

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY, THURSDAY JULY 20, 1815.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY, Brice J. Worthington, Colonel Thomas Hood, Doctor Richard Hopkins, Virgil Maxcey.

FOR KENT COUNTY, Capt. Frederick Boyer, Joseph Brown, 4th Major, Matthew Tilghman, Col. William Spencer.

FOR CECIL COUNTY, Lambert Beard, George Davidson, Abraham D. Mitchell, Robert Evans.

Follow citizens of Maryland, there is one thing which you never should regret, and which you should particularly treasure up against the advances of administration, for to your credit and want of patriotism do we attribute the destruction of Washington. When a charge of so gross a nature is made against those feelings and that love of country which is the peculiar privilege of republicans at all times and under the influence of all circumstances to possess, it becomes necessary that some effort should be made to wipe from your characters such aspersions. Cast upon the shoulders of those who were entrusted with the guardianship of the Capitol, and who had the means put in their hands for its defence, all the disgrace accompanying its fall, if they alone are entitled to it. As it were not enough that you should be denied every species of protection during the whole war, and for the want of aid from government compelled to witness the conflagration of your homes, and the ruin of your fortunes, you must also be taxed as accessories in the destruction of the metropolis of your country. Look at the letter of gen. Winder, whose misfortune it was to command the military district of which this state is a part, at the time when this melancholy event occurred, and you will there find, that so far from being aided by the government in his efforts of defence, that all means were withheld, and every preparation neglected, until the enemy actually commenced his incursions. You could have been supported by the proper authorities in the plans which he suggested upon assuming the command of this district, the honour of the country might have been saved, and you have escaped a detestable character which some of the apologists of administration have endeavoured to fix upon you. It is an attempt to prop the administration are too execrable to be entered by high-minded intelligent publicans. There are some, however, of a different order, who would dust from the feet of Madison, let him be guilty of conduct so repugnant to the principles of our constitution, or so blasting the interests and dignity of our country. To men of this sort we have no disposition to address these remarks, for they are so stubborn in the pursuit of error, that we should have no prospect of producing conviction on any day as possible. It is important that his collections should be speedily made, to enable him to meet the demands on the levy list. He returns his thanks to those who have facilitated his operations heretofore, by making payments to Mr. William Wardfield, in Annapolis, and he again requests their assistance in the same way. Mr. Wardfield is authorized to settle accounts and receipts.

R. Welch, of Elm Co. A. County.

He returns his thanks to those who have facilitated his operations heretofore, by making payments to Mr. William Wardfield, in Annapolis, and he again requests their assistance in the same way. Mr. Wardfield is authorized to settle accounts and receipts.

Greenland Whales.

A gentleman from Long Branch, informs us, that on Wednesday last, three large Greenland Whales were discovered off that place. One of them, supposed to be 80 feet long, ran ashore on the bar at nearly low water, where he remained about 3 hours, roaring loud enough to be heard at the distance of 2 or 3 miles, and dashing the sand in every direction with his tail. While he was lying in this situation, his attendants were plunging about, as near to him as they could approach with safety, constantly spearing & throwing around the water, manifesting the liveliest sympathy for their afflicted companion. When the tide rose, he worked himself from the bar, wheeled about several times in the water, joined his companions, and spouting in triumph, steered his course to the north-east. By his weight and struggling to extricate himself, he had formed a deep gutter in the sand. On the 4th of July, a large whale was caught near Chesapeake, on the Jersey shore. He was discovered asleep, near the beach, by a man who was mowing in a salt meadow. The labourer, supposing the whale was dead, took an oar and waded out to it; while attempting with the oar to open its mouth, it awoke, and rolled itself like a log, 70 or 80 yards upon the beach. The labourer, who had escaped with difficulty, collected the people in the neighbourhood, and with scythes and other instruments, soon killed it. [V. F. Com. Adv.]

TOASTS.

