enemy, the adversary is not discomfitted, and the object of the campaign is not effected. It is true, while there remained any room to hope, we did hope for the best for our country; we were unwilling intentionally to contribute to deject the public spirit or weaken the pub-

Yet contrary to every honorable, manly, and rational expediation, the campaigness terminated in disaster and ais. e; the end and object of the war is procrastinated for at least one year longer in its attainment.

That this depiorable issue is to be attributed to general inefficiency and delay, particular negligence, orpositive misconduct, in some quarter, is hardly to be questioned. The season has been wasted away until the elements have interposed to llefeat our operations; and the inclemency of November, in a high northern latitude, which could neither be unforeseen hor miscalenlated upon, after breaking down the health & efficie co their worse than useless efforts, and sent them into quarters for the winter. They will doubtless recruit their strength, and profit by their experience, and may possibly saize some favorable opportunity, to make a sudden and decisive attempt on the enemy before spring. And in any to act with better judgment and renewed vigor in the coming year, at least one month before any reinforcements can possibly reach the British by water conveyance.

Where the blame of out seands lous campaign should be attached, is got out wish or province to determine. It is sufficient for us that it will degrade us in the eyes of the world, and every American must bear his portion of the ignominy. And there can be no doubt that a judicious enquiry into the causes of our failure will be made by the proper authority, and the necessary exposition made to the pub-

MODERN TORYISM. We have learnt with great satisfaction that Samuel Livermore, Esq. two years one of the proprietors of this Journal, has volunteered his services in the frigate President, to cruise against the enemy. This distinguished young patriot maintained the cause of his country with the pen as ably as he bravely defended the honor of our flag with the sword. His attachment to the navy and triendship for captain Lawrence, prompted him to volunteer on board the Chesapeake, when she sailed to encounter the Shannon. He fought by the side of his unfortunate friend until he was mortally wounded and removed below. He then threw himself at the head of a small party collected near the forecastle, where with twenty men, he received and resisted the boarding party from the Shannon, led by Captain Broke .-Broke advanced within a few paces of Mr. Livermore, and supposing from his position and appearance, that he commanded the little party remaining on deck, he called out in a peremptory tone, surrender! The intrepid Livermore's reply was given by a small pocket pistol, the only weapon he had, which he instantly drew and fired at the captain. The shot did not take, effect, and Broke instantly cut down this young tory with his sabre, but in his turn was prostrated by a sabre cut on the head. They lay and bled together within a few paces of each other .-As mentioned in the biography of the lamented Lawrence, the object of his brave surviving friend Liver. more, in firing at Broke, when all resistance seemed hopeless, was to avenge the death of his noble friend. Livermore's wound was severe, and he will feel the effects of it as long as he lives. His object in going upon the second cruize, is " to obtain satisfaction!" We hope he will find what he seeks, but is there no danger of his provoking the enemy, so treacherously treated, to disclose the secret of his being a British pensioner? It is a little strange, that none of the tories who have fought the enemy so hard this war, have had their corrupt connection with the Prince Regent exposed. Cobbett would call is a blind. Gales a " perplexing enizma." Since the war commenced no man has acquired, or entitled himsel: to more honor and applause than Mr. Livermore, whose profession & business did not compel him to fight, but who acted with a characteristic delicacy of honor and intrepidity, which could not be surpassed in a similar situation, and under like circumstances.

From the United States Gazette.

General Washington during his acministration never originated appointment, not authorised by law, during the recess of the senate; nor was such innovation ever made on the constitution, till Mr. Jefferson set the example.

It is a fact, perhaps not generally known, that John Jay received no more than his salary as chier justice of the U. States, during his mission to Great Britain, except his actual expences, for which, in every possible case, he produced vouchers for every sum even as low as five dol-

THE SENATOR,

EBENEZER H. CUMMINS. Will contain a full, impartial and minute report of the proceedings of the Senate; a Journal of the House of Representatives; Public Documents, authentic; Speeches of the Senators and Representatives, select; Communications of Governors of the different States to their respective Legislative bodies ; Laws of the United States; Proclamations, Orders, Decrees and Manifesesting to the people of the U. States; Forensic Elocution, foreign and domestic; Biography; Eulogium; Essaye, moral, pulitical, statistical; Army and Navy Register: exploits American heroes; treaties with foreign Nations; Commercial Intelligente; together with such remarks ns shall be incident to the design of the work. The editor reserves to himself the privilege of occasion ally publishing such reflections upor public events, public measures, and public men, as shall be consistent with decorum and the rights of an impartial American freeman. whole will comprize a valuable political Calender, for officers, civil and military, professional gentlemen and citizens

The design of this establishment is in a special manner to preserve, and perpetuate the proceedings, of the Senate. It has been observed with no little sarprize, that the Senate of the United States, ever since the commencement of the Government has comparatively excited little attention. The House of Representatives, heretofore, has engrossed the public sympathy and public notice; therefore journalists and reporters for newspapers have taken care to profit by the preference .-They have watched the movements and actions of that body with the greatest assiduity and accuracy.

The editor of the Journal now proposed to be published, has ever believed the Senate to be in no degree and by no comparison less im-portant as a branch of the Federal Government, than the House of Representatives; and he is persuaded that its proceedings will afford enough to interest the people of the U. S. The late sessions of that body have been of a nature and character, and consequence highly important and deeply interesting to the feelings of the American nation. And it is certain that in proportion as our foreign relations become more and more intricate by commercial collision, or otherwise, its patriotism, its wisdom, its fidelity, ambition or political depravity, will have a great and serious influence upon the future nappiness and general prosperity of this great and growing Commonwealth. Hence it is believed that the establishment of a journal to collect and enroll for the purpose of dissemination, the proceedings of the Senate, is indispensible, and that the utility and public convenience of such an institution were never more apparent than at the present moment.

The Editor having obtained the necessary permission to report the proceedings of the Senate, & having procured all suitable arrangements to facilitate his plan, will be prepared to issue the 1st number of "The SENATOR" during the first week of the next session of Congress.

The Editor has to express his surprize that an institution similar to the one proposed has never before been established. Indeed it would seem that such an one ought to have been coeval with the existence and continuance of our government.-All the abilities of the Editor, and his assiduous exertions, shall be unremittingly taxed to ensure the prosperity of this work, and he only solicits of the public a corresponding patronage. To the American states. man. American husbandman, and American mechanic, it will be the cheapest library in the world.

Terms and Conditions. I. "THE SENATOR" will be published in the District of Colum bia, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday in every week.

II. It will be delivered to subscriin Georgetown and the of Washington on the days of publication at their respective houses -and in separate packets addressed to other subscribers as they shall direct.

III. The paper shall be of equal quality and size with that on which the Daily National Intelligenceris published; the type will be beautiful and legible.

V. The price will be Six Dollars in advance; the first payment to be made on delivery of the first number by subscribers in the District of Columbia. V. Advertisements, literary notices,

&c. as the limits may admit, at the terms usual in the District. Applicants and correspondents will address the Editor at Washington or. Georgetown-their letters and communications post paid, & Editors of newspapers dispos ed to favor the prosperity of the SENATOR, are requested without delay to republish the prospectus above, as often as they shall find it convenient.
