quarrel among his fellow soldiers, officer present, until the company is disnissed, and shall be fined, at the discretion of the company court | sufficient. martial, in any sam not exceeding twenty dollars, nor less than two dollars; provided, that if on field days any non-commissioned officer, private or musician, shall use any reproachful or insulting language to the commanding officer, opposi his orders, or promote an opposi tion to such orders among his fel low soldiers he shall be tried by court martial, chosen by the con manding officer, consisting of the commissioned officers attached the regiment or extra battalion which such offender or offend belong, and he or they shall be ! ed, at the discretion of said co in a sum not exceeding one ! dred dollars nor less than two lars. Article 2d. If the comman officer of any regiment, batt or extra battalion shall negle refuse to give orders for assem his regiment, battalion or a battalion, at the times which be appointed under this act, . direction of the inspector of brigade to which he belongs, the inspector is thereto comme by his commanding officer; / case of an invasion, or threa invasion, or insurrection, or the ened insurrection, of the state in, he shall be cashiered, or five hundred dollars, at the d tion of a brigade court ma and if the commanding offic any company shall on any sucasion neglect or refuse to gi ders for assembling the compa which he belongs, or any thereof, at the direction of the manding officer of the reg battalion or extra battalio which such company belong shall be cashiered, or punished fine not exceeding one he dollars, at the discretion of a mental court martial: and a commissioned officer offendi such case shall be fined at th cretion of a company court-i in any sum not exceeding t

Art. 3d. If any captain o manding officer of a company refuse or neglect to make a the persons notified to perform the same to the commanding of the regiment, or extra ba to which such company may for such neglect or refusal l be cashiered, or fined at the tion of a regimental court r a sum not exceeding one h dollars nor less than five dol

Art. 4th. Every general martial shall consist of m than five nor more than t members, one of whom a shall be a general officer, ar under the grade of a field of Art. 5th. Every division martial shall consist of no than five nor more than t members, two thirds of wh least shall be field officers. Art. 6th. Every brigado!

martial shall consist of ne than five, not more than th members, at least one third of shall be field offrers. Art. 7th. Every court martial shall be compe not less than three or more seven commissioned oficers. Art. 8th. Every extra ba court-martial shall consist less than three nor more than commissioned officers.

Art. 9th. Every company court martial shall be composed of ene subaltern officer, one non-commissloned officer and one private, to be appointed by the commanding officer of the company, and in case there should be no subaltern or non commissioned officer attached to said .company, then the captain shall apply to the commanding officer of the battalion, regiment, or extra battalion, to which he may be attached, who shall, within ten days after such application, order a commissioned or non-commissioned officer, or both, as the case may require, of a neighboring company, to repair to a convenient place designated by the captain, in whose district the delinquent resides, who shall then and there hold a courtmartial in the same manner as if they were attached to said compa-

Art. 10th. In every court-martial, except company courts-martial, a majority of the members appointed on the court shall be suffi cient to form a morning, and in cv. Judge advocatorest in officers, or any of them, or shall rery company, or other court-mar- Art. 17th. The militia on any quarret bimself, or promote any day, not less than two-thirds of the day of exercise may be detained the may be disarmed, and put under tence for inflicting any penalty, guard, by order of the commanding otherwise the person charged shall be acquitted, except in case of fines, where a majority shall be Ast, 11th. The president of each 16, And be it enacted, That any

Art, 17th, The militia on any under arms in the field any time not exceeding six hours; provided they are not kept above three hours under arms at any one time without allowing them proper time to refresh themselves.

at the discretion of a breade court- | call such |d so martial; and the major of commanding officers of battalons, or commanding officers of battalons, shall within too days thereafter, annually, cause a shall deem out converted to the given to the captains, or commanding officers of tains, or commanding officers of tains to attend at each pice, and to cause the said-officers. The street of the captain to attend at each pice, and to cause the said-officers. companies, under the penalty of a cause the anidofficers, and to sum not exceeding fifty dollars, at semuled, to by trained an justract plane to the comminuming officer or the regiment, or if an artillerist, to the brigadier general, or commanding officer of his brigade, who on finding that the person com-plained of has violated this law, shall summon a regimental court martial for doing justice according to the nature of the case.

