From the Italian-by Mrs. Radeliffe "Call up the Spirit of Ocean! Bid him raise the storm! the wayes begin to heave, to curl, to foam - The white surges run far upon the darkening waters, and mighty sounds of strife are heard! Wrapt in the midnight of the clouds sits Terror meditating woo .-Her doubtful form appears and fades, like the shadow of death when it min gles with the gloom of the sepulchre, and broods in lonely silence. Her spirits are abroad—they do her bidding. Hark to the shricks the echoes of the shores have heard.

(VERSIFIED.) Spirits of the stormy deep!
In your caves no longer sleep;
Bid the slumbering billows roar,
And the winds be still no more! Hark! the dreadful voice they hear! It forebodes the tempest near; Starting at the threat'ning sound, The dark blue waves roll wild around Loud on the craggy rocks they beat, Now rise, now fall, now part, now meet The foaming surges mounting high, Far on the darkening waters fly And while the storm increases fast, Borne distant on the howling blast, Dread sounds commingled chill the waves.

And louder still grim horror raves. Wrapt in the midnight of the cloud, Conceal'd within her sable shroud, Sits TERROR, meditating woe, In awful accents muttering low! Now dim her doubtful form appears, While shuddering nature starts & fears! Now fades along the darksome gloom. Like shadows o'er the dead man's tomb, When mingling with the awe profound, they watch, in silent state around. Her Spirits, on the midnight air, To do he, dreas commands prepare— While echo, to the farthest shore, Bears on the gale the thundering roar

> From a late London paper. THE BIBLE.

A nation must be truly blessed, if it were governed by no other laws, than those of this blessed book; it is so complete a system, that nothing can be added to it, or taken from it; it contains every thing needful to be known or done; it gives instruction and counsel to a senate; authority and direction for a magistrate; it cautions a witness; requires an impartial verdict of a jury, and furnishes the judge with his sentence; it sets the husband as lord of the household, and the wife as mistress of the family, tells him how to rule, and her how to m. ... go . It entails honour to parents, and enjoins obedience to children. It prescribes and limits the sway of the sovereign, the rule of the ruler, and authority of the master; commands the subject to honour, and the servants to obey; and promises the blessings and protection of its AUTHOR, to all that walk by its rules; it promises food and raiment, and limits the use of both. It points out a faithful and Eternal Guardian to the departing husband and father; tells him with whom to leave his fatherless children, and in whom his widow is to trust. Jeremiah xlix. 11. It teaches a man how to set his house in order, and how to make his will: It defends the rights of all; and reveals vengeance to every defrauder, over-reacher, and oppressor. It is the first book; the best book; and the oldest book in the world; it contains the choicest matter; gives the best instruction; and affords the greatest pleasure and satisfaction that ever was revealed: It contains the best of laws, and most profound mysteries that ever was penned: It brings the best tidings. and affords the best of comfort to the inquiring and disconsolate: It exhibits life and immortality from everlasting, and shews the way to glory: It is a brief recital of all that is past, and a certain prediction of all that is to come: It settles all matters in debate, resolves all doubts, and eases the mind and conscience of all their scruples: It reveals the only living and true GOD, and shows the way to him; and sets aside all other gods, and describes the vanity of them, and all that trust in them : In short it is a book of laws, to shew the right and wrong; a book of wisdom that condemns all folly, and makes the foolish wise; a book of truth that detects all lies, and confutes all errors; and a book of life, that shews the way from everlasting death. It is the most compendious book in all the world, the most authentic, and the most intertaining history that ever was published. It contains the most ancient antiquitirs, strange events, wonderful oc-currences, heroic deeds, unparallel-ed wars: It describes the celestial, terrestrial, and eternal worlds; and the origin of the angelic myriads, human tribes, and devlish legions: It will instruct the most accomplished mechanic, and the most profound artist : It will teach the best rhetorician, and exercise every power of the most skilful arithmetician ; Revelations xiii. 18, puzzie the wisest anatomist, and exercise the nicest critic: It corrects the vain philosopher, and confutes the wisest astronomer: It exposes the subtle sophist, and makes diviners mad: It is a complete code of laws, a perfect body of divinity, an unequalled narrative; a book of lives, a book of travels, and a book of voyages: It is the best covenant that ever was agreed on, the best deed that ever was sealed, the best evidence that ever was produced, the best will that ever was made, and the best testament that ever was signed. To understand it, is to be wise indeed; to be ignorant of it, is to be destitute of wisdom. It is the magistrate's best rule, the housewife's best guide; the servant's best directory, and the young man's best companion: It is the school-boy's spelling book, and the learned man's master piece : 1: contains a choice grammar for a novice, and a profound mystery for a sage: It is the ignorant man's dictionary, and the wise man's directory: It encourages the wise, and promises an eternal reward to the excellent. And that which crowns all is, that the AUTHOR is without partiality and without hypocrisy, . IN WHOM IS NO VARI ABLENESS OR SHADOW OF TURN

Land for Sale.

Will be offered at Public Sale, on the premises, by the subscriber, on Monday the 18th day of March next, a valuable Tract of Land, containing about 670 acres, 230 of which are in wood of the most useful kinds, lying in Frederick county, Maryland, 12 miles from Frederick-town, 212 miles from Liberty-town, and 3 miles from Woodsbury. This land is situated on the head waters of Israel's Creek, is uncommonly well watered from never failing springs of excellent water, and has two considerable streams passing through it; the soil is good, and re-markably well suited to the use of plaister of Paris, and red clover-the soil is of the blue slate kind, which has been found in the adjoining farms, where plaister of Paris and clover have been used, to improve and yield profitable crops. It is distant from the city of Baltimore 40 miles, bor-dering on the road leading from thence to Woodsbury, and adjoining to Stevenson's Copper Mine. On this land there are great appearances of rich copper ore; and in addition to the many advantages it possesses, it is considered to be in a part of the country remarkable for good health. The im provements on this property consist of two farms, with tolerable wooden buildings, apple orchards and some meadow , and about 440 acres of cleared land between the two farms. The terms of sale will be one third of the purchase money in hand, and the balance in three or four equal annual payments, on bond with approved security. Any person who may call to view said property will be shewn the same by Capt. Philip Smith living on it.
