A novel, in two volumes, translated from the French of Mad. Genlis— BY A. HERRALSON. To which is prefixed, a Tale of the celebrated M. FLORIAN—Entitled, Claudine, or the Savoyarde. "Perhaps it would be saying enough, to recommend this work to the American reader, to announce it as the production of the prolific mind of Madam Genlis, whose writings, by the mere buoyancy of genius, maintain a distinguished post at the summit of French literature. It is not, however, by the charms of style, or that correct delineation of character, so manifest in the writings of this lady, that they have thus found their way to public admiration; it is by the fine precepts of morality which they inculcate; the art she has of rendering every incident in the conduct of a novel subservient to useful and instructive aim, and of impart-

PROPOSALS BY GEORGE SHAW, ANNAPOILIS, For Printing by Subscription, A NEW WORK, ENTITLED, THE OFFICE AND DUTY OF A JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, Illustrated by a variety of useful Precedents. By J. E. HALL, Esq. Counselor at Law, and Professor of Rhetoric and Belles Lettres in the University of Maryland.

The want of a guide in the execution of the highly important duties of a Magistrate has long been felt. At the instance of several intelligent gentlemen in the commission, and members of the bar, the present editor has been induced to undertake the task of supplying such a work. He has adopted the judicious plan of Dr. Burn's Justice of the Peace as a model. In this work it will be collected, the crime is first defined; the decisions of courts of justice are next collected, interspersed with such statutory regulations as have been established by parliament; and the section is concluded with such precedents as the particular subject requires. So in the present work, the editor, after defining the crime, and collecting a few leading cases from the best authorities, has added such provisions as were to be found in the acts of congress and the laws of Maryland. It is expected that the work will be comprized in an octavo volume of six or seven hundred pages. The price shall not exceed five dollars. It will be put to press when there is a sufficient subscription to pay the expence of publication. Gentlemen who wish to have the book may address the subscriber. Those who purchase, a number of copies for the purpose of selling again, will be allowed a liberal discount. GEORGE SHAW, Annapolis. Jan 26, 1814. In Council, Annapolis, Jan. 24, 1814. Each contractor is to furnish supplies for the county for which he is appointed. Every ration is to consist of one pound and a fourth of a pound of beef, or three quarters of a pound of pork; eighteen ounces of bread or flour; one gill of rum, whiskey or brandy; and two quarts of salt, four quarts of vinegar, four pounds of soap, and one pound and a half of candles, to every hundred of rations. Forage for cavalry, 14 lb hay, 3 gallons of oats, or 2 gallons of corn.
