HEBREW MELODIES. A new musical work, entitled "Hebrew Melodies," has attracted much attention...

OH! WEEP FOR THOSE. Oh! weep for those that wept by Babel's stream. Whose shrines are desolate, whose land a dream...

Several of the Songs allude to events in the history of the Jews. The following is the supposed address of Jeftna's daughter before the sacrifice:

Since our country—our God—oh, my sire! Demand that thy daughter expire: Since thy triumph was bought by thy vow...

The voice of my country is o'er, And the mountains behold me no more: If the hand that I love laid me low There cannot be pain in the blow...

Though the virgins of Salem lament, Be the judge and the hero unbent! I have won a great battle for thee, And my father and country are free!

It is the hour, when from the boughs The nightingale's high note is heard; It is the hour, when lovers vows Seem sweet in every whispered word...

THE WEEKLY MONITOR.

For this day's Monitor we extract from the Poughkeepsie (N York) Journal, a communication on the subject of the ruinous effects of Ardent Spirits...

ing, and feverishly looking for this night's repetition of the folly—feeling the body of death within him, of which he hourly cries, with feebler and feebler outcry, to be delivered—it were enough methinks to make him dash the sparkling beverage to the earth...

and not undo 'em, To suffer yet damnation to run through 'em.

From the Poughkeepsie Journal. COMMUNICATION. On the Ruinous Effects of Ardent Spirits.

The friends of religion and humanity through our country have long seen and deeply lamented the intemperate use of intoxicating liquors. They have also long been convinced, that something ought to be done to effect a reformation; to cure, if possible, such as are already infected, and if not, at least to prevent the farther spread of this deadly contagion...

Legislators have interposed their authority to arrest the triumph and desolating progress of the evil in question. Laws against tipping and drunkenness, armed with severe penalties have been enacted, perhaps in every state in the union.

Our taverns and our grave yards are filled with its trophies. Not content with extending its ravages and multiplying its triumphs among the refuse of society, it has involved all ranks, and made awful havoc of prosperity, genius, learning, reputation and happiness...

Thousands of husbands have been torn from the bosoms of their families; thousands of sons from the embraces of their parents; like the "croaking plagues of Egypt," it has found its way into the very bed-chambers of the rich and the poor, the public officer and the private citizen.

Even magistrates themselves, the appointed guardians of the laws, have not always escaped. Nay more, this audacious and dreadful foe to the bodies and souls of men, has leaped over the pale of the church, polluted the sanctuary, and (how shall it be spoken) has numbered among its victims Ministers of the Gospel.

TIMELY WARNING.

An act to amend the act, entitled, "An act for suppressing immorality." Passed April 14, 1815.

Be it enacted, by the people of the state of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, That it shall not be lawful for the commissioners of excise, to grant a licence, or permit any person to retail spirituous liquors under five gallons, if in the opinion of such commissioners, such applicant is not of good moral character...

fore said, any E. O. table, wheel of fortune, or other gaming table or gaming box or machine, he shall forfeit the sum of 25 dollars, to the use of the poor in the city or town in which such offence may be committed...

TIPLING SHOPS.

The following paragraph is extracted from the presentation of a late Grand Jury in the city of New York—We think there are other places in this wide world besides New-York where a grand jury might be profitably employed, in endeavouring to diminish the number of grog shops...

"They likewise present, in their character of jurors aforesaid, and under their oath, as a public nuisance, the growing and incalculable evil of those numerous and multiplied TIPLING SHOPS, and petty groceries, who under the too free sanction of our laws, obtain a licence to vend liquor, and a few articles of necessity, to the poor, at exorbitant prices, and frequently of a degenerate quality, and do shamefully abuse the freedom granted, by keeping open their shops, not only each working day, but all hours at night, and, in many cases, on the day set apart by our religion and laws, to be observed as a day of rest, free from traffic as from labor—thereby harboring and encouraging the drunkard in his drunkenness, and enticing the idle and the vicious to spend their time and money, to the great injury of their families, and against the peace and dignity of the people of this state."
