The President of the U. States transmitted to the House of Representatives the following message: To the House of Representatives of the United States. I transmit to the House of Representatives a report of the Secretary of State, complying with their resolution of the 12th inst. JAMES MADISON.

January 19, 1814.

The Secretary of State to whom was referred a resolution of the House of Representatives of the 12th inst. requesting the President to lay before the house any correspondence with, or communication in writing from the late minister of France on or about the 4th June, 1809, or by his successor since, prescribing the conditions on which their sovereign would consent to treat of amity and commerce with the United States, &c. has the honour to make the President the following report :

That of the transactions which took place in the department of suite before the secretary of state cam into office, which was in the year 1811, he has no means of acquiring a knowledge other than from the archives of the department, or from the persons entrusted with their safe

That he has caused the files of the department to be carefully examined for a communication described by the resolutions of the house of representatives, and that none such has been found of the date therein referred to, or of any other date from the former minister of France, or from his successor, or any trace of evidence of such a communication; that he has also enquired of the chief clerk of the department who has been in that office since the year 1807, concerning the same; and Whose statement is annexed.

That no such communication was ever addressed to the secretary of state by the present minister of

MR. GRAHAM'S STATEMENT.

I know not how I can more clearly state every thing that I know relative to a letter which was recently published in some of the public prints, from General Turreau to Robert Smith, Esquire, and which I suppose to be the communication alluded to in the resolution of the House of Representatives of the 12th inst. than by observing that when that letter as published was shewn to me by a gentleman of this office, I told him I could not say whether it was genuine; that som parts of, it did not appear new to me but that other parts of it did. We immediately looked at Gen. Turreau's file, and no such letter was there. I then observed that if it was genuine, it must be the letter from Gen. Turreau which had been withdrawn. .

The fact of one of his letters which I had translated for Mr. Smith, having been withdrawn, I distinctly remember, though I cannot speak with certainty either of its date or of its contents, more than four vern taying object, since I saw it; but I remember it was considered exceptionable, and that Mr. Smith directed me not to put it on the files, but to lay it aside. I can add too that it was the only letter from Gen. Turreau which to my knowledge was ever withdrawn.

This letter was withdrawn by a gentleman attached to the French legation, who called at the department of state to get it, and it was de-I vered to him either by Mr. Smith himself, or by me under his directions. When this was done, I cannot now recollect, nor have I any means of ascertaining, except by reference to a subsequent event which happened in the month of Nov. 1809. I allude to the dismissal of Mr. Jacksout For I remember in a conversation had with Mr. Smith, respecting that occurrence at the time it took place, he observed that he supposed Gen. Turreau would now be glad he had withdrawn his letter.

In what way the translation of this letter has got into the public prints, I know not, nor do I know when or by whom it was taken from this office.

JOHN GRAHAM, Chief Clerk of the Department of State. Department of State, 18th Jan. 1814.

PROPOSALS For publishing in the City of Balti-

A NEWSPAPER, TO BE ENTITLED, THE

Baltimore Correspondent, AND

Merchants, Manufacturers & Mechanics

DAILY ADVERTISER. BY THOMAS HOWARD HILL, PRINTER.

THE proposed paper will be published daily (at noon) in order to circulate the earliest intelligence which may be received by the mails.

It is proper that the intended editor should declare his intentions as to the manner in which he means to conduct the publication of "The BALTIMORE CORRESPONDENT." He pledges himself that it shall be held abstract from all party, and be conducted upon the most impartial principles-that it shall comprize the following articles, viz : all foreign and domestic news of the day; a regular detail of naval and military events; a correct and regular journal of the proceedings of the national legislature as also those of the different states, and all documents that may be submitted to them for consideration. And in the absence of the above general named intelligence, he will insert useful notices of the progress of commerce, (internal and external,) or manutactures, and of mechanics, as indeed it is solely devoted to their advancement. A price current (corrected weekly) will be inserted upon the most con venient day.

The utility of such a newspaper at the present time is most certainly obvious to those acquainted with the time of the arrival of the great mail; and as it is the wish of the editor to make the contemplated paper as useful as possible, he promises to use his utmost exertions in collecting of intelligence that may be useful and interesting to those who may favor him with their support.

TERMS. " The Baltimore Correspondent" will be printed on a half sheet super royal, at five dollars per annum, payable half yearly in advance-the paper for the country at three dollars in advance. Advert sements to be inserted on the usual terms unless otherwise contracted for by the year. 25 Arrangements are now making to anticipate news by letter. January 12, 1814.

Maryland.

The want of a guide in the execution of the highly important dulier of a flag gistrate has long been felt. At the instance of several intelligent gentlemen in the commission, and members of the bar, the present editor has been induced to undertake the task of supplying such a work. He has adopted the judicious plan of Dr. Burn's Justice of the Peace as a model. In this work it will be re-collected, the crime is first defined; the decisions of courts of justice ato next collected, interspersed with such statutory regulations as have been established by parliament; and the section is concluded with such precedents as the particular subject requires. So in the resent work, the editor, after defining the crime, and collecting a few leading cases from the best authorities, has added such provisions as were to be found in the acts of congress and the laws of Maryland.

It is expected that the work will be comprized in an octavo volume of six or seven hundred pages. The price shall not exceed five dollars. It will be putto press when there is a sufficient subscription to pay the expence of publica-tion Gentlemen who wish to have the book may address the subscriber. Those who purchase, a number of copies for the purpose of selling again, will be allowed a liberal discount.
