Application to me, the subscriber, in process of Anne Arundel county court, as judge of the third judicial district of Maryland, by petition in writing of EPHRAIM

Watts, of said county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November Session, then and there, and the several supplements thereto, upon the terms mentioned in said act, and the supplements thereto, a list of his property, and a list of his creditors, as far as he can ascertain, being annexed to his petition; and having stated in his petition that he is indebted to sundry persons, and having prayed to be relieved from his confinement, on the terms of said act, I do hereby order and adjudge, that the person of the said Ephraim

Watts be discharged; and by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis, once in each week for three successive months, before the third Monday of September next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court, on the third Thursday of September next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to state, if any they have, why the said act should not have the benefit of its supplements, as prayed.

BY THE REV. DR. STACK,

An eminent Divine of the Church of England.

These Lectures are modelled upon the Plan, and intended as a Sequel, to Bishop Porteus's Lectures on the Gospel of St. Matthew. The Publisher has been favoured with the following Recommendation of them from the Right Rev. Bishop

Kemp:

"BALTIMORE, APRIL 29th, 1815.

"Dear Sir,

"I have perused Dr. Stack's

Lectures, and am much pleased with them. In imitation of Bishop Porteus, he has reprinted them as practical as can be, although by no means destitute of learned and critical remarks.

A fine strain of affectionate and evangelical piety pervades the whole, and renders them highly interesting, inasmuch as they not only enlighten the understanding, but also warm the heart.

FOREIGN

IMPORTANT

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Received by the Milo, arrived at Boston from Liverpool.

LONDON, April 24.

We have received a Hamburg mail with papers to the 19th ult.—

Their contents are important because they confirm us in the opinion that we have already formed as to the unalterable determination of the allied sovereigns to proceed in their hostilities against Buonaparte with the utmost promptitude, and with all the power of their states. The king of Prussia issued a proclamation at Vienna on the 7th inst. The language is precisely in the same spirit with the declaration of the 15th of March, and the treaty of the 25th. The most ardent spirit of loyalty is said to prevail among the youth of the Prussian monarchy.

The new treaty of alliance signed at Vienna on the 23th of March, is said to be ratified on Saturday afternoon.

It has been suggested, that Louis the 18th would join the allied sovereigns at Frankfort; but recent letters say that he will remain some time longer at Ghent.

It was erroneously stated some time ago, that M. de Chateaubriand had remained at Paris, and embraced the cause of the usurper. That elegant and admirable writer is with his sovereign at Ghent, as is

M. Lally Tolendel.

It is said that Buonaparte would not permit lord F. Somerset to take with him from Paris the Duke of Wellington's valuable plate, which had been presented to him in commemoration of his many glorious victories.

Admiral Gantheume has assumed the command of the Toulon fleet.

The conscription laws are, it is said, again acted upon in France.

A demand of 1500 men has been made upon Dieppe.

A strong channel fleet will be immediately collected, as a fleet of observation, under the command of lord Keith. Naval arrangements are also making in and relative to the islands near the French coast, and an admiral is about to
