ALBANY Oct. 9 A. M.

"I have this moment learnt, from a source which may be depended on, that an express has just arrived from the Harbor, with information, that that place was invested by the British, both by water and land: that the militia were called out en masse; and that great fears were entertained for the safety of the place. Such is the information just given to me, by a gentleman in whom I place the most implicit confidence.

The United States corvette John Adams, Samuel Angus, esq. commander, arrived here last night in 36 days from the Texel. Mr. G. Dallas, segretary to Mr. Gallatin, arrived in this ship, and is the bearer of despatches. Mr. D. left town this morning for Washington.

The British commissioners had arrived at Ghent, and the first conference with our commissioners took place on the 8th of Aug. From that time the conferences were continued almost daily. We do not learn any thing decisive has taken place.

We have been obligingly favoured with Dutch papers to the 28th, and London to the 19th of August, from which we have hastily selected the following articles :-

The French national brig Olivier, 19 days from New-York, has arrived in France. The U.S. sloop of war Wasp, was also in France.

The Peacock sloop was cruising on the coast of France and England. and had made several captures. We are informed that the John Adams was boarded by two British gunbrigs, in pursuit of the Peacock.

Bernadotte had defeated the Norwegians, and obliged them to surrender Norway, according to treaty between Sweden and Denmark.

Extract of a letter from Amsterdam. dated Aug. 24, to a respectable house in this city.

"The negotiations at Ghent between the English and American commissioners, which suffered a temporary interruption, have recommenced, and are now continued, though nothing is known as to the probable results, which is awaited with all that interest, which its importance even to Europe inspires. In this country, it is the general wish that a peace may soon be concluded; until that event, the commercial world will not be restored to quietness.

"Our markets and exchange on hand experience from day to day, great fluctuations. Exchange on ties. London, which had been as high as 36, 10, is again down to 34, and apparently falling more. This affords one of the many proofs that trade is yet unsettled."

Mr. Dallas, one of the secretaries of the American legation, went xesterday to the Texel, with despatches for his government d is to embark on board an American ship for America, There is every hope, that the conferences will have a speedy and favourable issue.

Verbal accounts say, that the large ship could not get over the bar off Kingston harbor, and that Chauncey therefore, still continued the blockade; & that the calling out the militia to repair to Sackett's Harbor, was a preparatory or precautionary measure. CAPT. BLAKELY'S CRUIZE. Copy of a letter from Captain Johnson Blakely to the Secretary of the Na-

U S. Sloop Wasp, L'Orient, 8th July, 1814.

On Tuesday the 28th ult being then in lat. 41, 36, N. and long. 11 15, W. we fell in with, engaged, and after an action of 19 minutes, captured his B. M. sloop of war the Reindeer, William Manners, Esq. commander. Annexed are the minutes of our proceeding on that day prior to and during the continuance of the action.

Where all did their duty and each appeared anxious to excel, it is very difficult to discriminate. It is, how ever, only rendering them their merited due, when it is declared of Lts. Reily and Bury, 1st and 3d of this vessel, and whose names will be found among those of the conquerors of the Guerriere and Java; and of Mr. Tillinghast, 2nd Lieut. who was greatly instrumental in the capture of the Boxer; that their conduct and courage on this occasion fulfilled the highest expectation and gratified every wish. Sailing Master Carr is also entitled to great credit for the zeal and ability with which he discharged his various du-

The cool and patient conduct of every officer and man while exposed to the fire of the shifting gun of the enemy and without an opportunity of returning it, could only be equalled by the animation and arder exhibited when actually engaged, or by the promptitude & firmness with which every attempt of the 'enemy to board was met and successfully repelled. Such conduct may be carronades, 2 long 6 or 9 pounders, & a shifting 12 lb. carronade, with a complement of on board 118 men. Her crew were said to be the pride of Plymouth.

Our loss in men has been severe, owing in part to the proximity of the two vessels and the extreme smooth. ness of the sea, but chiefly in repelling boarders. That of the enemy, however, was infinitely more so as will be seen by the list of killed and wounded on both sides.

Six round shot struck onr hull, & many grape, which did not penetrate far. The foremast received a 24lb shot, which passed through its centre, and our rigging and sails were a good deal injured.

The Reindeer was literally cut to pieces in a line with her ports; her apper works, boats and spare spars were one complete wreck. A breeze springing up next afternoon her foremast went by the board.

Having received all the prisoners on board, which from the number of wounded occupied much time, together with their baggage, tho Reindeer was on the evening of the 29th set on fire, and in a few hours not certain; but if truly stated, it must be evident that the British government had entirely abandoned the idea of making peace on such terms as we could think honourable to both parties. The messenger who brought the dispatches from our ministers, had remained at Ghent several days after the arrival of the courier from London; if any change had taken place during that time, the writer of the letter abovementioned would certainly have used the opportunity to communicate it. We fear, therefore, that there is now no hopes of a peace being concluded, until at least another campaign has added to the distress of our suffering Valuable Lands for Sale.

The subscriber is authorised to dispose of at private sale, all that tract of land, formerly the property of Richard Chew, and lately of John Muir, Esq. deceased, consisting of 1095 zures, sitruated in Anne-Arundel county, lying on the Chesapeake Bay, and forms the mouth of Herring Bay; twenty miles from Annapolis, fifty from Baltimore, and thirty live from the City of Washington. This land as rich and fertile as any on the Chesapcake, affords the most luxuriant pasturage, has a large proportion of meadow land, and the greatest abundance of fire wood and timber, and for ship building the best timber on the Chesapeake may be had on this land. The situation is healthy, and as beautiful a prospect as any on the Bay, a good harbour, and the waters lying around the land afford the greatest abundance of excellent fish, drabbs, oysters, and wild fowl. The very convenient situation of this land must be obvious to every person wishing to purchase, as the wood, timber, and the whole product of the land, can be removed from thence by water, and that in a few hours, to the markets of Annapolis and Baltimore.

A more minute description of this valuable property is thought unnecessary, as any person wishing to purchase can view the same by applying to Dr. Richard T. Hall, who resides thereon, or to Mr. Philemon L Chew, who lives within a few miles of it. Terms will be made known on application to
