

New York, June 30.
CELEBRATION OF THE EMAN-CIPATION OF EUROPE.

"Wake, late and harp! My soul take up the strain
 "Glory to God! Deliverance for mankind!
 "Joy for all Nations, joy!"

SOUTHEY.
 Yesterday, agreeably to previous arrangement, the celebration took place in the Cedar St. Church.— The exercises, (says the Commercial Advertiser) were commenced by the Rev. Dr. Mason, who, after a few very appropriate and eloquent remarks, read a part of the tenth chapter of the prophecy of the Prophet Isaiah; and then addressed the Throne of Grace, in a manner peculiarly solemn, impressive and sublime.

After the prayer was concluded the following anthem was sung:—

"Blessed be thou, Lord God of Israel, our father for ever and ever!
 Thine, O Lord is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty, for all that is in the heaven and the earth are thine: thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head over all: both riches and honor come of thee, and thou reignest over all; & in thine hand is power and might,
 and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. Now, therefore, O God, we thank thee and praise thy glorious name."

The Hon. Gouverneur Morris then rose and addressed the audience, for nearly an hour, in a strain of eloquence rarely equalled. He took a rapid view of the great events in Europe for the last twenty-five years, and concluded with the restoration of the Bourbons to the throne of France —a family, to whom, under Providence, we are in a great measure indebted for our independence, and our freedom. The narrative was every where interspersed with instructive and interesting remarks.— The whole oration was indeed excellent; and was received by a very numerous and respectable auditory, with the highest marks of satisfaction and applause.

The exercises of the day were then closed by the following anthem:—

"Sing, O heavens, and be joyful, O earth, break forth into singing, O mountains, for the Lord hath comforted his people, and will have mercy on his afflicted. Let not Zion say, the Lord hath forsaken me, and the Lord hath forgotten me; return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon you, and to your God, for he will abundantly pardon. Therefore will the Lord wait, that may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted that he may have mercy upon you; for the Lord is a God of judgment. Blessed are they that wait for his salvation."

The Anthems were also both well performed; and including all the performances of the day we have never known an audience, in this city, apparently more highly gratified, on any public occasion, than on the present.

REQUISITION OF MILITIA.

Circular to the respective Governors of the following States.

War Department, July 4, 1814.

Sta. The late pacification in Europe offers to the enemy a large disposable force, both naval and military, and with it the means of giving to the war here a character of new and increased activity and extent.

Without knowing with certainty, that such will be its application, and still less than any particular point or points will become objects of attack, the president has deemed it advisable, as a measure of precaution, to strengthen ourselves on the line of the Atlantic, and (as the principal means of doing this will be found in the militia) to invite the executives of certain states to organize and hold in readiness, for immediate service, a corps of ninety-three thousand five hundred men, under the laws of 28th February, 1795, and 18th of April, 1814.

The enclosed detail will show your excellency what, under this requisition, will be the quota of—As far as volunteer uniform companies can be found, they will be preferred.

The expediency of regarding (as well in the designations of the milias of their places of rendezvous) the points, the importance or exposure of which will be most likely to attract the views of the enemy, need not be suggested.

A report of the organization of your quota, when completed, and of its place or places of rendezvous, will be acceptable.

I have the honour to be, with very great respect, your excellency's most obedient and very humble servant,

JOHN ARMSTRONG.

His Excellency the Governor of
