From the Hudson Whig of April 12. CHARTER ELECTION:

It is with no common degree of satisfaction that we announce the result of the election for Charter Officers, in this city on Tuesday last, which terminated in the complete triumph of the Friends of and Buonaparte's Continenal Sys tem. This mortifying defeat of our political opponents is to them more humiliating, as they entered upon the election confident of success. A confidence, arising, however, not from a conviction of the justness of their cause, or from their numerical strength-but from the base practices which they had and were putting in requisition to obtain the election. Such as inducing the soldiers in town to disguise themselves as citizens and to offer themselves as persons properly qualified to vote, by which means four or five votes were surreptitiously introduced: Or inducing six or seven laboring men to leave the city for that day, who had they remained in town could not have been hired to vote their ticket: But what more than any other circumstance, evinces the criminal depravity of our opponents, and the desperate nature of the effort which they were making, is, that wherever they imagined a vote could be obtained by downright bribery they have not hesitated to resort to it and in how many cases, five dollar bills have had the effect of purchasing votes for them we know not, but we do know, that the thing was attempted in more instances than one, there is abundant evidence of

We will state one fact, and we challenge the denial of it ; - and if there is one man of the democratic party in this city not yet callous to all sense of shame, he will blush for himself and his friends at the relation: A black man who had always voted a federal ticket, was offered by a democratic electioneerer a bank bill upon the condition of voting the democratic ticket: the temptation was too great for the poverty of this black man to resist it : he accepted of the money, and promised to comply with the stipulation upon which he received it. He went on the morning of the election to a grown store to obtain some necessaries his family, & offering this bill in payment, was informed by the grocer that it was a counterfeit bill ! The poor man was struck dumb at this intelligence; when the grocer pressing him very closely as to the manner in which he obtained the bill, he at length acknowledged that he received it from Mr. ---, who gave it to him as a bribe to vote a democratic ticket! Such are the men of our a ty who call themselves republicans who profess a great veneration for the inviolate exercise of the elective franchise. "By their fruits you shall know them."

The result of the annual election of town officers in the several towns in this county is the same as last year, except, that in the town of Cansan, which has been democratic for some years, the federal ticket has prevailed by a handsome majoriand in the town of Grange which has heretofore given a large democratic majority, a part of the federal ticket is elected; and that in Ancram (formerly Gallatin) the democratic ticket has succeeded .-The success of the democratic ticket in Ancram, is not attributed to any change of sentiment in favor of democracy, but to the remissness of the federalists; who, confident in their own strength, and not knowing that the democrats were making and exertions, neglected to attend the poll on account of the state of the weather.

On Wednesday morning last, the Charter Election being over, about 50 or 60 recruits, under the orders of a Lieut. Reekman, and belonging to the regiment of Sea Fencibles, left this city for New-York. They had been peremptorily ordered to N. York by Col. Borgardus the commander of the regiment, 10 or 12 days previous to their leaving the A. ty. On the morning in which they finally did leave it, while they were on the point of embarking, a con-stable arrested one of the detachment for a misdeameanor, upon which the whole party attacked the constable, beating him in a most shocking manher, and succeeded in rescuing from him the culprit. Steps were immediately taken by the She-riff to order out the foise, but before it could be accomplished, the troops were embarked and the vessel had dropped down the river, and the villains consequently escaped.

Prom the National Intelligencer, THE NATIONAL BANK,

The committee of the house of reresentatives, which was appointed to examine the subject of a national bank, yesterday reported to the house, as a unanimous opinion of the committee, that no bill on the subect could be matured and deliberate. Peace, Liberty and Commerce, over by discussed at the present session; the Advocates of War, Enbargos & the committee were therefore disly discussed at the present session; charged from the further consideration of the subject.

It is not to be supposed, from this procedure, that the committee were hostile to the principle. So far from it, nothing but the want of time prevented them from maturing a bill; in regard to the details of which, the capital and location of the mother bank, however considering diversity of opinion prevailed.

There cannot be a doubt but the subject will be revived at the next session, and fully examined. Meanwhile, an opportunity will be offered to the members of congress and others, during the recess, for a candid and fair examination into the merits of the proposition for the establishment of a national bank.

This decision, by a republican committee will at least damp the opes and prediction of faction, that the necessary amount of loan connot be obtained without the aid of such an institution. Congress will certainly adjourn without doing any thing in r lation to a national bank; and yet, as we have said before, the loan will be obtained.

BY ALLEN AND HILL. The subscribers, while they solicit : candid and generous public to patronize the project which they have now undertaken of establishing a daily paper in the city of Baltimore, feel with re common sensibility the delicacy and dif ficulty of the undertaking. Many tive supposed that the citizens of the United States, are so enflamed by party animosity that it behaves every patriot to frown on every new champion who enters the field of political controversy. This hypothesis, if rigidly examined, will be found to end in this absurdity. that the condition of our country both abroad and at home, is so deplorable, that all attempts at reformation become criminal. If the national treasury is exhausted, commerce extinguished, public credit impaired, executive power enlarged while executive responsibility is ost, if our representatives in congress have so far forgotten their own dignity and the sanctity of their constitutional trust, as to declare that the will of an individual forms the law of the land ;t if in addition to this host of calamities, we are involved in a foreign war by which nothing can be gained and every thing is put in jeopardy—are we to be told that it is criminal to speak the words of honesty and truth? On the contrary, it is conceived that the argument points directly the other way; for in proportion to the desperation of our public circumstances, should be the

The subscribers would propose to at-tempt, but it would in them be the height of arrogance and presumption to say that they will be able to make their paper an interesting repository of intelligence. They have no hesitation in declaring that its character will be purely federal-by which they would be understood to mean, that neither the pride of power, or the insolence of office, shall prevent them from speaking salutary, although unpalatable truths.
Having seen our political circumstances growing hourly more desperate; as the precepts and example set by Washington have been hourly abandoned, they deem it no less a right than a duty to raise one more warning voke, and apprise their countrymen of their danger while it is yet in their power to escane.
