On Friday last the Members of the Pennsylvania State Spiciety of the Gincinnati paid their respects to the President of the U. States; and presented the following ad-

TO JAMES MONROE, PRESIDERT OF THE UNITED STATES.

Embracing the occasion which our attention, as Chief Magistrate, o the Military defences of the Da nited States, has afforded, it is with peculiar pleasure that the Members of the Pennsylvania Society of the Cincinnatti, a portion of the surates in arms during the war of the revolution, approach to renew their. personal intercourse; and to assure you of their cordial support to the firm and impartial administration of the government; which, by combining in its measures domestic, tranquility with the respect of foreign nations, they confidently anticipate, will promote the best interests of the United States, ensure to our citizens the advantages of social harmony and individual happi-

That you may participate those blessings and enjoy the grateful esteem of a happy people, is the sin-cere wish of

Your faithful friends, And respectful Fellow Citizens Signed by order, and by the unanimous vote of D. LENOX, President.

Hor. Binney, Secretary. Philadelphia, June 6, 1817.

THE PRESIDENT'S ANSWER. To the Members of the Pennsylvania Society of the Cincinnati.

Fellow-Citizens, In attending to the naval and military defence of the United States, nothing can be more grativiving members of my associates in arms, who distinguished themselves in our revolutionary contest. Ican never forget the dangers of that great epoch, nor be indifferent to the merit of those who partook in them. To promote tranquility at home, espect abroad, by a firm and impartial administration, are among the highest duties of the Chief Magistrate of the United States. Toacquit myself in the discharge of these duties, with advantage to my fellow citizens, will be the undeviating object of my zealous exertions. Their approbation will be the highest recompense which I can receive.

JAMES MONROE.
Philadelphia, June 6, 1817.

From the Trenton True American of Monday June 9.

On Saturday evening, a little after sunset, the President, accompanied by Gen. Swift, chief of Engineers, Mr. Ingersoll, District Atorney for Pennsylvania, and Mr. Mason, his private secretary, reached the Delaware bridge below this, city, where the municipal authorities, the volunteer companies of Trenton, commanded by captain Rossell, and a large concourse of citizens were awaiting him. His arrival was announced by a piece of artill ry, under the direction of captain Yard, and by the ringing of bells. He was conducted by the military escort to Anderson's tavern; where a feu de fole was fired. The Mayor, Mr. M'Neply, the Recorder, Mr. Ch. Ewing and Alderman Broadhuste. Taylor and Smith. men Broadburse, Taylor and Smith, were numediately presented to him, when the Recorder made him the following extempore address :

The Mayor and City Council, & through us, the citizens of Tren-ton, present to you, Sir, their most unfeigned respects—congratulate you on your arrival, and give you a most cordial welcome to this city, the scene, Sir, of some of the services you have rendered our country.
