the President, but he no tribing must. This language, commission of ay not be very pleasing who was resulted ears of conscience on the serve please of causeience, and have a commission of the serve please of convergence, and have a comparate in the serve person of the inetigated who was trestrated by a convergence, and have a convergence and information of the convergence and information of the convergence and the convergence last three years has in were unavailing; that he ing our poor bleeding of truth was instead to and only concern is to assert to the moment, and the their struggle be one that their struggle be one that their struggle be one their efforts to bind in the chains of delusion and the chains of delusion and from which we have liberate. from which we have liberary selves, must be reliminated this sad dilemma they had a to the assistance of a den nce with which he arrogant pretensions dvanced by nim at the to the assistance of a derent of the war? Has pick pocket. On this expension of the process of a grant man deny this ir reading the instructure worthy of such cause is worthy of being upheld. Thus it must ever the content of the pick pocket. the natural order of events, a cause whose success would occ the wretchydness of marking authorised to wave of impressment. Actreaty was made, and rely for support on iniqual fraud. But I trust that or e President, in which abandoned; and this occasion, as on most others, in and Iraud have overreached and sworn in his wrath hould never revisit our selves. I am satisfied that d unless the British discernment and independence full and express ackthe people will cause the mist of all his ridiculous which has been designed, to me led notions about Free upon the heads of those by what Sailor's Rights. Call was meditated. The covering is thrown over the fried swallowing the pill? the thing (to use the thin to conceal it from our re Mr. Harper,) right in The infention of it evidently ceful though it be to avert our eyes from the bled , but not so to the nabe remembered that the our murdered countrymen, to d our cars against the laments of the widows and orphans vi rine on this subject, they have left, and to withdraw of impressment, which minds from the contemporation speaks of, has never ther than to exercise that scene of pr sperity and piness which America at this of taking Native Engon the ocean or in would have exhibited, if that ney which has been lavishly the ports. They have alledged that they had not away in the late unfinitful con had, been appropriated to inch of a right to lay their an American Seaman, his it is at their perif. improvements. It was farther tended to render us insensible possible, to the cruel gripe of that case (as Mr. Harformly contended) a tax gatherers. * in short to m and, not only the restodraw our attention from all countryman, but the flagitious acts of our wretched ation for all the injury ministration. But let us e sustained by the nathese men, my fellow citizens individual himself who we are not so ignorant of as they have persuaded themen , or by his employers. t fellow-citizens, that -let our conduct on the to so far from being election prove to them that we rights of the Amerisagacity enough to detert their ffords them more effecfices, and independence choich y than all the French smile upon them with contra h were ever conceived Before taking leave of your friends, I will make one addition t efforts of Madison rte. The federal docobservation—Last fall, when y protects our seamen British attacked Baltimore, Harper, who is accused of wish ocean, but it also m with the means of to surrender our rights to be (although exempted by see to ; because it does not e power of British deke their employment joined with alacrity the standay But the pretensions his country, rushed into the the set up by Mr. Madison est of the fight, and by his coun and talents contributed larger igners of every dessnatch the bread from produce the glorious result à memorable day. This last parties in the recollection of every f native Americans, by alf a dollar less, perir wages. Yes fellowand is expressly acknowledged. General Stricker himself. At was for this purpose, it in the power of Engtime, many of those who my ect this object that the British Nation, and resing amilies have because the server of peach the " piping, times of peace" grow rich by starving milies have been left pared to join in this boly were skulking from the scene is to come to be bowed tion, and would not dare to most grievous taxes. their faces within view of the ero are men among us o effrontery to ask us emy. It now remains for for decide, whose conduct is met thy of approbation their he men in power who present state of things.

testify their patriotism by dis-lamation on subjects which the not understand, but shrink the the liour of trial approached circumstance connected his who, though he can discent tter that excited my rors in the conduct of admin s that the democrats the trouble to pick a tion is, notwithstanding to pocket, in order to disready to shell his life's though defence of the soil and fiberia had never been conhis country. To me, men ! ery opinion which is this letter, has been ousand times by every may be well to nentlon, that though those which have been country, except indeed orters of Mr. Madison, loans, and enormous though those which have been ready collected have greatly pressed us, yet that the collect many others which have but due for several months has postponed until the election is that we may be kept in look of the full exient of the his which we have to hear. Then have sanctioned these ur suffrages, and I trust much resemble weatherbe blown about by ed breath that issues thy lungs of slanderous said; my friends, it was which we have to hear.

daplicity, a meanness is the duct, which is calculated to the hottest indignation. It is the hottest indignation. The acquisition of we ought to resent by their, would to be sure them from our confidence.