Art. 16. That every general court-martial shall be appointed by the commander in chief; every division court-martial by the commanding officer of the division; every brigade court-martial by the commanding officer of the brigade; every regimental court-martial by the commanding officer of the regiment; every extra battalion courtmartial by the commanding officer of the extra battalion; and every company court-martial by the commanding officer of the company, ex cept in the case stated in the ninth article; and the commanding officer appointing any court-martial shall appoint the president thereof; and except in case of company courts-which he belongs, ofe days so appointed, at least foldays previous thereto; which is, when so appointed, shall confe to be the days of meeting of regiments and battalions annu, unless otherwise ordered be brigadier or commanding off of the brigade; and if any tide inspector shall neglect to gifhe notice aforesaid to the confiding officers of regiments and of battalions, or shall neglect to ad the several regimental and expattalion meetings, as by this as directed, or if attending, sheail to inspect the same, and mereport thereof, as directed by themanding officer of the brigatic shall for every such neglete fined a sum not more than quadred dollars, at the discretiona brigade courtmartial; and commanding officers of regire, shall, within eight days differ, annually, cause a like is to be given to the majors or manding officers soluted on the court shall be suff martial; a suitable person to act as of battalions, or the penalty of cert to form a morning, and in cr. judge advocate rest is person and it sufficiently dollars, sicism of private, being duly notified carrying himbefore some justice of the cer is the dable to militia duty, and falling to 1 mm, appoint, the delinquent and attend any of the said meetings af- linquents being duly notified to at ter duo notice thereof, without some sufficient excuse, shall be proceeded against by a court-martial, and fined or otherwise punished, in tively; and in case any delinquent, the same manner as is or may be provided by law, for neglect or refusal to attend at any of the meetings now appointed or authorised by law, for the training and exercise of the militia, and in case of officers may also be proceeded a-gainst as fer disobedience to orders; and the officers attending shall respectively instruct, train and discipline, the troops under their command, in person, each performing the duties of his station, on pain, in case of neglect or refusal, of be-

and empowered to, appoint and pear before the said court-martial to answer the charge or charges als leged against him, or them respecbeing duly notified of the time and place of inceting of any such courtmartial, shall refuse or neglect attend, the said court-martial is authorised and empowered to proceed to the trial of such delinquent in the same manner, as if he were officer removing out of the district of his regiment, or extra battation. or if a field officer or major general, or brigadier-general, but of list in case of neglect or refusal, of being proceeded against by arrest and court-martial, as for disobedicuce of orders.

22. And be it enacted. That during the continuance of the present war the generals commanding divisions of the militia of this states shall be, and bereby are authorised and empowered to, appoint and

Por remainder set buzelle the commandin ment or extra b -martial, for fusal'so to do; of the comm regiment and fare the thirty aber next, and st day of Decer ery year thereas of all such pe ms of money by ption from n this act, to his hand, and deliver to the e. another to eds, and the th sheriff of the sons reside; of the sever e to collect all from the per are respectiv when collect unt for with, treasurer of th have been co 88. And be it ry sheriff to who iforesaid, or o ines or sums o e of this act. it be same time. mission on th may be provide

is district exemp

inder the prov

collected of maintai ond of such on of the field ent or extra -annually sul ers of his regi lymister as alances rema hen demanded e, or by the receive the sar ithfully dischar 91. And be it the militia ent directed, ther r each battalio my of grenad ght infantry, a pay of artillery amissioned of matrosses of ished with a ernor and d the state, in t as in this act p

92. And be i on strest charges pr tial, shall b thal neglect of he duties of h