WASHINGTON CITY, MARCH 6.
By the President of the United States of America.
A PROCLAMATION.
The Senate and House of Repre sentatives of the United States have, by a joint resolution, signified their desire, that a day may be re commended, to be observed by the people of the United States with religious solemnity, as a day of thanksgiving and of devout acknow ledgments to Almighty God for his great goodness, manifested in restor ing to them the blessing of peace.
No people ought to feel greater obligations to celebrate the good ness of the Great Disposer of events, and of the destiny of na tions, than the people of the United States. His kind providence origi nally conducted them, to one of the best portions of the dwelling place, allowed for the great family of the human race. He protected and cherished them, under all the diffi culties and trials to which they were exposed in their early days.

Under his fostering care, their habits, their sentiments, and their pursuits, prepared them for a tran sition in due time for a state of in dependence and self government.
In the arduous struggle by which it was attained, they were distingui shed by multiplied tokens of his be nign interposition. During the in terval which succeeded, he reared them in strength, and endowed them with the resources, which have en abled them to assert their national rights, and to enhance their nation al character, in another arduous conflict, which is now happily ter minated, by a peace and reconcilia tion with those who have been our enemies. And to the same Divine Author of every good and perfect gift, we are indebted for all those privileges and advantages, religious as well as civil, which are so richly enjoyed in this favoured land.
It is for blessings, such as these, and more especially for the restora tion of the blessing of peace, that I now recommend that the second Thursday in April next be set apart, as a day on which the people of ev ery religious denomination, may, in their solemn assemblies, unite their hearts and their voices, in a free will offering to their Heavenly Be nefactor, of their homage of thanks giving, and of their songs of praise.
Given at the city of Washington, on the 4th day of March, in the year of our Lord 1815, and of the in dependence of the U. States the thirty-ninth.
JAMES MADISON.
From our Correspondent.
New-York, March 4.
The schooner Transit, with Mr.
Hughes on board, arrived at New London on the evening of the 1st inst. 32 days from Bourdeaux.
Extract of a letter to a gentleman in Baltimore, dated Mathews Court House, Va. Feb. 18.
"It is with great satisfaction I have it in my power to inform you, that I have this evening anchored a fine schooner in Pankitank, which was captured from the enemy yester day by a small detachment under my command. The circumstances of her capture and recapture are these:— The schooner Saturn, capt.
Mathews Rich of Baltimore, was captured by H. B. Menelaus on the 14th inst. near the cape and ordered for Tangers under command of a midshipman and purser, with six sailors and eight negroes, but grounded on the Wolf Trap, which gave us an opportunity to bring one of our field pieces to amuse them, which soon made them surrender, when I boarded her with eight hands and succeeded in getting her off.— There are 120 barrels of herrings on board. Two of the negroes be long in the neighbourhood of Annap olis, but will not tell their owners names; but I am informed by one of the officers that one belongs to Mrs. Oze. Capt. Rich is on board of the Menelaus, also capt. White of Baltimore."
[From the Gleamer Feb. 24.]
WASHINGTON AND PEACE.
"Now are the clouds that lower'd up on our land,
In the deep bosom of the ocean buried.
Now are our brows bound with victori ous wreaths;
Our bruised arms hung up for monu ments;
Our stern alarums changed to merry meetings;
Our dreadful marches to delightful measures.
GRIM-VISAGED WAR HATH SMOOTH'D
HIS WRINKLED FRONT."
The return of Peace & the BIRTH DAY OF WASHINGTON, were celebra ted in our village, on Wednesday evening, in a manner worthy the spirit of patriotic citizens, and the glorious causes that called forth their rejoicings. For the first time since the settlement of the country, Wilkes-Barre was illuminated. So splendid was the exhibition, that even the charm of novelty could add but little to its interest. The whole village seemed one wide field of fire.
Where every thing was so tastefully and elegantly arranged, it is almost impossible to discriminate. In some instances laurel and evergreens were beautifully interwoven with the lights. In others the pictures of our naval Heroes; and inscriptions of 'Peace, & Peace better than War,' added finely to the effect. The meet ing-house; the Public buildings; & the surrounding houses, each blazing from its summit to its base, exhibit ed the public square in a flood of light. The bells of all the clocks at the shop of Mr. Collings rang for an hour a merry peal. The pub lic bells, ever and anon, "thunder ing harmony, stunn'd the glad ear."

The military with music—colours flying, lights in their caps, and a lanthorn borne aloft, bearing the inscriptions "PEACE," paraded the streets. But it is impossible to de scribe it. The whole had the ap pearance of enchantment and the heart swelled—and the ready teat of gratitude and joy flowed, while friend meeting friend congratulated each other on the happy occasion.
But bright as was the light, and splendid the display from the illumina tion—brighter was the light that beamed from beauty's eye, and more splendid the display of beau ty's fascinating form at the ball.— Every countenance was animated with pleasure. Every heart beat in unison to the delightful measures of harmony and Peace.
Fair PEACE, how lovely—how de lightful thou!
By whose mild tie, the kindred sons of men Like brothers live, in amity combin'd, Beneath thy calm inspiring influence Science his views enlarges—Arts re fine,
And swelling Commerce opens all her ports.
While grateful industry reviving makes The Country flourish and the city smile.
Kingston was handsomely illumi nated on Wednesday evening. The lights from the opposite side of the river seemed to meet and mingle in joyous felicitations on the happy e vent that produced them.
