WASHINGTON, SEPT. 27.

BATTLE ON LAKE CHAMPLAIN.

Copies of letters from com. M'Donough to the Secretary of the Navy, dated

U. S. ship Saratoga, at anchor off Plattsburgh, Sept. 13, 1814.

SIR—By Lt. Commandant Cassin I have the honour to convey to you the flags of his Britannic Majesty's late squadron, captured on the 11th inst. by the U. S. squadron under my com'd. Also my despatches relating to that occurrence, which should have been in your possession at an earlier period, but for the difficulty in arranging the different statements.

The squadron under my command now lies at Plattsburg—it will bear of considerable diminution, and leave a force sufficient to repel any attempt of the enemy in this quarter. I shall wait your order what to do with the whole or any part thereof.

I have the honour to be, &c.

T. MACDONOUGH.

Hon. Wm. Jones, Sec. of the Navy.

Copy of a letter from Lt. Cassin to Com. Macdonough.

U. S. schr. Ticonderoga,
Plattsburg Bay, Sept. 12.

SIR—It is with pleasure I state, that every officer and man, under my command, did their duty yesterday.

Yours respectfully,
ST. CASSIN, Lt. Com'g.

Com. Thomas Macdonough.

Copy of a letter from Lieut. Henly to Com. Macdonough.

U. S. Brig Eagle, Plattsburgh, Sept. 12.

SIR,

I am happy to inform you that all my officers and men acted bravely, and did their duty in the battle of yesterday with the enemy.

I shall have the pleasure of making a more particular representation of the respective merits of my gallant officers to the Hon. Secretary of the Navy.

I have the honor to be, respectfully, sir, your most obedient servant,

RO. HENLY.

P. S. We had thirty-nine round shot in our hull (mostly 24 pounders)—four in our lower masts—and we were well peppered with grape. I enclose my boatswain's report.

R. H.

Copy of a letter from George Beale, junr to Com. Macdonough. dated

U. S. ship Saratoga, Sept. 13.

SIR,

I have the honor to enclose you a list of the killed and wounded on board the different vessels of the squadron under your command in the action of the 11th inst.

It is impossible to ascertain correctly the loss of the enemy. From the best information received from the British officers, from my own observations, and from various lists found on board the Confiance, I calculate the number of men on board that ship at the commencement of the action at 270, of whom at least 180 were killed and wounded, and on board the other captured vessels at least 80 more, making in the whole, killed and wounded, 260.—This is doubtless short of the real number, as many were thrown overboard from the Confiance during the engagement.

The muster books must have been thrown overboard, or otherwise disposed of, as they are not to be found.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

GEO. BEALE, Jun. Purser.

Thomas Macdonough. Esq.
Commanding U. S. squadron, on Lake Champlain.

Copy of a letter from Com. Macdonough to the Secretary of the Navy, dated

U. S. ship Saratoga, Plattsburgh Bay, September 13, 1814.

SIR,

I have the honor to give you the particulars of the action which took place on the 11th inst. on this lake.

For several days the enemy were on their way to Plattsburgh by land and water, and it being well understood that an attack would be made at the same time by their land and naval forces, I determined to wait at anchor the approach of the latter.

At 8 A. M. the look out boat announced the approach of the enemy. At 9, he anchored in a line ahead at about 300 yards distance from my line; his ship opposed to the Saratoga, his brig to the Eagle, capt. Henley, his gallies, 13 in number, to the schooner, sloop, and a division of our gallies; one of his sloops assisting their ship and brig, the other assisting their gallies. Our remaining gallies with the Saratoga and Eagle.

In this situation the whole force on both sides became engaged, the Saratoga suffering much from the heavy fire of the Confiance. I could perceive at the same time, however, that our fire was very destructive to her. The Ticonderoga, Lt. Com. Cassin, gallantly sustained her full share of the action. At half past ten o'clock the Eagle, not being able to bring her guns to bear, cut her cable and anchored in a more eligible position, between my ship and the Ticonderoga, where she very much annoyed the enemy, but unfortunately leaving me exposed to a galling fire from the enemy's brig. Our guns on the starboard side being nearly all dismounted, or not manageable, a stern anchor was let go, the bower cable cut, and the ship winded with a fresh broadside on the enemy's ship, which soon after surrendered. Our broadside was then sprung to bear on the brig, which surrendered in about 15 minutes after.

The sloop that was opposed to the Eagle, had struck some time before and drifted down the line; the sloop which was with their gallies having struck also. Three of their gallies are said to be sunk, the others pulled off. Our gallies were about obeying with alacrity the signal to follow them, when all the vessels were reported to me to be in a sinking state; it then became necessary to annul the signal to the gallies, and order their men to the pumps.

I could only look at the enemy's gallies going off in a shattered condition, for there was not a mast in either squadron that could stand to make sail on; the lower rigging being nearly all shot away, hung down as tho' it had been just placed over the mast heads.

The Saratoga had fifty-five round shot in her hull; the Confiance one hundred and five. The enemy's shot passed principally just over our heads, as there were not 20 whole hammocks in the nettings at the close of the action, which lasted without intermission two hours and twenty minutes.

The absence and sickness of lieut. Raymond Perry, left me without the services of that excellent officer; much ought fairly to be attributed to him for his great care and attention in disciplining the ship's crew as her first lieutenant. His place was filled by a gallant young officer, Lieut. Peter Gamble, who, I regret to inform you was killed early in the action. Acting lieut. Vallette worked the 1st and 2d divisions of guns with able effect. Sailing master Brum's attention to the springs, and in the execution of the order to wind the ship, and occasionally at the guns, meets with my entire approbation, also Capt. Youngs commanding the acting marines, who took his men to the guns.—Mr. Beale, purser, was of great service at the guns, and in carrying my orders throughout the ship with midshipman Montgomery. Master's mate Joshua Justin, had command of the 3d division; his conduct during the action was that of a brave and correct officer. Midshipman Monteath, Graham, Williamson, Platt, Thwing, and acting midshipman Baldwin, all behaved well, and gave evidence of their making valuable officers.

The Saratoga was twice set on fire by hot shot from the enemy's ship.

I close, sir, this communication with feelings of gratitude for the able support I received from every officer and man attached to the squadron which I have the honor to command.

Private Sale.

I will sell, at private sale, a Lot in Queen Anne, Prince George's county, conveniently situated, and an excellent stand for a person wishing to enter into the mercantile business, or to a person who wishes a stand for a tavern and perhaps no village in the state can be found, at which a decent tavern is more wanted.

On the lot is a large store house for a counter, shelves, &c. ready for the reception of a quantity of dry goods, a dry goods, also a two story dwelling house, with two rooms above, and below; a paled garden and yard, an old building out of repair, with rooms below and two above, for a term of years rented as a tavern. The rent may be known by application to
