THE LATEST.

At dusk last evening, we were favored with a communication received by express, of which the following is an extract:

Extract of a despatch from Gen. J. H. Cooke, to the Governor, dated, Tappahannock, Dec. 4, 6 o'clock, P. M.

In two hours after my communication this morning, the enemy suddenly and capriciously as, the shift of wind which took place at that time, turned about and made all sail down the river. His fleet consisted of 14 craft, including one large schooner and a sloop heavily armed, with all their barges variously estimated from ten to twenty-five, all of which had ascended the river about 12 miles above this, returned this morning about 10 o'clock, and were out of sight standing down the river before 12 o'clock.

We have intelligence of their passing Bower's at an early hour this evening, and with the present wind, unless he anchored, must have reached nearly the mouth of the river. This rapid and unlooked for movement has baffled all my schemes. I had anticipated from his bold and rapid ascent that he would have penetrated as high as the narrows of the river, and there I had strong hopes of being able to make him feel us.

I learn from an intelligent man of this place, that the expedition was commanded by commodore Barry and colonel Malcolm. The number of troops did not much, if any exceed 600, but it was evident they had other troops in vessels from which they were not landed. Of the number landed here, there were eight companies of 50 each, of negroes in uniform, commanded by white officers.—They were said to be Virginia and Maryland negroes trained at Tangier Island.

The above accounts are obtained from the only inhabitants of this place who remained while the enemy had possession of the town. He is an intelligent and observant man.—He got his information from three sentinels who were posted to protect his property from pillage; they differed in the number of troops employed in the expedition from 1300 to 2100—but they all agreed that the whole force in our waters was here, and that their aggregate loss from desertion since their arrival in the Chesapeake was about 300. They further agreed in stating that the troops had been healthy and that but little loss had been sustained from sickness.

Colonel Muse has under his command below this about six hundred men.—I will give me the earliest information of the enemy's leaving the river or of their attempting to plunder below, in which event I shall move down to his assistance; but if as I expect, they are really leaving the Rappahannock, as soon as I am informed of it, I shall take up the line of march for Camp Carter, with my detachment, and discharge Col. Ritchie's regiment, and all the other local militia which has and are about to take the field. Even if the enemy should ascend the river again, as suddenly as he has ascended it, we have every reason to believe, that we could defeat any attempt on Fredericksburg, if he dared to make it, by recalling to our aid the adjacent militia.

The plundering of the enemy has been confined to the river shores, of inconsiderable amount; and on a few plantations.—Indeed his whole course has been marked with the most circumspect caution and evident alarm. He has never trusted himself on land a single night. An officer remarked here that their object was to harass the militia—that they should beat about the rivers for a week or two longer, and then go into winter quarters. There has been much wanton destruction of private property here, in breaking windows and furniture—and one deed of damnation has been performed which outdoes all their former atrocities. The Family Vault of the Ritchies was broken open and coffins searched. I have seen the shocking spectacle.

20 Dollars Reward

Ran away on the 2d of May, a Negro Man called Ned, who, with several others, added that of Jones, and brought suit in Anne-Arundel county, by John Golder, for their right to freedom, which suit, at the last term of the court, was dismissed for the want of proof. He is a straight likely black fellow, 22 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and has under one of his eyes, a scar about an inch long and broad. No descriptive information can be given as to his cloaths; he went off with a straw hat, a country roundabout striped jacket and trousers, and good shoes and stockings. It is probable he may endeavour to get to Baltimore, or to the City of Washington.—I will pay a dollar a mile on the distance he may be taken, if committed to goal, so that I get him again; fifteen dollars if taken at Annapolis and committed; ten dollars if taken in the neighbourhood, or twenty if taken in Calvert county.

I am informed that an old yellow woman resides in Calvert who calls herself Hannah Jones, and who my Negroes, who claimed their freedom, call aunt—she is wife to a miller who attends or did attend a mill, once the property of a Mr. Smith, and purchased by Capt. David Carcaud.
