ceeded against by arrest and com-martial as in other cases of bedience of orders; and the training and instruction shall conducted by such officers, and coning to such rules and regulation as the generals commanding div ons shall respectively appoint

23. And be it enacted, That in ng the continuance of the prese war, each general commanding division of the militia of this sai shall be, and bereby is authorise and empowered, to require their nector of his division, and his istant severally to attend the meet ings of the militia and offers of such division, to be called and and pointed by virtue of this act, to nstruction, training and discipling and to instruct the officers, and inspect, train, instruct and discipling the militia at such meetings, purs ant to such system as may be primulgated under and by virtue of this act, and until such system shall be so promulgated, pursuint a such rules, regulations and intro tions for discipline, as such general shall provisionally devise and a point; and every inspector, and sistant inspector, while so emploid shall be entitled to and receive same pay and emoluments, for the time being so employed, as it is had been during that time in artist service, to be paid by the trans of the Western Shore, on the order of the governor and council; ed?

24. And be it enacted, That ?

any non-commissioned officer of private, who has provided kined with a musket or firelock, or the has acceived one the property the state, shall appear in the m such musket or firelock, he shill fined a sum not less than ore lar, nor more than ten, in the tial; and if such nonscommission officer, or private, shall appe without such musket or firelock serviceable order, he shall for one dollar for every such negat unless reasonable excuse be gin

25. And be it enacted, That commanding officer of each comp ny shall appoint and dismiss at pleasure, his non-commissioned cers; and if any personso appered, having accepted of such pointment, shall neglect to to exceeding ten, in the discretion company court-martial.

26. And he it enacted, That violations of the provisions of law to be submitted to the let of a company court-martial, be enquired into by such the martial, at such convenient the said officer ordering the the said officer ordering the officer appoint, the delinquent of linquents being duly notified a pear before the said court me to answer the charge or charge leged against him or them ror tively; and in case any delings being duly notified of the tlast place of meeting of any such es martial, shall refuse or neglect attend, the said court-marini authorised and empowered to ceed to the trial of such deligation the same manner as if he

27. And be it enacted, This officer removing out of the of or if a field officer or majer ; ral, or brigadier-general; out division or brigadier-general, our division or brigade, as the case be, with an intention of matrix permanent change of his resident shall, on such removal, be to have resigned his committee to have resigned his committee that the little date of his and it shall be the day of the superior officer to make superior caucy known to the governor council as soon thereafter as a life of the council o personally present.

erwise appropriated.

each absen-

, Thatesch

all appoint

meetings af-

reof, without

, shall be pro-court-martial,

WARREN WARREN ( THE STATE OF TH

AND POLITICAL INTELLIGENCER.

(VOL LXXIII.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1815.

ettra battalious, through the commanding or of their respective brigades, and at sixty days prior to the regular field except incase of removal, and that other no officer shall be considered as having and, which officers shall within twenty after receiving such resignation, transmit elifeation thereof to the governor and toll, under the penalty of twenty dollars, ided that this shall not be binding on indent comes, or where there may be no and be it concer, or private of the in his attendance at, going to, or ree a commissioned officer in the militia s state unless he shall be a citizen of the of the adjutant of each regiment and ex-autalion, to attend the regimental and lion meetings, and execute the orders of commanding officers necessary to carry fulal or neglect to be subject to a fine not sing fifty dollars, at the discretion of a bontal court marrial ental court martial.

And be it enacted, That in case of the this difference, I have in case of the triggering discussion, or removal falls differed of any fubaltern officer, the mading officer of the regiment or extra lion, to which fuch officer may have be do may appoint a fit and proper person brevet officer, and shall immediately after motify the neverous of the same. after notify the governor of the same, seth brevet reficer shall have and exercise e powers incident to his office, in as full imple a manner as if he was commission-diff he shall be superfeded by a commis-defacer; provided that the removal of deficer; provided that the removal of scholler, resulting in any city or town, eximets thereof, to any part of the faid or city, or precincle thereof, shall in no be confidered as the resignation of fuch

And be it enacted. That the militis of tay county shall be exempt from the sental and battalion meetings by this act inted and directed, but infread thereof in company i and the 'company at Sel-Ror, and that also at the Green Glades, not, from their disperied situation, be red to attend any battalion meeting, but inchered they shall be compelled to meet opposes a solid to attend any battalion meeting, but inchered they shall be compelled to meet opposes a solid to the standing officer of the battalion to the heart of the standing officer of the battalion to heart, commanding officer of the battalion to heart, but distriction, to appoint some commissed of non-commissioned officer, to call the rank of the standing of the standing of the companies, as he from their relituation may consider too distant to attend to many meetings by this act before the small they shall be subject to the same for-non appearing at faid, meetings, as would be for not attending the company meeting the same standing the company meeting at faid, meetings.

