[Boston Centinel.] Thou to whom all worlds are present, Countless ages as a day, We, thy creatures evanescent,

Trusting in thy boundless sway, On this House implore thy blessing, Be it thy abiding place; Mortals here their sins confessing; Comfort with thy saving grace

Should thy judgments fall upon us, And for pardon here, we pray, Father, have compassion on us, Hopeless send us not away; But on all before thee kneeling, Freely let thy mercy flow, Like Bethesda's waters healing

To the aching heart of woe. Whatsoever ills beset us, Pious confidence to wound, In the strength of Jesus, let us More than conquerors be found; By his infinite affection. Holy birth, and life divine, By his death and resurrection

Valuable Lands for Sale.

The subscriber is authorised to dispose of at private sale, all that tract of land, formerly the property of Richard Chew, and lately of John Muir, Esq. deceased, consisting of 1095 acres, situated in Anne-Arundel county, lying on the Chesapeake Bay, and forms the mouth of Herring Bay; twenty miles from Annapolis, fifty from Baltimore, and thirty-live from the City of Washington. This land as rich and fertile as any on the Chesapeake, affords the most luxuriant pasturage, has a large proportion of meadow land, and the greatest abundance of fire wood and timber, and for ship building the best timber on the Chesapeake may be had on this land. The situation is healthy, and as beautiful a prospect as any on the Bay, a good harbour, and the waters lying around the land afford the greatest abundance of excellent fish, crabbs, oysters, and wild fowl. The very convenient situation of this land must be obvious to every person wishing to purchase, as the wood, timber, and the whole product of the land, can be removed from thence by water, and that in a few hours, to the markets of Annapolis and Baltimore.

A more minute description of this valuable property is thought unnecessary, as any person wishing to purchase can view the same by applying to Dr Richard T. Hall, who resides thereon or to Mr. Philemon L. Chew, who lives within a few miles of it. Terms will be made known on application to the subscriber.

20 Dollars Reward.

Ran away on the 2d of May, a Ne ro Man called Ned, who, with sever-l others, added that of Jones, and brought suit in Anne Arundelcounty, by John Golder for their right to freedom; which suit, at the last term of the court, was dismissed for the want of proof. He is a straight likely black fellow, 22 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and has under one of his eyes, a scar about an inch long and broad. No descriptive information can be given as to his cloaths; he went off with a straw hat, a country round-about striped jacket and trowsers, and good shoes and stockings. It is probable he may endeavour to got to Balti-more, or to the City of Washington.— I will pay a dollar a mile on the distance he may be taken, if committed to gaol, so that I get him again; fifteen dollars if taken at Annapolis and com-mitted; ten dollars if taken in the neighbourhood, or twenty if taken in Calvert county.

Land for Sale.

The undersigned is extremely anxious to sell the following tracts of land in Calvert county, Maryland One tract of woodland, containing two hundred acres, and abounding in timber suitable for building houses, and vessels of every description, within about a mile and an half of Battle Creek, which empties itself into the River Patazent, about twenty miles from its mouth, from which land there is a good raod secured by law to the Greek, which is navigable to the very landing; there are a large tobacco house, two log dwelling houses, and several out houses on this land. Also another tract of land, containing upwards of three hundred access, and hordering on the head waters of Battle Creek, which is navigable for batteaus and scows to the landing, and which abounds in Cypress and Chesnut timber, the former suitable for plank and shingles, being impervious to worms which destroys every other kind of timber, while they leave the Cypress untouched; the latter suitable for fence rails. There are a grist and saw mills, a framed dwelling house, three log tenants houses, a black smith's shop, a to-bacco house, and several out houses, on the last mentioned land. Should these lands not be sold by next October court, they will then be offered at Pub-lin Sale. Persons disposed to buy may obtain great bargains by speedy applications. JNOJAS BROOKE.