1. The 4th of July, 1776—It delivered us from British Taxation—may it never be forgotten. 2. The last Congress—We have it in remembrance. 3. The Boot Tax—It pinches our toes. 4. The Hat Tax—It gives us the head ache. 5. The Land Tax—It shortens our crops of profits. 6. The Leather Tax—We feel hide bound. 7. The Snuff Tax—It makes our eyes water. 8. The Segar Tax—We will puff them no more. 9. The Carriage Tax—A heavy drag. 10. The Whiskey Tax—huzza for Albert G— 11. The Paper Tax—The handwriting for all these things, shall be upon the Wall! 12. The Saddle Tax—They have rode us long enough. 13. The Bride Tax—though intended to affect our jaw, we will speak our minds. 14. The Whip Tax—"A rod for the fool's back." 15. LOST.

On Sunday the 9th inst. on the road leading from M-Gruder's Tavern, by Governor's Bridge, to Annapolis, a small red MOROCCO POCKET BOOK, used as a lancet case, in which is a thumb lancet; also containing a note on the Bank of Virginia for fifty dollars, and a small piece of court plaster recollected. It probably might have dropped under a large Cherry Tree, standing near the road on the south side. Any person delivering the above pocket book, and contents, to Wm. William Brewer at the City Hotel, in Annapolis, will receive ten dollars reward.

SHERIFFALTY.

Having passed the greatest part of my life in the service of my country, I now again offer my services to my Fellow Citizens of the County of Anne Arundel and the City of Annapolis, as SHERIFF. I trust that I shall be able to discharge the duties of that office, if elected, so as to give satisfaction to all—and shall therefore be thankful to all who may please to honor me with their confidence.

NEW BOOKS.

G. SHAW, Has received the following Late and Valuable Publications: The Christian's Manual, of Faith and Devotion, price $1.00. By Bishop Hobart of New-York. This book is admirably calculated to exhibit and to enforce the various exercises, duties, & privileges of the Christian life; to awaken the careless, to exhort the lukewarm, and to instruct and comfort the penitent believer. The Episcopal Manual, price 1.00. To those who are desirous of becoming more intimately acquainted with the Evangelical Character of the Episcopal Church, the purity of her doctrines, the healthful spirit which pervades all her services, this book will be found an inestimable treasure. New Manual of Private Devotions; Containing prayers for families and private persons—offices of humiliation—for the sick and for the holy communion, price 1.50.

This volume contains forms of prayer suited to all conditions in which human beings may be placed, in a style well adapted to the simplicity of sincere and genuine piety, and is an excellent medium through which to convey the fervours of gratitude to the divine author of every good and perfect gift; the cries of penitence for pardon to the father of mercies; or the supplications of suffering and necessity to him who in the time of need "all flesh should come." Trimmer's Sermons, for family reading, 1.00. Simeon's Sermons, 1.00. Sermons for Children, by a lady, 18 3-4 cents. Annals of the Poor; containing the Dairyman's Daughter, The Negro Servant, and The Young Cottager, 30 cents. The Blacksmith's Letter, 50 cents. The Velvet Cushion, by the author of the World Without Souls, 30 & 62 1-2 cents—two editions, Allison's Sermons, 1.62 1-2 cents. The Christian Sacrifice, or the great duty of frequenting the Holy Communion, 50 cents. Paley's Evidences of the Christian Religion, 1.25. Fowler's Exposition of the Book of Common Prayer, 1.25. Prayer Books—The New-York, improved edition—various sizes, editions and prices, from 75 cents to 4.50. The History of England from the earliest period to the close of the year 1812, by J. Bigland, with a continuation of the Treaty of Paris by an American gentleman, 5.00. Select American Speeches, 5.00. The Lord of the Isles by Walter Scott, 1.00. Pannance, or the Fairy of the 19th century. Essay on Faith, by Rotheram, 62 1-2.

G. Shaw, will in a few days have for sale, The Homilies of the Church of England—first American edition. These invaluable relics of the piety of the reformers, owing to the difficulty heretofore of procuring them, are in the possession of but few—they are now rendered accessible to all who are desirous of obtaining them. The first part of the Homilies appeared in the reign of Edward the sixth, and is supposed to have been written by Cranmer, assisted by Latimer. The second part, published early in the reign of queen Elizabeth, is attributed chiefly to Bishop Jewell. A copy of these homilies was given to every parish priest in the kingdom, who was commanded to read them diligently and distinctly, that they might be understood by the people. These discourses have ever been considered as containing the most unexceptionable summary of doctrine, and the richest treasures of scriptural knowledge and genuine piety. Annapolis, July 13.