38. And, whereas the remote and detached aituation of that part of the inilitia of Queen Anne's county wito reside on Kent Island, reuders it impracticable for them to meet in battalion or regiment off the faid island, therefore. Be it ejacted. That the militia residing on Kent Island shall not be compelled to meet in hatalion or regiment, but that the companies composing the militia on faid illand shall nevertheless be subject to be called together to exercise twice a year on faid island, exclusive of, company, meetings, at such times and such of company meetings at fuch times and fuch place as the communding officer of the batta-tion to which they belong first direct, and that be futher to the fame fines for not appearing at faid meetings as others are for not precing in battalion, or regiment, any thing in this act to the contrary notwith Landing.

139. And be it enacted, I hat the company now commanded by captain Charles Johes, on Dame's Quarter, in Somerfee county, and the ment or hatralian, and the company command egiment or battalion to which they belong are liable to do militia duty under this act resid-ing on the island south of Hooper's Streights, in Somester and Dorchefter counties, and Asseteague island, in Worcester county, shall alties as non-commissioned officers and pri-fiding in his district, who are desirous and willing to be enrolled in fuch company as muficians, and fuch perfons, so enrolled, shall perform the duty of musicians in said company instead of ferving ap privates therein.

43. And be it enacted, That in case are musician enrolled in any company shall not, on any day of parade directed by this act, be engaged in the actual performance of his duty as a musician, that then and in every such case the capitain or commandant of the constitutions.

44. And be tensetted, and every private capable of ferving as a mufician may, with the comfent of the captain or commandant of the company to which he belongs, at any justice by this act directed, act in the capacity of a mufician in any other company in the fame regiment or battalion with the company and that the falls of his diffrict; and a majority of any fuch uniformed militia company shall have power to determine and declare what and how many days of mine and declare what and how many days of training they will have throughout the year, over and above the days herein before appointed for their exercise and trainings notice whereof shall be given to such company by the commanding officer thereof, and to impose and institt fuch sines and penalties on any member of such company who may refuse or neglect to attend on such slated days of meeting, as may be fixed and agreed on by the bylaws of such company; provided, that no sine or forseiture for any violation of the provisions of this section, shall exceed the sum of twesay dollars, which fines and penalties shall on or this tection, that exceed the fam of tweday dollars, which fines and penalties thatli-be colleded, accounted for, paid over and applied, in the manner herein after preferibed with respect to fines imposed by company courts-martial.

45. And be it enacted, That whenever a number of men not lefs than fixty-four, shall have affociated and formed themselves into a number of men not less than fixty-four, shall have associated and tormed themselves into a uniform company, agreeably to the provisions of this act, they shall make a return thereof, to the commandant of the regiment or extra battallon in whose district such association is lormed, who shall thereupon inspect, or cause his adjutant to inspect the same; and on its appearing that they have conformed to the law, he shall forthwith apply to the governor, and conneil for commissions for proper parsons to command sale company, and also forward the requisite certificate to the governor to faid commanding officer, directed to the armourer of the nearest arsenal to the side company, where arms and accountements of the lister may be deposited, specifying that the faid armourer shall deliver to the beater of the order the puniter of aims therein mentioned in provided, that the givernor and council shall an including deliver such order without having pressoully received from the commissioned officers of such company, a bond with softicient security, for the sale keeping and re-deliver of sains, when demanded, and the commissioned officers aforesaid saving executed such bond, the monocommissioned officers at privates to whom such arms shall be delivered, shall give bond, each, in the sum of twenty dollars, to the commanding officer of the company have, conditioned for the safe keeping and return thereof, when legally required, without which bond the said commanding officer shall not be obliged to deliver the said arms and accountrements; and provided also, that no volunteer company or troops shall hereafter be commandined unless the commander in chief shall be satisfied that in forming it no other company has been reduced below its proper complement of men.

47. And, it being just and necessary that the militia service should be equally apportion at among all those liable to militia duty, for the militia service should be each and every militia service should be each and every proper complement of this object. Be it entacted. That the commanding officer of each and every neglest or refusal to perform any of the duties and court-martial as the case may be.

33. And be it enasted. That if any officer of the militia shall refuse or neglest to perform any of the duties enjoined on him by the sive next preceding sections of this add, or any of them, he suall be fined for each neglest or refusal to perform any of the duties enjoined on him by the sive next preceding sections of this add, or any of them, he suall be fined for each neglest or refusal to return such as the case of the militia shall result of the duties and of the militia shall result of the same and accounterantial as the case of the militia shall result of the same and accounterantial as the case may be.

