I will sell my farm, containing between 4 and 500 acres, on the Patuxent river, between Battle and Island creeks, in Calvert county; well adapted to the staple products of Maryland; abounding in rail timber and fire wood; having an excellent orchard of choice fruits thereon. The building being commodious and convenient; fish, oysters, & wild fowl, to be had abundantly in their seasons, at the very door. I will exchange for a very small farm, in any of the upper counties on the western shore. As it is presumed that those inclined to purchase, or exchange, will view the premises, I deem it needless to enter more into detail. Letters on the subject will not be attended to, as I wish persons disposed to bargain with me to examine my land, and form their opinions from a view thereof, and not from any representation of mine.

FOREIGN NEWS.

New-York, April 26. FROM CALCUTTA.

We learn from capt. Loring of the ship Mentor, in 110 days from Calcutta, that a French governor had arrived there, and received possession of Chornaidagore, the former French settlement, thirty miles above Calcutta. Pondicherry, on the Coromandel coast, had also been delivered to the French authorities; but the territory ceded to those places scarcely exceeded the diameter of three miles, where the English have established such a line of donaniers, that the French possessions of the east are, comparatively speaking, of nominal value, on account of every article imported into them, or exported from them, being subject to the English Company duties. Capt. Loring passed St. Helena at sunrise, on the 8th March. The forbidding aspect of the Island (6 miles distant) was all that presented itself, there being no vessel in sight.

The Portuguese ship Marquis Arrenjo, from Lisbon, arrived at Calcutta in December last, with about 1,200,000 dollars in treasure.

VERY LATE FROM LONDON.

Capt Dowdall, of the ship Chauncey, arrived within the Hook last evening, has favored the editors of the Gazette with London papers to the 20th and Bristol to the 21st ult. The only articles of importance follow:

Four persons were arrested last Sunday at Manchester, and arrived in town last night in the custody of two King's Messengers, and were committed to prison. Courier.

March 15.

Upon the fullest consideration of the applications for stopping the distillation of spirits from grain in Ireland, his Majesty's Ministers have determined to refrain from that measure, being satisfied that it would create a very trifling saving of grain used by the lawful distiller, his stock being nearly complete, but that it would afford the greatest encouragement to illicit distillations and the frauds of smuggling.—ib.

March 17.

By the papers from Manchester and Macclesfield, we are happy to find that every thing remains quiet, and that of the deluded persons who had set out to proceed to London, few, if any, have prosecuted their journey farther than Leek and Ashbourne. The larger part have been prevailed upon to return "repentant to their homes."

Macclesfield, March 15.

Of the 20,000 assembled in the morning, at Manchester, the residue of about 1000 remained on the road for London; they were dispersed by the military.

London, March 19.

Our Wheat trade was rather heavy this morning—yet what sales were made of fine qualities were at Monday's prices.

March 20.

The funds are one half per cent. higher this morning. Consols for account 70 1-2.

Official information was received in Glasgow yesterday, that the Lords of the Treasury intend to submit to Parliament a Bill to suspend, until the 5th April, 1818, the duties payable on the importation of rice and Indian corn. Instructions have therefore been given to the proper officers to permit the importation of these articles, duty free, for home consumption, until the pleasure of parliament shall be known. The duty on rice is 20s. 1-4d.

At Glasgow, on the 11th & 12th of March, fourteen persons were arrested and committed to goal by the sheriff, accused of treasonable practices.
