

maner exhibited in the annexed schedule marked A. about
That on account of custom-house bonds outstanding at the end of the year 1814, which in the letter from this department, dated the 17th Jan. 1815, was received to meet the unappropriated appropriations of that year, there will be received, during the year 1815, near $3,000,000 making the total amount of the actual receipts into the treasury, from the customs, for the year 1815, $6,500,000

The ways and means of the Treasury for 1815, provided payable during the year, may be presented in a view essentially different from that which was necessarily taken in the letter from this department, dated the 17th of the January last, while contemplating the continuance of the war.

- The duties on imports and tonnage will, probably, produce a sum, inclusive of that receivable for duties which accrued prior to the present year, of about $6,500,000
- The direct tax, instead of a sum of 2,000,000 of dollars, will probably give to the treasury, in the year 1815, in consequence of the facilities of the peace, a sum of about 2,500,000
- The internal duties, old and new, and postage instead of a sum of 7,950,000 dollars, will probably give to the treasury, in the year 1815, in consequence of the facilities of the peace, a sum of about 8,000,000
- The sales of the public lands will, probably, produce in the year 1815, 1,000,000
- The amount of incidental receipts, from miscellaneous sources, will, probably, be about 200,000

While the revenue is thus materially augmented, the charges of the treasury will be considerably reduced. It is not in the power of this department, at the present time, to advert to the estimates of the expenses of the peace establishment for the war and departments; but with the aid of the public credit, and the legislative sanction for the means which will be proposed, it is believed that the treasury will be competent, in that respect to meet the most liberal views of the government. Independent, therefore, of the estimates of the war and departments, the charges on the treasury for the year 1815, will consist of the following items:

- Civil, diplomatic, and miscellaneous expenses, as stated in the general estimates for one thousand eight hundred and fifteen. $1,979,289
- The public debt will call for a sum of $14,723,808 58, to answer the following claims:
For interest and reimbursement of the funded debt created before the war, (the amount of principal unfunded on the 31st of Dec. 1814 being $39,905,183 60 cents,) $3,452,775 46
For interest of the funded debt created since the war, (the amount of principal on Dec. 31st, 1814 being $4,380,812 25, to which little has been since added,) $3,000,000 00

cluding 620,000 dollars of notes issued under the act of Feb. 23th, 1813 falling due within this period. $8,271,033 12

14,723,808 58

16,703,097 97

It is to be observed, however, that the preceding estimate does not include a sum of 2,799,200 dollars, being the principal of the treasury notes, which became due in 1814, and remain unpaid; because the unexecuted authority to raise money by loan for that year, is sufficient to cover the amount if a loan can be obtained, independent of the custom-house debts, (3,000,000 dollars) which accrued in 1814, but is payable in 1815, and which is now considered as part of the excess of $3,975,909 83, stated in the letter of the 17th of Jan. 1815, for the purpose of being specifically transferred, in the present estimates, to the ways and means of last year, to the credit of the ways and means for the present year.

Upon the whole, then, it appears that the revenue for the year 1815, will probably amount to 18,200,000 dollars; and that ways and means now to be devised, to provide the difference between that sum, and the aggregate amount of the demands for the service of the year 1815; which will be ascertained by fixing the amount of the expenses of the peace establishment of the war and navy departments to the amount of the demands for the expenses of government and the public debt, being as above stated the sum of 16,703,097 97.

It only remains to suggest some additional measures, which appear to be required at this time, for the support of the public credit, and the supply of the treasury.

It is respectfully suggested, that all the holders of treasury notes, issued or to be issued, under authority of any existing law, should be allowed to fund them at interest of seven per cent; and that interest be allowed on all treasury notes which have not been actually paid, until the day of funding, or of payment.

It is respectfully suggested, that a new issue of treasury notes should be authorized upon the principles suggested in the letter from this department, dated the 17th January 1815.

It is respectfully suggested, that a loan should be authorized to the amount necessary, upon a view of all the estimates, to complete the ways and means for the year 1815.

It is respectfully suggested, that the exportation of specie should be prohibited for a limited period.

I am very respectfully, sir, your obedient servant,

A. J. DALY, Esq. Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means.

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY MARCH 16, 1815

It was scarcely to be supposed that even the existence of democracy would hazard the safety, that all the objects for which war was waged had been obtained, when it was evinced to every man that the fact was directly reversed. Upon neither of those points, which were arrayed in such a formidable array in the president's manifesto, and were regarded as the grounds upon which hostilities were declared, has any arrangement been made, we are left exactly as we commenced, except with a portion of our territory in the possession of the British, a debt of about 300,000,000 of dollars, and the loss of many valuable lives.

COMMUNICATED.