* While alluding to the tite hudders at the thought!

nd reason revolt at it.

d a man is Mr. Hurbers have the disciples of Washing

A PLAIN MAN, But not a blind one

For the Margiand Gazette. Although extremely averse from particularly on subjects relago private affairs, in which the le can feel but little or no conmyet Lam constrained on the ment occasion to notice a piece od Regin Spurrier," Chish-The object of the gentleman, is, both a justification for having ad the statute of limitation, beer a magistrate, in bar of an count exhibited by me against s how far he has succeeded by sattempt at explanation, remains be decided by the impartial read-Much unnecessary irritation eled to my urgent solicitation to umine the items in my account, siat out the error, if it confained ne, and it should be cheerfully orcted; but this imposition he pemptorily reject prefering the at summary mode of proceeding, antly, to quash my claim at one sh by taking refuge behind the apart of a legal plea, where any orthless fellow may, in such case, held himself, and there smile and off with impunity at the creduon with impunity of the creditor.

on lenity of an honest creditor.

Ir. Spurrit alls somewhat in deuntions and interences; unfortuately for him, this kind of logic not suited to his case, we want lain matter of fact. He says he frequently done business with in the course of the last five ears; that I had not importuned im on the score of any. claim, & that had at all times (excepting I supse the very time I. tried it) my emedy against him; all this is uerile, proving nothing in point, is I shall presently make appear in truth the other man but Mr. Spurrier ministry, could have connced me that he was capable of aking a legal advantage of indulgence; but it may be that the alarm reated in his mind by Mr. Bowie's hreatened prosecution, was deemed fair equivalent set-off to the debt de me, or that he thought it be longed to him to project Mr. Mayord's interest, by the assumption of a right to liquidate accounts between its, in one of the heat or in both cases ween us, in one or in both cases be may possibly set up a plea, but if we put out of the question all such chartable allowances, we shall they come to the plain con-sideration of the fact at issue betwe n us. Mr. Sparrier must surely additthat no final settlement of ac-that of intellect of imbecility.

I shall, however, in the mean-time, endeavour to amend, and make a little more intelligible, the gentleman's boasted explanatory statement; I think, demonstrate to the mon sense, that Mr. Spurrier has counts has ever taken place between him and myself; that my application, several years ago, to that effect, had been frequent, and that in no instance, till latterly, did he ver demur at being considered in my debt-if he denies this, under the influence of mental honesty, we must, however lamentable concede

to him the privilege of another plea,

In the spring of the year 1810. Mr. James P. Maynard stopped payment; I was on his paper in bank for a considerable amount; beside this, and certain other claims, he was then indebted to my $1486 for house rent. Under the circumstances, naturally I turned my by my direction executed the remains of Mr. Maynard's store goods; shortly after he had made the sergere, and prior to the day of sale, he came it me and said, Mr. Bowie had therefered as bring an attempt of damages agains him for an illegal distrain if requested him to proceed, pledging myself at the same time, that he should not, in any event, sustain injure his fears being thus nursted to made the sale in course pursuent to his advertisement.

Lo aid Mr. Spiriter, and expeding a aertilement of the business made out the individual bills from the nale lift, retained part of Sont 21, 1815.

them in my own hands for collec-confidence and support sion, and delivered above charged an is Mr. Hurper in the following account 46 him disciples of Washings for which he had in no manner whatever accounted to me, except by the payment of the sum placed to his credit. Perhaps it may be proper to state, that the aggregate amount of sales was $437 22, and that it is placed in my books, at any person may see, to the credit of Me Maynard, which sum shall honestly be accounted for withour regard to lapse of time.

Dr. Mr. Resin Sporrier, to Wm. Alexander, in sums collected respectively from the following named persons, vizi

John Childs, 11 533 J. White; Rezin Spurrier 1 39 42 87 1 John Hurst, H. H. Hatwood. Mrs. M. J. Davidson, 59 J. Wells, S. Peacor 34 08 R. H. Harwood, C. Hohne, ... G. Schwrar. Lewis Neth.

