Monday, July 31-12 o'clock. By the politeness of capt. Fosof the brig Favorite, who land-Beverly last evening in 35 by from Liverpool, we have regred the following highly intersing intelligence.

Louis Gazette Extraordinary. Dewning street, June 22d, 1815.
Major the hon. H. Percy arrivaHist night with a despatch, from field Marshal the Buke of Welis Majesty's principal Secretary which the following is a copy.

Waterloo, June 19, 1815. My Lord-Bonaparte having colcted the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th and 6th orps of the French army and the sperial Guards and nearly all the avilry on the Sambre, and bereen that river and the Meause. etween the 10th and 14th of the conth, advanced on the 15th and tracked the Prussian posts at Thun and Lobez on the Sambre, at day the in the morning.

I did not hear of these events till he evening of the 15th; and I imediately ordered the troops to repare to march ; and afterwards a march to their left, as soon as had intelligence from other quarers to prove that the enemy's covements upon Charleroy was the selves with the utmost gallantry.

Although Marshal Blucher had maintained his position at Sambref, he still found himself much weakened by the severity of the contest in which he had been engaged, and as the fourth corps had not arrived, he determined to fall. back and concentrate his army upon Wavre; and he marched in the night after the action was over.
This movement of the Marshal's rendered necessary a corresponde ing on my part; and I retired from the farm of Quatre Bras upon Genappe, and thence upon Waterloo the next morning, the 17th, at 10 | the enemy was forced from his posto'clock.

The gremy made no effort to pursue Marshal Blucher. Bulow's corps by Kuschermont upon Planchenorte and La Bella Alliance, had begun to take effect, and as I could perceive the fire of his camon, and as Marshal Prince Blucherhad joined in person, with a corpe of his army to the left of our line by Ghaim, I determined to attack the enemy and immediately advanced the whole line of infantry apported by the cavalry and artilley. The attack succeeded in every point; tions on the heights, and fled in the utmost confusion, leaving behind pieces of cannon, with their ammunition, which fell into our bands. Gen. Pozzo di Borgo, gen. Baron Vincent, gen. Muffling and general Alavon, were in the field during the action, and rendered me every assistance in their power; Baron Vincent is wounded but I hope not severely ; and gen. Pozzo di Borgo. received a contusion.

I should not do justice to my feelings or to marshal Blucher, and the Prassian army, if I did not attribute the successful result of this arduous day, to the cordial and timely assistance I received from them.

The operation of gen. Bulow upon he enemy's flank was a most de. cisive one; and even if I had not found myself in a sugation to make the attack, which produced the first result, it would have forced the enemy to retire, if his attacks should have failed, and would have pre-vented him from taking advantage this morning that he has taken 60 of them, if they should unfortunately have succesded. I send with this despatch two cagles taken by the troops in this action, which maj. Percy will have the hanour of laying at the feet of his
