DEDICATORY HYMN

The following is given in a Virginia paper as an original hymn, written for the dedicatory service of the new Monumental Church in the city of Richmond. We have somewhere read something like it—if it be original it is one of the best modern productions of the south.

Thou to whom all worlds are present,
Countless ages as a day,
We, thy creatures evanescent,
Trusting in thy boundless sway,
O thou whose implore thy blessing,
Be it thy abiding place;
Mortals here their sins confessing;
Comfort with thy saving grace.

Should thy judgments fall upon us,
And for pardon here, we pray,
Father, have compassion on us,
Hopeless send us not away;
But on all before thee kneeling,
Freely let thy mercy flow,
Like Bethesda's waters healing
To the aching heart of woe.

A LIST OF THE AMERICAN NAVY, WITH STEEL'S LIST OF THE BRITISH NAVY.

For Sale at GEORGE SHAW'S Store, and at this Office. Price 12 1/2 CENTS.

ANNAPOLIS, July 14, 1814. A communication from the War Department, which has been just received, requires the Governor of Maryland to organize and hold in readiness, for immediate service, six hundred artillery, and five thousand four hundred infantry. The Secretary of War states, that as far as volunteer uniform companies can be found, they will be preferred. The object of this force is to repel any invasion of our shores, which may be made by the enemy.

The Commander in chief of the militia of Maryland, confidently trusts, that this appeal to the patriotism of the militia of the state, will not be unavailing. Such militia corps as may be disposed to make a tender of their services, in compliance with the requisition, are required forthwith to report themselves to the Colonels of their regiments, who will give information thereof to the Brigadier Generals, by them to be communicated to the Adjutant General. The necessary orders for a draft will be immediately forwarded to the proper officers, who will supply any deficiency of volunteers that may be found to exist.

The Commander in Chief will take this occasion to urge all the officers of the militia of Maryland, to cause their arms, &c. to be inspected, and kept in complete order for service, and to be in constant readiness, with their men, to repel any incursions of the enemy, and to march to whatever point they may be called.

By order of the Commander in Chief, WILLIAM B. MARTIN, A. D. C.

20 Dollars Reward

Ran away on the 2d of May, a Negro Man called Ned, who, with several others, added that of Jones, and brought suit in Anne Arundel county, by John Golde, for their right to freedom; which suit, at the last term of the court, was dismissed for the want of proof. He is a straight likely black fellow, 22 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and has under one of his eyes, a scar about an inch long and broad. No descriptive information can be given as to his cloaths; he went off with a straw hat, a country round-about striped jacket and trousers, and good shoes and stockings. It is probable he may endeavour to get to Baltimore, or to the City of Washington. I will pay a dollar a mile on the distance he may be taken, if committed to gaol, so that I get him again; fifteen dollars if taken at Annapolis and committed; ten dollars if taken in the neighbourhood, or twenty if taken in Calvert county.

I am informed that an old yellow woman resides in Calvert who calls herself Hannah Jones, and who my Negroes, who claimed their freedom, call aunt—she is wife to a miller, who attends or did attend a mill, once the property of a Mr. Smith, and purchased by Capt. David Carcaud.

Land for Sale

The undersigned is extremely anxious to sell the following tracts of land in Calvert county, Maryland. One tract of woodland, containing two hundred acres, and abounding in timber suitable for building houses, and vessels of every description, within about a mile and an half of Battle Creek, which empties itself into the River Patuxent, about twenty miles from its mouth, from which land there is a good road secured by law to the Creek, which is navigable to the very landing; there are a large tobacco house, two log dwelling houses, and several out houses on this land. Also another tract of land, containing upwards of three hundred acres, and bordering on the head waters of Battle Creek, which is navigable for bateaus and scows to the landing, and which abounds in Cypress and Chestnut timber, the former suitable for plank and shingles, being impervious to worms, which destroys every other kind of timber, while they leave the Cypress untouched; the latter suitable for fence rails. There are a grist and saw mills, a framed dwelling house, three log tenants houses, a black smith's shop, a tobacco house, and several out houses, on the last mentioned land. Should these lands not be sold by next October court, they will then be offered at Public Sale. Persons disposed to buy, may obtain great bargains by speedy applications. JNO. JAS. BROOKE. St. Leonard's, 7 May 18th, 1814.