34. And, it being just and necessary that the militia shall result of the same and accounterantial as the case may be such as the distribution of the same and accounterantial as the case may be such as the same and accounterantial as the case may be such as the same shall not the same shall not the savernment of the same shall not the same shall not the same shall

That the commanding officer of each and every militra company in the flate, shall forthwith divide his company, by lot, into ten classes, as equal as may be, and shall number the classes from one to ten, and shall place in the latter of the classes of the class duty, either in person, or by substitute, in such a manner that the person or persons who have served the last tour shall be placed in the relatest class, and those who served the next latest tour in the next class to the latest, and so on; and if there should be more persons than enough to form a class, who have so served a tour of duty at the smeating, it shall be dea tour of duty at the fame time, it shall be de-termined among them, by lot, which shall be placed on the latest class, which on the next, and number of perfors in each clafs, & fiall particularly note those who were placed in the later classes on account of having performed a tour of duty, and state when and where such one of the classes in the following manner:— If he shall produce to the commanding officer of a certificate from the commanding officer of fome other company to which he belonged, next before his enrollment as aforesaid, stating that he had been classed in such company, and the number of his class therein, and that he class there, and the number of his class, but not that he had performed a tour of duty, he shall be placed in the class of the fame number in the new company, or if that class has performed a tour of duty, then in the class nearest to it which has not performed a tour; and if he shall not come from another company, or shall bring no certificate, he shall be placed, by lot, in some class which has performed no tour of duty; and in all cales a certificate of his enrolment, and of the class certificate of his enrolment, and of the class and hereby is required, to give to every ver-fon removing out of his company diffrict, or otherwise lawfully leaving his company, a cer-tificate, when demanded by such person, dis-charging him from such company, and flating the class to which he belonged therein, and shall forthwith note his discharge on the rotter fuch parade, and of his captain's or commandant's confert thereto as aforefaid, final be a fufficient cause to remit any fine which and accountements, and also of mandant's confert thereto as aforefaid, final be a fufficient cause to remit any fine which he may have incurred by reason of his able to receive and carried to receive and reall orders necessary to carry introeffect which he belongs, on the day on which he was so assuing as a musician as a furrefaid.

45 And be it enacted, That it shall and the reason of the singular to receive and and twenty-one, with the confect of their parade of the company, and trainfinit to the commanding officer of the legislate.

And be it enacted, That it shall be the reason and treason and twenty-one, with the confect of their parade of the company which shall for the responsible excuse to the reasonable excuse to the reasonable excuse to the ending effect of the department and examilion, to attend the regiment and examilion, to attend the regiment and examilion, to attend the regiment and district; and a majority of any such noisonable with the adjutant, or other suit.

50 And he it enafted. That each and every commanding officer of a regiment, or extra battalion, shall forthwith make out, or cause to be made out, by the adjutant, or other suitable person, and shall keep a roster of his regiment, or battalion, formed from the company rosters to be returned to him pursuant to this ad; and shall cause the faid regimental and battalion rosters respectively to be from timed or officers of companies, and by the truth of duty ager formed by persons belonging to the regiment or battalion.

mental or extra pattaion court-marks has the cafe may be.

53 And be it emafted. That if any officer of the militia final refole or negled, to perform any of the duties enjoined on him by the five next preceding fedions of this ad, or any of them, he final be fined for each negled or refufal not more than firty dollars nor less than twenty, at the difference of an extra battalion, regimental, or brigade court-martial, as the regimental, or brigade court-martral, as the case may require.

54. And be it enacted, That when any of the militia shall be called into service pursuant to this act, they shall not be compelled to serve longer than ninety days, to be calculated from their arrival at the place of rendezwous to the time of their discharge, and they shall be replaced and relieved by another detachment. The called one as by this add as provided, if the placed and relieved by another detachment, to be called out as by this act as provided, if the public exigence should require it. 55. And be it enacted, That if any officer, non-commissioned officer, musician or private of the militia, shall be disabled while in actual fervice, he shall be entitled to half pay during life.

56 And Le it enacted, That in case of an infurrection or threatened insurrection within, or invasion of any part ment fiall be required, and to transmit information of what he shall have done in the premises to the commander in chief without delay; and the militia shall be ordered out as a foresaid, for the suppression of any insurrection, or threatened insurrection, when any two judices of the peace shall require it, and shall state in writing, that they have good reason to believe that the peace and quiet of the state is likely to be endangered by any in surrection or apposition to the laws, and not otherwise.

otherwise.