272 59 1

By cash received at different times, 147 By fees,

Wm. Tuck,

Deduct Mr. Hohne's act. 6 61 1

Due by Mr. Spurgier $ 41 98

The aforegoing account is a short. plain; and full exhibit of the ground of my claim against Mr. Spurrier, which I presume he cannot invalidate, making him my debtor for $41 98. Now, as Mr. Spurrier has thought proper, unprovoked by me, to drag my name before the public in this affair, I call upon him to satisfy that tribunal, in clear and precise terms, how and in what manner this balance has been discharged, and if he succeeds, by a fair exposition of the transaction, I shall hold myself bound to avow my error. I have now done with this man of pleas, leaving him to indulge in imagination the belief that he has fully made appear what he has asserted, that he doctor owe me one solilary cents. The performance of this task, one would suppose, required undivided attention, but he has at the same time attacked the repose of A Voter, (whom by the bye I know not) for the purpose it appears. of calling him by a heap of naughty names. In general it is prudent to undertake that only which we are sure to accomplish, and to finish one job well before we begin another.

. W. Alexander.

We are authorised to say that Gassaway Watkins declines being a Candidate for the Office of sheriff at the ensuing election.

Seasonable Goods.

B. CURRAN,

Has this day opened Blankets, Flan-nels, Cloth Coatings, Kerseymeres, Vestings, Cords, Velvets, and Stock-inets, and amost every article in that line, all of which he will sell los. Annapolis, Sept 21.

Public Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court of Mayland, the subscriber will expose to Public Sale, on the premises, on Estarday, the 7th day of October hext, the real estate of Greenbury compliers, deceased, con-sisting of a value ble tract of land, lycumstances, naturally I turned my attention toward securing myself as far as was practicable; accordingly I determined, [and it was with his approbation] to distrain for the rent. I selected Mr. Spurrier as the officer to do the business, who my direction executed the remains of Mr. Maynard's store goods shortly allow that a store goods shortly allow the recessary to give a further descrip-ale litte retained a part of Sopt 21, 1815.

FOR SALE.

By order of the orphans court of Ame. Arundel county, will be offered at Public Sale, on Tuesday, the 17th Jay of October, at the late dwelling of Henry Margaret Ogie, in the city of Annapolis, deceased; all the per-sonal property of said deceased, consisting of a variety of household and Margaret Ogie, late of the city of Any kitchen furniture, plate, books, paint napolis, deceased, comprising a valuings, and a very fine collection of able and commoditus brick dwelling prints, handsomely framed, being part of the original engravings from Boydels suporb edition of Shakespeare; a beautiful china clock; glass, china. &c. and a very good Philadelphia built Charriot, with a pair of steady welf broke horses. And on the next day, If fair, if not the next fair day, at the alone having sold some years for up. of valuable negroes, very fine cattle among which are five yoke of good oxen, a small flock of uncommonly find Barbary sheep, hogs, farming utensils, &c &c. For all sums under twenty dollars, cash must be paid above that sum six months credit will be given upon the purchaser's giving bond, with approved security, with interest from the day of sale. Sale to commence at 11 oclock, A. M. Benjamin Ogle.

. The Editors of the Federal Gaette, Baltimore, and National Intelligencer, Washington, are requested to publish the above once a week till the day of sale, and forward their acounts to this office for collection.

Sept. 19, 1815

A Valuable Farm

I am authorised by a deed of trust to offer for sale, that valuable little farm, whereon Capt. William Weems, lately deceased, formerly lived, about 8 miles from West River, and 3 from the Cove on Herring Bay. It is said to contain 365 acres, to be well wooded and watered, and can soon be made very valuable for the growth of grain or lobacco, by the use of clover and plaister. The improvements on it are a very excellent Dwelling House and Kitchen, Barn, Tobacco and Corn-Houses, Overseer's House, and several other out houses convenient, and most of them in good repair. There is a good garden, and orchard of very fine apples, and the fields are under good fencing. &c There is also some very excellent meadow land. If I do not sell at private sale, before the 6th day of November next, I shall offer it at 11 o'clock on that day, at Public Sale, on the premises, when those wishing to purchase will please to attend, unless previous to that day they see it notified in this paper that it has been sold at private sale.

wishing to see the place will call on Mr. Samuel Wood, who now rents and lives on it. I will also thank the creditors of the said William Weems. deceased, to lodge with me their ac-the above property.

John C. Weems.

