PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY JONAS GREEN, CORNER-STREET, ANNAPOLIS. Price—Three Dollars per Annum.

Notice is hereby given, That the subscriber has obtained from the orphan's court of Calvert county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of William Weems late of Anne Arundel county, deceased; all persons having claims against the said deceased are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, to the subscriber, near Tracy's Landing, on or before the 24th day of April next, they otherwise by law be excluded from the benefit of the said estate, and those who are indebted to the said estate, are warned to make immediate payment, to pay visits, or rather leave cards at the doors of friends, never to be absent in the crowd of assemblies, go to the shops, see lights or candles in Bond-street, an ugly, inconvenient street the attractions of which it is difficult to understand. At six or six, they return home to dine for dinner. The streets are lighted from one end to the other or rather edged on either side with two lines of little bright gas indicative of light, but yielding fact very little; these are the lamps. They are not suspended in the middle of the streets as at Paris, but fixed on Irons eight or nine feet high ranged along the houses. The want of reflectors is probably the cause of their giving so little light. From six to eight the noise of the wheels increase; it is the dinner hour. A multitude of carriages with two eyes of flame staring in the dark before each of them, shake the pavement and very houses, following and crossing one another at full speed. Stopping suddenly, a footman jumps down, runs to the door, and lifts the heavy knocker, gives a great knock, and smaller ones in quick succession, then with all his might flourishing as on a drum, with a cart and air, and a touch, which denote the quality, the rank, and the fortune of his master.