57. And be it enacted. That in all cases where any part of the militia shall be called into service by the commanding officer of any brigade, or any inferior officer belonging

58 And be it enacted. That the governor by and with the advice of the council, for the accommodation of the militia to be as any time called nuto fervice, may appoint such commissions and staff officers as he shall be retained in their commands, so far as may be sound necessary for making up the proper complement of officers. he may judge necessary for conveying, trans porting and issuing all necessary orders and fopplies

59. And be it enacted. That whenever any part of the militia of this flate flath be called into actual fervice by the commander in chief, or any officer of the faid militia, pursuant to or any olicer of the laid murity, pursuant of the privisions of the conflictation, or any act of assembly of this state, or shall be draft. or called out by authority of the United States, pursuant to the conflictation and laws thereof, every officer, non-commissioned officer and private, of the militial so called into fervice, after being thuly notified of such draft or call, shall be considered as in sound fervice and, may be of compavies, and by the tries of duty ger formed by performs belonging to the regiment or battalion.

51 And be it enafted. That whenever any call of the militia into adual fervice shall be made, the number required from each company, that be taken from the first and preceding classes in numerical order, till the requisite number shall be completed, and those so taken shall be completed, and those so taken shall be forthwith returned by the commanding officer of the company to the company to the commanding officer of the company to the company t which commanding oncers is an analysis of this time full first and alies bodied, whether liable to militia duly on not, that accept this, and difebarge the person offering him as a forest provided, that no person ferving as a substitute shall thereby be excused from, or have credit for, a tour of duty on his own fo hiring him, with interest from the eime of payment.

of hiring him, with interest from the eime of payment.

of And be it enacted. That in all cales where any part or payes of the fullitia of thirs state have been, or shall be drasted for the fervice of the United States, the commander in chief of the militia of this state shall be and hereby a authorised and empreyment in feet. hereby is authorifed and empowered; to felect and affign from among the militia officers of the stare at large, then in commission, all grant any part of the necessary officers to command, the militia fo drafted, at his difference, or to the militia fo drafted, at his difference, or to become officers for the faid command, in whole or in part, as he may deem most conductive to the good of the fervice, which beover condmissions shall remain in force during the ferrit for which such militia shall have been and drafted, and no longer.

52. And be it enacled. That whenever any part of the militia of this state shall be called, into actual service, under the authority of the state or of the United States, the officer of the flate or of the United States, the officer of the thorised and empowered, to confolidate and re-organize such part of the faid militia. as, may be so called out and placed under his commay be so called out and placed under his com-mand, whether infantry, cavalry artiflery of riffenen, in such manner as to form them in-to companies, troops, battalions, fquadrons, regiments and brigades, as the cafe may be, with the proper division, brigade and regi-mental flaffs, and the full and proper comple-ment of cificers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, according to the feveduring the term of fuch fervice; and pro-vided alfo, that officers of volunteer compa-nies, bartalions, fquadrons and regiments, that mands, so far as may be found necessary for making up the proper complement of officers of each grade in confolidating and re-organizing the companies, troops, battalions, squadrons and regiments as aforefaid, and no further.

63. And be it emacted. That whenever any part of the militia of this state, to be commanded by a major general, shall be called into actual service, either under the authority of this state, or the United States, the general affigued, as by this act is provided, to the command of such corps, shall be and hereby is anotherised and empowered to organize an ordinance department, and topographical engineers department, for sorb corps, during the term of service for which it may have becaused out, to brevet the proper officers of those departments, and to prescribe their duties respectively, which duties, so prescribed, they are hereby required and enjoined respectively to perform, and shall have the rank, pay and emoluments of similar officers in the service of the U States.

and emoluments of fimilar officers in the fervice of the U States 64. And be it emacted, That in case of invasion, or threatened invasion, of any part of this state, the general of the militia commanding the division or brigade within which such an invasion shall take place, or be threatened, in case he shall judge it dangerous to wait till application for arms, ammunitions stores, ordnance, ordnance stores, camp equipage of supplies, can be made to the commander in chief, shall be and hereby is unitorised and empowered, to draw from the nearest public stores, arsenals, magazines, or other depositories of this state, all such arms, ammunitod, stores, ordnance, ordnance, sorense, stores, politories of this state, all such arms, ammu-nition, stores, ordinance, ordinance. Stores, camp equipage, and Sopplies of every kind for the use of the militia called, or to be called into-fervice, the repelling such impassion, as be may judge proper, and for that purpose to li-sue his brider or orders to the retriective officers, or other persons, baving in their kerssing summunitien, stores, ordinance, ordinance stores, camp equipage and supplies, which ar-ders such officers, or other persons, are berein-required to obey.

jenuired to obey.

Of And be it enacted. That the carples of the militae of this fixe that he and hereby reduced to one squadron for each being of whi quantity. It that not be periodical to care except in the city and precedes of Battago