which by Col. John A. Hanson, M. D. He was most warmly supported.

There were eighty-one members in the legislative body, and as there were only forty-five in the house, it was necessary to have a quorum.

Be it remembered, that out of all the members in the House of Representatives from the State of Maryland, one was the fifteen hundred dollar law.

When the bill for the fifteen hundred dollar law passed through both houses, it was the President, when it had not become a law.

Democracy Corruption, Bribery, and Blue Lights. It has often been said, that the democrats of Kent county had introduced into it, in the course of the last winter, a number of men from Queen-Anna's, and other neighbouring places, with a view to smother the voice of the legal voters of that county, and secure the choice of men of their own political creed.

COMMUNICATED. On Wednesday last the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Maryland commenced its session in this city.

For the Maryland Gazette. TO THE PEOPLE OF MARYLAND. Having seen, by reading some late numbers of a paper called the People's Advocate, (which, from its many falsehoods and abusive language, may be considered the forlorn hope of the democratic party in this state.) that those advocates of the rights of the people consider the transferring voters to the city of Annapolis as a "conspiracy, a daring outrage" against the rights of the citizens and the purity of elections!

BENJAMIN HOWARD. June 8th, 1816. On the second day of December, when in Chester town for the purpose of taking out a license for the sloop David Porter, I had occasion to pass thro' the passage of the tavern, then kept by Captain Campbell, and in passing the left hand front room, two men were standing near the door way, and appeared to be somewhat in liquor; they were exulting in the idea of giving the federalists a complete defeat in Kent county at the ensuing election; observing that they had already got fifteen men into the Upper District, and that they should give the feds a complete dressing," or words to that effect.

RICHARD I. JONES. May 6th, 1816. It is certain that a meeting did take place in December, a season of the year in which it was unusual to hold political meetings in this county; and it appears from Mr. Jones's certificate that the goodly work of bringing in voters had already commenced.

WILLIAM GRAVES. I certify, that in the course of a conversation held with Captain Frederick Wilson, in Mr. John Wallis jun. counting house, in the city of Baltimore, in the latter part of the month of March, or first of April last past, on the subject of introducing voters into Kent county, he admitted that they (the democrats) had done so, but had effected it in rather a more decent manner than the federalists, having got them there, and employed them as overseers; and that their opponents, had got them in and boarded them without giving them employment.

JONATHAN H. FALCONAR. I hereby certify, that on the 23d of February 1816, I was in company with Mr. Thomas Selway, who resided in Queen-Anna's county last year, and who has been in the employment of Mr. James Harris, a cart-wright, of Kent county, since some time in January last.

JAMES MASSEY. Kent County, to wit: Personally appears John Turner, of Kent county, before me the subscriber, one of the Justices of the peace of the State of Maryland for the county aforesaid, on this twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and sixteen, and makes oath on the Holy Evangelical of Almighty God, that Thomas Taylor, late of Queen Anne's county, now lives at one of Mr. Unit Angier's farms in Kent county.

HUGH MAGUIRE. This Mr. William Chambers is the identical gentleman, who was appointed, for the violence of his politics, treasurer on the Eastern Shore; and who is very willing to hold the office again, just for the good of the people and so he is a good patriot.

WILLIAM SIMPSON. I hereby certify, that sometime about the first of January last, on my way from Chester town, I fell in company with a young man whose name I believe was Taylor; I enquired how far he had been riding; he informed me he had been as far as Mr. Unit Angier's, and that he was about to live with him; that Mr. Angier wanted ten or a dozen young men to come to Kent, and he would find them employment, but they must be democrats; upon my bantering him on the subject he acknowledged the object was to secure the election.— Given under my hand this 10th day of May, 1816.

their declarations it has been proved that the democrats transferred men to Kent, and with the view of securing the election: Much more proof of the like kind can be procured. Some material facts are expected, and will be published in a short time.

The federalists of Kent thus becoming acquainted with the schemes of democracy to silence and overthrow the fair expression of the will of the people, thought it most advisable to resort to similar measures as the only probable means of counteracting this new kind of policy. And now it appears that the democrats' grieved by their disappointment and mortification produced by the failure of their plans, have had the effrontery to call that bribery and corruption of which they are the original authors and perpetrators; and to the ingenuity of which they are exclusively and fairly entitled. It will now be seen what regard they entertain for the opinions of the people, how sacred they esteem the purity of elections, and how zealously they maintain the cause of justice and of truth. Their hypocrisy is as bare as it is shameful.

The following certificate proves that the practice of importing voters into federal counties was commenced by the democrats as early as the year 1813.

I do hereby certify, that sometime in the year of 1813, I happened at Centerville, where I met with Mr. William Chambers, who supposing, as I imagine, that I was a democrat, from the circumstance of my being an Irishman, and the principal of Washington College, (a majority of the trustees of which institution were of that political sect,) entered into conversation with me upon the subject of the approaching election. He remarked, that the democrats had established the factory in Chester town with a view to secure the election in Kent, and had brought in democrats from Queen-Anna's to assist in their plan, and that he was satisfied that a sufficient number would be introduced to answer the purpose. Given under my hand, in the city of Baltimore, this 11th day of June, 1816.
