A FEW COPIES OF THE LAWS OF MARYLAND, PASSED DECEMBER SESSION 1816.

Petition of Joseph Sands, Sarah Sands, Ann Sands, Joseph Sands jr. and John Sands.

To the honourable Judges of the Circuit Court of the District of Columbia for the county of Washington. The petition states, that a certain John Davidson, deceased, by his last will and testament devised all his real estate to his wife, Ann Maria Davidson, and directed and empowered her to sell the same, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of the debts of the said John Davidson; that the said Ann Maria died without having performed the trust reposed in her by the said will; that the petitioners, are large creditors of the said John; that he left a large real estate in the District of Columbia, liable to the trust aforesaid, but which cannot be sold by reason of the death of the said Ann Maria; the petitioners therefore pray a trustee may be appointed by the court to perform the trust created by the said John in his will: And it appearing that the heirs of the said John Davidson do not reside within the District of Columbia, it is ordered by the court, that notice be given for six successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette, published at Annapolis, to the heirs of the said John Davidson, to appear and answer to the said petition by the first Monday of November next, or the matters therein stated will be taken pro confesso, and such decree made in the case, upon proof of the publication of this order, as the court shall deem just and equitable.

By order, Wm. Brent, Clk.

FOR SALE. The subscriber will sell, Thomas's Point, And the lands adjoining, lying on the Chesapeake Bay, South River, Oyster and Fishing Creeks. These lands abound with ship timber, and wood of almost every description.

In addition to the above lands, the subscriber will also sell the lands adjoining. The whole will contain between six and seven hundred acres; a fence of four or five hundred yards in length, running from the Head of Oyster creek to Smith's Creek, will enclose the whole land. This half of the land has a considerable quantity of firm marsh belonging to it, two tenements, and a well of good water. The whole is capable of being made one of the best grazing farms in the state.

March 27. J. T. Chase.

By His Excellency Charles Ridgely, of Hampton, Esquire, Governor of Maryland.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas it is provided by the thirty-sixth section of the constitution and form of government, that the Council shall have power to make the great seal of this State, which shall be kept by the Chancellor, and affixed to all laws, commissions, grants, and other testimonials, as has been heretofore practiced in this State: And whereas, under and in virtue of the said power, the board have lately caused to be made of steel a seal, with certain devices, and with the words "Seal of the State of Maryland" inscribed thereon: And whereas the same hath been delivered to the honourable the Chancellor, to be kept and used as the great seal of this State: I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, declaring the seal so aforesaid made, and delivered to the Chancellor, and none other, to be the great seal of the State of Maryland: Given under my hand, and the seal of the State of Maryland, this tenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

C. RIDGELY, of Hampton. By His Excellency's command. Ninian Pinkney, Clerk of the Council.

Ordered, That the foregoing proclamation be published eight times in the Maryland Gazette, Federal Gazette, Federal Republican and Telegraph, the Frederick-town Herald, the Torch Light, the Allegany Federalist, and the Monitor at Easton.

Ninian Pinkney, Clerk of the Council

Notice is hereby given, That the subscriber intends to apply to the next county court of Calvert county, for the benefit of all the insolvent laws. William R. Sewell, Calvert county, 20th Nov. 1816.

20 Dollars Reward.

The above reward will be paid for lodging in gaol, or bringing home negro Sophia, a bright mulatto woman, about eighteen years old, well grown, she has large gray eyes, and her hair rather light. The above woman ran away from Col. Waring, of Mount Pleasant, about the 15th June, (of whom I purchased her.) She has been heard of in the neighbourhood of Mr. William Tillard's near Pig-Point, where it is supposed she has been waiting to get a passage in the packet to Baltimore. She has acquaintances in Baltimore, Washington, Annapolis, and Norfolk. Her cloathing not recollecting, excepting a green stuff frock.

SALE POSTPONED.

The sale of the following described PROPERTY did not take place at the time heretofore advertised, on account of the weather.

LANDS—FOR SALE.

In pursuance of a decree of the high court of Chancery of Maryland, the subscriber will sell by Public Auction, on the premises, on FRIDAY, the eighteenth day of July next, if fair, if not on the next fair day thereafter, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon,

Two Valuable Tracts of Land, lying in Anne Arundel county, part of the real estate of Belt Mullikin, deceased, viz: SIMPSON'S CHOICE, containing three hundred and thirty seven acres, bounding on one of the branches of the Patuxent River, about four miles south of the road from Baltimore to Washington, and nearly equidistant from those two cities and from the city of Annapolis. The improvements on this farm are, a large frame dwelling house, frame kitchen, several houses for negroes, a corn house, stables, two tobacco houses and two orchards, containing a variety of fruit trees.— There is a good proportion of woodland, a part of which is heavily timbered; this land is under good cultivation, well supplied with excellent water, and has a mill seat on it—the soil is well adapted to the cultivation of wheat, corn and tobacco, and is improvable by the use of plaster. This farm will be first offered for sale at the hour above mentioned, at the dwelling house, and the trustee will then proceed to Another TRACT, called WORTHINGTON'S BEGINNING, about two miles from the former, containing about three hundred acres, on which there is a good frame of a dwelling house, under roof, but unfinished; about 100 acres of this land is cleared and enclosed with good fences, the remaining 200 in wood, consisting of hickory, oak and some large yellow pine. The soil is kind and well adapted to the growth of corn, rye and tobacco, and there are also a number of excellent springs on this farm. The whole of the above property lies within ten miles of navigable water. Persons disposed to purchase, are invited to view the lands previous to the sale; and particular information respecting them, may be obtained from the subscriber in Baltimore. The terms of sale are, that the purchaser or purchasers shall give bond with approved security, for the payment of the purchase money with interest, in equal proportions, at six, twelve and eighteen months from the day of sale.

Hasil B. Mullikin, Trustee. July 3.

Public Sale.

In pursuance of an order from the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, the subscribers will expose to public sale, on Thursday the 17th day of July next, a part of the personal estate of Francis T. Clements, late of said county, deceased, viz. the whole of his household furniture, and the stock on the farm, consisting of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, and all the farming utensils. The sale will commence at the late residence of the deceased, in the city of Annapolis; and from thence will be adjourned to the farm about 4 miles from the city.

The terms of Sale are these—Cash will be required for all sums not exceeding $20, and all sums exceeding that amount a credit of 8 months will be given, on the purchasers giving bond, with two approved securities, conditioned for the payment of the purchase money, with interest from the day of sale.

Joseph Green, Sarah Clements, ex'rs. June 19.

Education.

Saint John's College in the city of Annapolis, is now open for the reception of students, who can be accommodated with board and tuition for the moderate sum of two hundred dollars per annum. The classics are taught conjointly by Mr. Hugh Maguire, late of Baltimore, and Thomas H. Hanson Esquire; and the students will be instructed by the latter gentleman in Natural and Moral Philosophy, Geography, and the various branches of Mathematics. The Trustees are resolved that no exertion shall be wanting to revive this ancient and highly respectable institution; and although there is nothing of grandeur in its present condition, they feel no hesitation in saying, that the teachers who have been employed are fully competent to the faithful and able discharge of the duties which they have undertaken. A vacation will commence on the 1st of August which will continue until the first Monday in September.

July 10, 1817. The editor of the National Intelligencer will insert the above twice a week for three weeks, and forward his account.