Lock Eden, Sept. 13, 1815.

possible. as I have full power to set-tle all the debts of the deceased so soon as they can be paid by the sale of James Williamson, Having removed his residence to Baltimore, returns his grateful acknow ledgments for the liberal patronage he hes always received from the citizens of Annapolis, and its vicinity. The Saddlery and Harness Making Business in future will be carried on, ander firm, at the same place, by the, sub-scribers, where a constant supply of choice materials will be held in ness for the accommodation of their friends, and the public generally by Waters & Williamson.

Sarah Anne Waters, Has just received exandsome assort-ment of Ladies dr s and undress SHOES & SLIPPERS,

At her old stand in west street, Annapolis; with a convenient assortment of dry goods suitable to the present and approaching season, consisting of broad cloths, milled plains, flannels, and a bandsome assortment of bombazetts, blankets, and fine Irish linhlankets, and fine Iriah lin-ens, a variety of cambricks, jaconet muslin, long cloth, shirting cambrick, seersuckers, regency stripes, cotton diaper, cashmers, and other shawls. Madrass handkerchiefs; sewing silks, boot cord and webbing, plated and gilt buttons, long and short cotton hose, satin and lutestring ribbons, ladies straw hats, and allk bonnets, &c. for very reduced prices.

Anne-Arundel County, to wit :

I hereby certify that Joshua Belt. of said county, bromb before me, as a stray trespassing on his enclosures, a Bay Gelding, about twenty years old, fourteen hands high, a star on his forehead, trots and canters. Given under hand of me, one of the justices of the peace in and for said county, this 16th day of Hantsmhar 1815. this 16th day of September, 1815.

The owner of the above Horse in requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges, and take him

Sept 21, 1815. Joshua Belt.

Public Sale.

Ser will expose to Pablic Sale, on Tues day the 17th day of October next, a the late dwelling of Henry Maygan Ogie, in the city of Annapolis, the whole of the real estate of Henry able and commoditions brick diverting in that city, with offices of every description, coach house, stable, ice house and mather sweet requisits for a genteel family. The garden, spacious, filled with fruit trees; and so productive of itself as to be sufficient for the support of a family, the apricote above house, so the sufficient for the support of a family, the apricote above house, so the support of a family, the apricote above house, so the support of a family.

Also, that valuable Farm known by the name of Tarray's Point, being on the Chesapeake bay, and the mouth of severa river, containing four hun-dre, and seventy acres and an half of fine arable and pasture land, with a very comfortable dwelling house in complete order, four rooms on the first floor, with a kitchen and laundry, ice house, meal-house, corn-house, barn, tobacco-house; and quarters, &cc. the place under complete fences, grain'is now sowing, and will be sold at a fair

HORN POINT, OR THE , PRESIDENT, being that tract of land immediately opposite the city, containing eight hundred and fine acres and three quarters of good land, great part of which is wood, of which there is sufficient to pay for the whole farm at two dollars cord. The amble land is rich and well adapted for gardening, and as the packets to Baltimore run regular ly by it every other day they afford a ready sale of every production of farm or garden at your own door.

The terms of sale are—the purchase or purchasers to give bond, with security, for payment of the purchase money within twelve months from the day of sale, with Interest, and on payment of the purchase money the subscriber is authorised to give a deed. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock A. M.,

Benjamin Ogle, Trustee. September 19.

The Editors of the Federal Gazette. Baltimore, and National Intelligencer. Washington, are requested to publish the above once a week till the day of sale, and forward their accounts to this office for collection.

This is to give notice, That the subscriber hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration de bonis non. on the personal estate of Richard Tydings, ceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, duly au thenticated, to the subscriber, and those indebted to make immediate payment Sarah Tydings, Admir. September 21. counts, properly attested, as soon as

Anna Gambrill

Informa her friends and public generally, that she continues to keep TAVERN (since the death of her husband) at the old stand of her mother Mrs. Urquhart, at the head of Severn, on the road from Baltimore to Annapolis, where she is well provided with, and will constantly keep a good supply of liquors, eatables, lodgings, &c. She has good and sufficient stables for horses, and well supplied with hay, oats and a careful ostler. Being near to navigable water, she will make it her constant care to provide as far as in her power, at the different seasons of the year, wild fowl, fish, crabs, and oysters; so as in every respect, to endeavour to accommodate satisfactorily all those who call on her. In so doing will have reason to expect a share of public support.

