NANTZ, April 13. Since our last, the very extratdinary political events which have taken place in this country, & which will have come to your knowledge ere this reaches you, have suspend ed all expeditions under the French flag, and in general all commercia transactions. We are still une. tain what is to be the consequent of this change as to our related with foreign powers. The probatlities are for a renewal of the grat confederacy by which the government of Napoleon has ready can been overthrown. Hostilities, how ever, have not yet begun either h sea or land. At all events well not make a doubt, but that any ner tral, and particularly the America flag, will be respected by the Entries and allowed to trade freely mil the French ports not in a real state of blockade.

We hope the present state things will not be of a long dente on, and that peace will soon be m stored to Europe.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY JUNE 8, 1815

From the Boston Centinel.

The report respecting the Wasp sloop of war having been left blockaded in Pernambuco in January last we learn, is not entitled to so much, credit as has been given to it; the Portuguese vessel which reported it in Jan. was 40 days from Pernambuco, and gave so loose an account that the officer of the Constitution. to whom she made it, does not give credit to it-We sincerely hope she is safe; but a vessel which left the above port some time after, and which had arrived at Maranham, when the Constitution was there, heard nothing on the subject.

From the Boston Palladium, May 31.

We learn by the officers of the Constitution that the U. S. sloop of war Wasp, Capt Blakely, and an American privateer, (probably the True Blooded Yankee) were blockaded in Pernambuca, (Brazils) the latter end of Jan. last, by the British frigate Doris, 38, and a sloop of war. It affords us great pleasure thus to relieve the anxiety which has been long entertained respecting the safety of this interesting vessel of which there has not before been any correct information since Sept.

The U. S brig " Boxer alias Miami," Capt. Por er, is nearly ready for sea at Chatham.

It is said that the U. S. sloop of war Erie, capt. Ridgely, which arrived below yesterday, from New-York, is to ttake to the Texel our Ambassador to Holland and his

The frigate Congress, capt. Morris, will, we believe, proceed with the Independence, Com. Bainbridge, to the Mediterranean.

Return of the Constitution.

On Saturday last anchored below, the U. States frigate Constitution, Capt. Stewart, from a cruize via N. York; and yesterday she came up near the town. On passing Fort Independence salutes were interchanged. On anchoring a salute was fired from the Washington Artillery at the Long wharf, and a salute from India-wharf, which were returned by the frigate. Captain Stewart then proceeded in his barge. accompanied by many of his Officers, to the Long wharf, were he was heartily welcomed by Gen. Welles, and other distinguished characters, and by an immense crowd of citizens with loud and continued cheerings. The gallant commander was then escorted to the Exchange Coffee House by the Boston Fusiliers and Winslow Blues, attended by a full band, playing appropriate marches; and was hailed at almost every step by reiterated huzzas. The proces. sion was formed by a large number of naval and Military Officers, and Citizens. The numerous vessels in the harbor exhibited their colours; and State-street and many stores were ornamented with flags, and the windows thronged with gratified spec-

By the sloop Nancy, arrived at Boston from Halifax, we learn, that the British government schooner Mackarel had arrived there from Plymouth, Eng. which place she left on the 14th of April, with orders not to detain any French vessels.

STEAM FRIGATE EXCURSION. Yesterday morning at half after 9 o'clock, the steam frigate Fulton the First, left the Beckman slip, amid the acclamations of shousands, assembled to witness this first essay of her own propelling powers. She moved majestically up the East-river nearly to the ship-yard, then put about, and returned on Long-Island side, affording the inhabitants of Brooklin a fine view of her gigantic form.

Here she was joined by the New-Haven steamboat, capt, Bunker, as tender, having a respectable pleasure party on board, with an ele-gant band of mulac. The frigate saluted the city with a gun as she passed, and the castle at Governor's Island with another.

From a London paper. We understand that the powerful expedition fitted out at Cadiz, is not destined to the River Plate, as is expected at Buenos Ayres, but is to proceed first to the Caraccas, and subsequently to Vera Cruz. From the same authority we are informed that Gen. Miranda was lately tried by a secret tribunal at Cadir, and sentenced to be strangled, and suffered accordingly.

An Inquest has been held on the bodies of 7 American prisoners who were shot by the soldiery during the late attempt to force the gates of the prison, and a verdict of justifiable homicide has been returned The prisoners we understand continued to hold a menacing attitude, and appeared little awed by the melancholy fate of their comrades .-Several of the great number that were wounded are not expected to Admiralty Office, April 15, 1815. Extract of a letter from Vice Admiral Sir Alexander Cochrane, G. C. B. &c. to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated oft board his Ma jesty's ship Tonnant, off Mobile bay, the 14th Feb. 1815.

It being the intention of major general Lambert and myself to have attacked Mobile, and finding the entrance into the bay so guarded by Fort Boyer, as to render it unsafe to attempt forcing a passage with the small ships of war, the major general and myself thought it advisable to attack the fort by land; and on the 7th, a detachment of snips, under the command of capt. Ricketts, of the Vengeur, effected a landing of the troops intended for this service, about 3 miles to the eastward of the fort, which was immediately invested, and our tren ches in the course of forty eight hours, pushed to within pistol shot of the enemy's works

The batteries being completed on the 11th, the fort was summoned, when the officer commanding it, seeing the impossibility of effecting any good by further resistance, agreed to surrender upon the terms proposed to him by major general Lambert (a copy of the capitulation is enclosed) and on the following day the garrison, consisting of about 365 soldiers of the second regiment of infantry and artillery, marched out and grounded their arms, and were embarked on board of the ships of the squadron.

The fort was found to be in a complete state of repair, having 22 guns mounted, and being amply provided with ammunition. capt. Rickets and the hon. capt. Spencer, who commanded the seamen landed with the army, I am indebted for their zeal and exertions in landing and transporting the cannon and supplies, by which the fort was so speedily reduced.

From the Centinel. Mr. Russell.

As many of the " friends of government" suppose the taxes, levied to pay the war debt, are very light, and laid in a way to encourage our own Manufactures. I wish just to give them a true statement of the tax which the Manufacturer of Hats is obliged to pay. The tax on hats is eight per cent. ad valerem -therefore, suppose a man to employ one journeyman to manufacture one eight dollar hat per day, (Sundays excepted) which is an easy day's work, his tax for one year will be 200 dollars and 32 cents :- If he employs two hands it will be 400 dollars and 64 cents: If three, 600 dollars and 96 cents: If four hands, it will amount to the enormous sum of 801 dollars and 28 cents-which is in fact nearly equal to his whole profit Thus will at once be seen the mode in which the government encourage their own manufactures.

I have the honour, &c.