A lawful and affording dispensation of divine providence has deprived the community of its most estimable members, and many of its most brilliant ornaments. In the loss of one of its brightest ornaments, the death of that excellent citizen, the late Capt. WILLIAM S. TILLARD, would be an irreparable and unworthy loss, to launch out into that extravagant and unparagonable, which, by being the effect of unparagonable, loses all efficacy to restrain upon vice, or as an incentive to contemplation and imitation of the public and inestimable assemblies of good quality, and in his character, friendship, and for claim to be indulged in offering tribute of respect and justice, to one who had with exemplary propriety all the duties due to his various relations in life. Most distinguished, liberal, and tender, in his manners, and highly honored by his principles, he attracted the friendship and confidence, the respect and esteem of all who knew him. His being a devoted friend to the cause of the oppressed, his ready assistance to his injured fellow-citizens, his unflinching obedience to the laws of his country, and his pure and open heart, to the distressed, were all, while in health, in the most generous and noble, and for the benefit of the distressed, and in the most liberal and disinterested manner, he devoted his talents and his property, to relieve the suffering.

Property for Sale.
The subscriber will sell at private sale the plantation whereon she at present resides, in Anne Arundel county, five miles below Annapolis, on the road leading to Annapolis, and sixteen miles from Baltimore. The tract contains 312 acres of good quality, and produces well Indian corn, tobacco, small grain, particularly rye; its distance from the market of Baltimore makes it valuable to any person inclined to go into that line of cultivation. The soil is adapted to early growth of vegetables of all kinds; nearly one half of the tract is in wood of young thriving timber. The improvements are comfortable and in good repair, the dwelling house roomy and sufficient for a large family; every convenient out house, for stock and poultry; an excellent garden newly built, rich, and well set with herbs of almost every kind; a pump of good water in the yard, and fruit of every kind. There is some meadow and more can be made with little labour. Any person inclined to purchase, may know the terms by applying to Mr. Richard Gambrill, or Dr. Anderson Warfield, in Anne Arundel county, or Mr. Eli Hewitt in the city of Baltimore. If the above property is not sold at private sale by the 20th day of June next, it will on that day be exposed to public sale, on the premises, to the highest bidder.

Highly Interesting.
From the National Intelligencer of Monday.

TO THE EDITORS.
Fort Stoddart, Feb. 11, 1815.

I have only a moment to write, and should not write at all, but that times are become very critical here. The British seemed determined not to leave the Gulf of Mexico, without doing something. Captain Percy who commanded at the former attack on Mobile Point, was lately at the pass of Christiana, as I am told. He there observed, that they had been deceived in their first attack on Fort Bowyer, but that they had now made such arrangements, as would humble the Americans.

On Tuesday, 25 vessels anchored off Mobile Point, at the distance of 5 or 6 miles. Two or three appeared to be frigates. The greater part were brigs of war, as was supposed. There were also some large vessels, supposed to be transports. On Wednesday, nine transports were perceived to be landing their troops between the Point and Perdido. The fleet then amounted to 30. A schr. and seven barges entered the bay—the former by way of pass Horn, between Dauphin Island and the shore, west of the bay. Fort Bowyer at the Point, is on the narrow neck of land which stretches out on the east side of the bay, and commands the only channel for large vessels. Some British troops have landed on Dauphin Island. On Thursday a heavy firing commenced—it continued a great part of that day, and the day following; and some guns were heard this morning.

We have about 400 men in Fort Bowyer—but provisions are extremely scarce there, as well as through the whole of the Mobile country. Our troops in the fort have but about ten days supply. Some was sent down on Wednesday or Thursday, but it is feared it must have fallen into the enemy's hands. I fear our whole army and our whole population will suffer severely. The result on the point is differently anticipated. I am told, the alarm at Mobile is not so great as it has been on many less occasions.

I confess I have my fears, tho', as I never was at Fort Bowyer, I cannot judge satisfactorily. The faithful and vigilant collector of Mobile has come up with his books, and papers, and other public records.

I am, gentlemen, yours, &c.

P. S. I enclose a letter received this morning, from Col. S. Smith, formerly a Senator from Ohio.

Mobile, Feb. 10, at night, 1-2 after 7.

My dear friend—Our little town is in arms, 1200 militia and Indians are under orders to embark with the first fair wind, to assist in the defence of the Point, which is attacked, and has been closely invested, with the most tremendous cannonade, for 50 hours. Our ears are stunned with the report of an unceasing fire. The wind is ahead, our force cannot get there in time—the general says, I must remain with him: I did want to go with Blue, so says passion, judgment says, we are too late. All our town is bustle, I write this in haste, and with the candle in one hand.

Yours, whether in life or death.
Adieu. JOHN SMITH.

The well known healthiness of the situation, with the excellence of the neighbourhood, renders it well worthy the attention of any gentleman who may wish to settle in the country. Springfield, with 200 acres, may be had possession of immediately, and the other 200 in the ensuing autumn, with liberty to seed as early as they please. One half of the purchase money must be paid in hand, for the other half 12 months credit will be given, on approved negotiable notes or bank stock.
