

This is to give notice,
That the subscriber hath obtained letters of administration on the personal estate of John Watkins, of Stephen, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the twenty-fifth day of May next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 24th day of October, 1815.
Those who purchased at the sale of the deceased's property, are notified that their notes were due on the 25th day of October, instant, and if they are not paid by the 10th of Nov. next they after that day, will be put in the hands of Mr. Shaw, my attorney, to be dealt with as the law directs.
Nicholas Watkins, of Thos. Adm. of John Watkins of Stephen.

Land for Sale.
The subscriber will offer at public sale, on Saturday the 18th day of November next, on the premises, a Tract or parcel of Land containing about 131 1/2 acres situated in Anne Arundel County, near the Mouth of Magotho river, and within six miles of Annapolis, and twenty-five from Baltimore. This land is productive of Indian Corn, Rye, and market stuff, especially Melons, also the advantage of a good spring. For further particulars, such as are disposed to purchase may obtain by viewing the premises previous to the day of sale. The terms of sale will be made known on the day of sale. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.
Sarah Watts.

Land and Negroes FOR SALE.
By virtue of a decree of the high Court of Chancery of Maryland, will be exposed to public sale, on Tuesday the 28th day of November, 1815, at the late residence of Joshua C. Higgins, (deceased) part of two tracts of land called "White Hall" and "What you Will" supposed to contain 500 acres of land, and which was devised to Joshua C. Higgins by the last will and Testament of his father Richard Higgins. This land is situated in Ann Arundel county, on the head of South River, and esteemed one of the best farms in the County, for the growth of Tobacco, Wheat, Indian Corn and Clover. The improvements are a large and commodious dwelling house, and negro quarters, two large Tobacco houses, and other convenient out houses. There is on said farm about 40 acres of good meadow, which yields abundantly, and more can be made with little expense. Perhaps but few places has a more choice collection of fruit trees of every kind. At the same time and place will be sold a number of

VALUABLE NEGROES.
Consisting of men, women and children Ten of them able bodied men, under the best character. The above property will be sold on a credit of six months for the land, and a credit of six months for the personal property. The purchasers to give bond, with approved security, bearing interest to the day of sale.
Philip Hammond, Trustee.

N. B. The sale of the personal property of Joshua C. Higgins as heretofore advertised by order of the Orphans Court, to take place on the 15th of November, is postponed until the 28th of November, at the same time & place.
P. H.

N. B. The Editors of the Telegraph will insert the above twice a week till the day of sale, and alter the time of sale in the other advertisement.

Higgins, a part of the personal property of said deceased, consisting of horses, cattle, sheep and hogs; plantation utensils, and household furniture; several young negroes, principally women and children. The above property will be sold on a credit of six months for all sums over twenty dollars, all sums under, the cash to be paid. Bond and security will be required of all purchasers, bearing interest from the day of sale. The sale to commence at 11 o'clock, and continue from day to day until all is sold.
Philip Hammond, sen. administrator.

Chancery Sale.
By virtue of a decree of the chancery court of Maryland, the subscriber will expose to public sale, at the residence of John H. Brown at Mount Calvert, about five miles below Upper Marlboro in Prince George's county, on Friday the 10th of November next. Two valuable negro men, several working mules and oxen. Terms of sale cash, to be paid on the day of sale, or on the ratification thereof by the chancery. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.
Louis Cassaway, Trustee.

William Duval,
Respectfully informs his friends and the public in general, that he has commenced business on the wharf in the house formerly occupied by Mr. William Caton, where he offers for sale an

Assortment of Groceries
of the best quality. Among which are Teas, Sugars, Coffee, Chocolate; and a variety of articles suitable for family use.
Also, he keeps a supply of Bottled Porter and Strong Beer, and Cider in their season, and hopes to share in public patronage.
Persons indebted to him on the estate of Francis Tucker, are once more requested to come forward and settle their accounts—Further delay will be attended with the law.
Annapolis, Sept 28, 1815.

Woodford Farm.
The subscriber will sell at private sale, that valuable farm in Anne Arundel county, about six miles from Elliott's Mills, and sixteen from the city of Baltimore, containing upwards of nine hundred acres. This land is within a mile of Col. John E. Howard's farm. The soil of Woodford is not inferior to any in the state of Maryland, and upon no land does plaster operate more effectually. A large proportion of this tract is heavily timbered, and much of the cleared land highly cultivated with clover and plaster. The short distance from Elliott's Mills affords a ready market for the sale of all kinds of grain, &c. The subscriber will receive United States Stock, or Stock in any of the Banks in Baltimore, in payment for the purchase money. Any person wishing to purchase, can view the land by applying to the manager, Mr. Thomas Anderson, and applications of purchasers will be received by Colonel John E. Howard, in Baltimore. And the subscriber living in the city of Annapolis.
Wm. H. Marriot.

St. John's College.
The Visitors of this institution have the satisfaction of informing the public, that it has recently been revived under the superintendance of Dr. John M'Dowell, formerly Principal of this Seminary, and late Provost of the University of Pennsylvania. It will be the particular province of this gentleman to instruct the students in the various branches of Philosophy and Science. He will enter on the duties of his station in the last week of the present month, and in the meantime the progress of the young gentlemen, in the studies which he is to direct, will not be materially retarded, as the Professor of Languages, (the Rev. Mr. Allen of Trinity College, Dublin) is also well qualified to teach in the other department. Mr. Allen resides in the College, and will take boarders at 140 dollars per annum, payable quarterly, each student furnishing himself with bedding. The price of tuition is ten dollars per quarter; thus the whole expense, including washing, &c. does not exceed $180 per annum. The visitors confidently trust, that under the care of these Professors, St. John's will speedily regain its former celebrity.
Samuel Ridout, Secry.

To be Rented,
That commodious and spacious building on Church Street, formerly occupied by the late Mrs. Davidson as a boarding house. For terms apply at this office.
Oct. 12 1815.

Billiard Table.
JAMES PROSPER, respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has lately had his Billiard Table, at Caton's City Hotel, put in complete order, and solicits a continuance of that custom which he has heretofore received. He assures those who patronize him, that the most unremitting exertions will be used to render him deserving their favours.
