the war never must terminate!

On Friday evening last, this borough was visited by a crew of those infamous wretches, who are wandering abroad seeking whom they may devour. Among the number were found the old offender and notorious cheat, William Long, formerly of Bloody-Run, now of Pittsburgh, and William Ward, another travelling gambler. A process being put into the hands of the sheriff of this county, upon an old indictment pending against Long, and warrant being issued against Ward and Long, upon suspicion of their being concerned in circulating counterfeited bank notes; these two were arrested. Long who carried the cash, made his escape from the sheriff and effected his retreat without the loss of his baggage. But Ward, less fortunate, was held in custody, and his baggage was taken.
After a strict search, the officer could not discover any notes in his baggage, either counterfeit or genuine; but found a very general assortment of implements of fraud and gambling. Amongst other articles were found false dice and numerous packs of artful marked cards, together with a sweat cloth and two boxes for dealing cards at the Faro bank. One of those boxes he asserted was invented by the noted gambler Baily, who had a patent for the same, from the patent office of the United States. The other appeared to be an improvement upon the patent art of swindling, by which a dexterous Black-legs could with ease throw out cards either from the top or bottom of the box, as might best suit the state of the bets. Ward after paying the paltry fine imposed by law upon the keepers of gambling tables, and giving surety for his good behaviour for the space of one year, was set at large—the remains of the crew have been dispersed. Part have gone to Pittsburgh, with a large stock of notes for the purpose of carrying on the business at Long's old stand—part have gone southward, and part eastward.
The Sheriff of our county has offered a reward of one hundred and fifty dollars for the apprehension of Long, and we hope that every civil officer of the state, and every enemy to fraud and villainy, will use their best exertions to bring this hardened offender to justice. We have heard of many patents, both for old and new inventions, but this is the first time we have heard of a patent for an improvement in the art of swindling—had we not heard it reported from another source, that such a patent did really exist, and was obtained through the influence of a conspicuous member of our national legislature, we should consider the story of Ward as unworthy of notice—nor are we as yet disposed to give credit to the report; but we have thought proper to notice it to the intent that if it be a slander upon the keeper of the patent office, it may be contradicted.

As it is believed that this knot of villains do not intend to confine their operations to this state alone, nor to the United States, (they having expressed an intention of visiting the Islands of Bermuda and Havana.) it is hoped that the different printers, friendly to virtue, will give the sheriff's advertisement, printed in another part of this paper, one or two insertions, in their respective papers, gratuitously.
150 DOLLARS REWARD.
Broke from my custody, in the borough of Bedford, on Saturday evening the 11th inst. WILLIAM LONG, formerly a resident of this county, lately of Pittsburg, generally known by the name of "Bill Long the Gambler." Sam Long is a but 35 years of age, of a ruddy complexion, stout make, five feet seven inches high, light eyes and sandy hair. It is expected every friend to good morals will be active in endeavouring to secure said Long as he was in the custody of the law, charged with the commission of several crimes and offences.—The reward and all reasonable expenses will be paid for bringing and lodging said Long in the jail of this State.

ting tract. The subscriber being also authorised by the decree to sell the same known establishment in this city, lately occupied by Mr. Isaac Parker, and originally by Mr. George Mann, deceased, announces to the public, and more espe-his fixed determination to render it equal to any establishment in the state.

Its conveniences perhaps are unequalled, proximity to the bay, of furnishing his table with wild fowl and oysters, will enable him to supply those who may favour him with their custom with those dishes in their proper season. He assures those who have been in the habit of patronizing this establishment, that they may calculate hereafter on meeting with accommodations at least equal to any which have been afforded by his predecessors; and so far as his own personal attendance, together with that of those in his employ, can contribute to the comfort and satisfaction of his guests, he pledges himself no ex-supply of liquors, and for the amusement of the stranger and the traveller, he has provided a Coffee Room, fur-
