THE EPIDEMIC.

I had not thought of making any communication to the Editors of newspapers on the subject of the prevailing disease, till I saw that several attempts were made thro' that channel to convince the public that it was to be treated, however different it might appear in the different sections of the country, upon some fixed or established plan...

Having said thus much about the epidemic, I shall make a few general remarks on the manner of treating it as it appeared in the circle of my practice for the last fifteen months.

In the district in which I live, the disease appeared under such a variety of forms that it acquired almost as many names, such as pneumonia, typhus, typhoid, typho, bilious fever, rhyphus fever, and catarrhal fever, just as it happened to take on either of these dresses, from change in the weather, or the difference of season, or of the exciting or occasional causes.

THOS. P. HERFORD, Middleburg, Loudoun Co. Va. April 10.

From New-Orleans. NASHVILLE, (Tn) April 4.—Letters from Orleans advise us that the Kentucky and Tennessee troops are on their way home.

Head Quarters, 7th Military District, New Orleans, March 14, 1815. GENERAL ORDERS.

The Major General is at length enabled to perform the pleasing task of restoring to Tennessee, Kentucky, Louisiana, and the territory of Mississippi, the brave troops who have acted such a distinguished part in the war which has just terminated.

tion, exclaim—these are the savours of their country...

Possessing those dispositions which equally adorn the citizen and the soldier, the expectations of your country will be met in peace as well as in war.

While the commanding general is thus giving indulgence to his feelings towards those brave companions who accompanied him through difficulties and danger, he cannot permit the names of Blount, and Shelby, and Holmes, to pass unnoticed.