Sept. 21, 1815. 3w.

Anne-Arundel County, to wit : . I hereby certify, that Walter Brown, of the county aforesaid, this day brought before me, the subscriber, a justice of the peace in and for the county aforesaid, a bright bay Horse, as a stray, trespassing on his enclosures, of the following marks and described in the county aforesaid, a bright bay Horse, as a stray, trespassing on his enclosures, of the following marks and described in the county aforesaid the county of the co criptions, viz: has a small star in his forehead, his left hind foot white as far as the first joint, shod all round with old shoes, about fifteen hands and an inch high, five or six years old, no perceivable brand, trots, racks and canters, low in flesh, and is lame in the right hip; appears to have what is generally called the sweny. Given under my hand the 14th day of September 1815. John Cord

The owner of the above Horse is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

Sept. 21. Swalter Brown.

NOTICE.

The subscriber having obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of Henry Margaret personal estate of Henry Margaret Ogle, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said deceased, are requested to bring them in legally authonicated, and, those in debted to make immediate payment to Benjamin Ogle, Admir.

Or to Samuel Ridout, Annapolis.

Bept. 13

Sept. 15

By his Keeellesen LEPEN WI

Mhriess, by an inquisition hald on the holly of a certain Amos Gambrill, it was found that the said Amos Gamhrill was murdered by a certain Hear. H. Brown; and it has been sepresent ed to nie, that the mid Henry H Brown has fied from justice; and it-being of the greatest importance to sec-ciety that the perpetrator of such a crims should be brought to condign-punishment. I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do by and with the salvies and con-sent of the Council, offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS to any person who shall apprehend and deliver the said Henry H. Brown to the shariff of Anne Arundel county, Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Maryland, this twenty accord day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen. LEV. WINDER, Gov.

By His Excellency LEVIN WIN-DER, Esquire, Governor of Ma-

A PROCLAMATION. Whereas, by an inquisition held on the body of a certain Walter M Nier, on the 19th day of August instant, it was found that the said Walter M'Nier was killed by a certain Edward Mockbee; and it has been represented to me that the said Edward Mockbee has fled from justice; and it being of the greatest importance to society that the perpetrator of such a crime should be brought to condign punishment, I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do by and with advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of two hundred dol-Lars, to any person who shall appre-hend and deliver the said Edward Mockboo to the Sheriff of Anne Arundel county. Given under my hand and the seal of the state of Maryland this twenty second day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen. LEV WINDER, Gov.

Ordered, that the foregoing proclamations be published three we the Maryland Gazette, Federal Gazette, Telegraph, Federal Republican, Frederick Town Herald, and Easton

By His'Excellency's command. NINIAN PINKNEY, Clk. of the Council.

Farmers Bank of Maryland, 20th September, 1815.

The President and Directors of the Far mers Bank of Maryland, have declared a dividend of 4 per cent on the stock of said Bank for six mouths, ending the first and payable on or after Monday the record of October next, to stockholders on the western shore, next, to stockholders on the western shore, at the Bank at Annapolis, and to stockholders on the ers on the eastern shore, at the Branch Bank at Easton, upon personal application on the exhibition of powers of attorney, or by correct simple orders.

By order, *
JONA. PINKNEY, Cash.

Anne-Arundel County, sc. I certify, that Joseph N. Stockett hath brought before me, as a trespass, a dark brown Horse, with a white round his near hind foot about 15 1-2 hands high, his tail bobbed, a small star in his forehead, appears to have worked in gears, and about 10 or 11 years old . .

IVm Stewart. The owner of the above; Horse is requested to come, prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

Sep 12th 1815.

This is to give Notice,

That the subscriber of Anne Arundel county, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of David Simmons, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are requested to bring them in properly authenticated, and those indebted are desired to make payment.

Splember 21.

NOTICE.

The subscriber having obtained letters of administration de bonis non, on the personal estate of Richard Higgins, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, requests all persons having claims to make them known, and all those in any manner indebted, to make immediate payment Anderson Warfield, Administrator de bonis non. September 14, 1815.

A MEETING

Of the brends of peace, order, and good government, will be held on hursday the 28th of this month; at or near Charles Waters a till on Magothy. The meeting to take acc at 0 eclock in the morning. All the andidates are particularly invited to attended to the september 14.