

PORTS CORNER

TO A FRIEND.

Forgive us our Debts, as we forgive our Debtors.

Best is that disposition, mild and even,
Which ne'er offends, nor needs to be forgiven;
Unswayed by Pride, by passion never wrought
To stray from duty or by word or thought!

Yet say, can mortals hope below to find,
A blameless virtue, an unerring mind;
A spotless character a perfect life,
Estranged from error, and exempt from strife?

Al! no; Experience tells us 'tis in vain
To hope on earth Perfection's holy reign,
For, far beyond this wild, this barren waste,
In distant skies her sacred dwelling's placed.

Where Spirits pure enjoy a long abode
Of ceaseless bliss, "fast by the throne of God!"

But here, though frailty be the lot of man,
The CHRISTIAN still will do what good he can;
Aware his best endeavours vain will prove
To pay his MAKER half his debt of love;
Yet he gives ALL, and still performs his best,
In hope that Mercy will forgive the rest!

And must we all, at last, depend on Heaven,
To leave our faults and numerous sins forgiven;
And should we cherish proud resentments long
Against those who injure us, and do us wrong?

Rather in me be that benevolence found
Which loves to pardon, and which hates to wound,
Which looks on others' deeds with kindly eye,
And feels how good are they, how weak am I;
For we no mercy can from heaven receive,
Unless our foes we pity and forgive!

Pard'ner of Sin! we humbly look to thee
To keep our hearts from stubborn passions free;
Teach us our own and others' wants to know,
And thy forgiving love on all our faults bestow!

By His Excellency Charles Ridgely of Hampton, Esquire, Governor of Maryland.

20 Dollars Reward.

The above reward will be paid for lodging in gaol, or bringing home negro Sophia, a bright mulatto woman, about eighteen years old, well grown, she has large grey eyes, and her hair rather light. The above woman ran away from Col. Waring of Mount Pleasant, about the 15th June, (of whom I purchased her) She has been heard of in the neighbourhood of Mr. William Tillard's near Big Point, where it is supposed she has been waiting to get a passage in the packet to Baltimore. She has acquaintances in Baltimore, Washington, Annapolis, and Norfolk. Her clothing not recollected, excepting a green stuff frock.

100 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber on the 23th of August last, negro Sam Butler, or as he is sometimes called, Sam Dorgan. He was raised the property of Nicholas Carroll, esq. late of the city of Annapolis, and sold to a Mr. Geo. Howard of Baltimore, from whom I purchased him. Sam is about 30 years of age, 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches high, slender made, narrow between the shoulders, rather of a yellowish color—and long face. His under jaw rather longer than the upper one, and eyes having considerable white in them. His feet are ill shaped with large lumps on the inside of them, by some called the pudling or gut foot. He makes some pretensions to religion—but being an uncommon liar, may be easily detected on this head. Is a great coward. It is quite likely he has obtained a pass, but without the county seal I should suppose this would have no weight; his clothing was country tow linen shirts and trousers, and a long snuff colored cloth coat. It is expected he is lurking about the city of Baltimore, or at the farm of Mr. George Howard, about 13 miles from the city of Baltimore, or at the farm of Nicholas Carroll, esq. called the Caves, or in the neighborhood of the lower ferry, on South River. If said negro is apprehended and brought home to me, the above reward will be given. All persons are strictly forewarned harboring or employing the above negro, at their peril.

Edward Williams,

N. B. Sam has a free wife, her name is Sarah. She possesses some real property near Annapolis. If he returns home without running me to a further cost, and behaves himself in future, his conduct will be looked over.

He has a down look, when spoken to.
