

Boston Gazette Office
 Nov. 27, 1813.
 We have this moment been politely favored with a hand-bill, from Montreal, containing the following British official account of the battle near Cornwall.

Head-Quarters, La Chine,
 13th Nov. 1813.

GENERAL ORDERS.

The Governor in chief and commander of the forces, has the satisfaction to announce to the troops, that the corps of observation with the division of Gun-boats which he had ordered from Kingston to follow the movements of the enemy's army under Major General Wilkinson, to be placed under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Morrison of the 80th regiment, has completely defeated a large division of the American army consisting of cavalry, riflemen and Infantry, exceeding 4000 men, which attacked it on the 11th inst. near Chrystler's about 20 miles above Cornwall, taking from the enemy 1 field piece (six pounder,) and 400 prisoners. As his excellency is not yet in possession of the particulars of this brilliant achievement, he cannot specify the loss sustained by either: that of the enemy, as represented by an eye witness to the action, has been very considerable. It has been further reported to his excellency that Lieut. Col. Morrison of the 89th regiment, and Capt. Mulcaster, of the royal navy, with a division of gun-boats, has effected a landing at Hamilton, where they were put in possession of that place, and all the public stores left for the use of the American army, and among other articles, they restored to them the goods that had been taken on board of the 7 merchant batteaux belonging to Montreal, captured a few weeks ago, and after destroying the public buildings, our forces again united and continued to hang on the enemy's rear.

His excellency has also a report from Capt. Mulcaster of the royal navy; stating his having brought over from Ogdensburg to Prescott, a 13 inch and a ten inch brass mortar, with their stores, and a large supply of provisions, which had been deposited there by the American army.

It will also be satisfactory to the troops to learn, that our loss of brave and gallant soldiers was not considerable, neither Lt. Col. Morrison, Harvey or Pearson, has suffered on the occasion, and on the 12th the daring little band were renewing the molestation of the enemy in its progress towards Montreal, where Maj. Gen. Wilkinson had publicly declared it was the orders of his government to take up his winter quarters.

This order to be publicly read at the head of every regiment of regular troops, and battalions of militia.
 By his excellency's command,
EDWARD BAYNES, Adj. Gen.

From the New-York Columbia & Democratic paper.

It is even so. The predictions of those baleful spirits whose maledictions have accompanied the American arms in every stage of their progress, are half accomplished. Although our armies are not wholly destroyed or taken by the enemy, the adversary is not discomfited, and the object of the campaign is not effected. It is true, while there remained any room to hope, we did hope for the best for our country; we were unwilling intentionally to contribute to defeat the public spirit or weaken the public effort.

Yet contrary to every honorable, manly, and rational expectation, the campaign has terminated in disaster and defeat; the end and object of the war is procrastinated for at least one year longer in its attainment.

That this deplorable issue is to be attributed to general inefficiency and delay, particular negligence, or positive misconduct, in some quarter, is hardly to be questioned. The season has been wasted; away until the elements have interposed to defeat our operations; and the inclemency of November, in a high northern latitude, which could neither be unforeseen nor miscalculated upon, after breaking down the health & efficiency of nearly half the troops, has ended their worse than useless efforts, and sent them into quarters for the winter. They will doubtless recruit their strength, and profit by their experience, and may possibly seize some favorable opportunity, to make a sudden and decisive attempt on the enemy's winter quarters. And in any case, we shall have it in our power to act with better judgment and renewed vigor in the coming year, at least one month before any reinforcements can possibly reach the British by water conveyance.

Where the blame of our deplorable campaign should be attached, is not our wish or province to determine. It is sufficient for us that it will grade us in the eyes of the world, and every American must bear his portion of the ignominy. And there can be no doubt that a judicious enquiry into the causes of our failure will be made by the proper authority, and the necessary exposition made to the public.

MODERN TORYISM.

We have learnt with great satisfaction that Samuel Livermore, Esq. two years one of the proprietors of this Journal, has volunteered his services in the frigate President, to cruise against the enemy. This distinguished young patriot maintained the cause of his country with the pen as ably as he bravely defended the honor of our flag with the sword. His attachment to the navy and friendship for Captain Lawrence, prompted him to volunteer on board the Chesapeake, when she sailed to encounter the Shannon. He fought by the side

EBENEZER
 Will conta minute report the Senate, Journal of the of Representatives; Public Documents, authentic; Speeches of the Senators and Representatives, select; Communications of Governors of the different States to their respective Legislative bodies; Laws of the United States; Proclamations, Orders, Decrees and Manifestoes of foreign Governments, interesting to the people of the U. States; Forensic Elocution, foreign and domestic; Biography; Eulogium; Essays, moral, political, statistical; Army and Navy Register; exploits of American heroes; treaties with foreign Nations; Commercial Intelligence; together with such remarks as shall be incident to the design of the work. The editor reserves to himself the privilege of occasion ally publishing such reflections upon public events, public measures, and public men, as shall be consistent with decorum and the rights of an impartial American Freeman. The whole will comprise a valuable political Calendar, for officers, civil and military, professional gentlemen and citizens.

The design of this establishment is in a special manner to preserve, and perpetuate the proceedings, of the Senate. It has been observed with no little surprize, that the Senate of the United States, ever since the commencement of the Government has comparatively excited little attention. The House of Representatives, heretofore, has engrossed the public sympathy and public notice; therefore journalists and reporters for newspapers have taken care to profit by the preference. They have watched the movements and actions of that body with the greatest assiduity and accuracy.

The editor of the Journal now proposed to be published, has ever believed the Senate to be in no degree and by no comparison less important as a branch of the Federal
