FOREIGN NEWS.

From the London Courier, of May

STATE PAPERS. DIFFERENCES BETWEEN SPAIN & PORTUGAL.

"The conduct of the government of Brazil, in invading the Spanish possessions in the River Plate, has occupied the attention of Europe as much on account of the act itself, as on account of the period at which it was done. All nations were con-vinced, that the profoundest peace was necessary to heal the deep wounds which had been the consequences of so many years of war and revolution. Yet this was the moment which the Court of Brazil chose to invade the territories of its neighbour. The Spanish government on this occasion, acted with the greatest prudence and moderation-and the Allied Powers afforded a fresh proof of their generous ideas and pacific intentions. The following note from the ministers of Austria, France, Great Britain, Prussia and Russia, delivered to the Marquis D'Aguiar, his most faithful Majesty's Minister for foreign affairs, is a document perfectly well calculated to tranquilize the public mind, and to induce a hope that the Court of Brazil, adopting those principles of legitimacy and justice upon which the present system of he world is founded, will avoid compromising herself with the Allied Powers. The good faith and d gnified character of his Catholic Malesty are most apparent upon this occasion. The decisive language of the Ministers from whom the following note has proceeded, will prove the opinion of their respective Sovereigns in favour of Spain-and that their relations with her are as fixed & solid as they can be between powers the most intimately connect.

Note from the Ministers of the mediating courts to the Marquis D'Aguiar, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to his most taithful Majesty.

PARIS, March 16, 1817. "The occupation of a part of the spanish possessions on the River Hate by the Portuguese troops of Brazil was no sooner known in Europe, than it was the object of official and simultaneous steps taken by the Cabinet of Madrid with the Courts of Vienna, Paris, London, Berliff, and St. Petersburgh, in order to protest solemnly against this occupation, and claim their support against such an aggression. Perhaps the Court of Madrid might have thought herself entitled to recur at once to the means of defence which Providence has placed in her hands, and ropel force by force. But, guided by a spirit of wisdom and moderation, she was desirous first of employing the means of negotiation and persuasion, and she preferred, notwithstanding, the disadeantage that might result to her possessions beyond sca, addressing herself to the five undermentioned powers, in order to an amicable adjustment of her differences with the Court of Brazil, and to avoid a rupture, the consequences of which might be equally disastrous to the two countries, and might disturb the repose of both hemispheres.

So noble a resolution could not but meet with the entire approbation of the Gabinets to which the Court of Spain has addressed herself; and animated with the desire of preventing the fatal consequences that might result from the present state of affairs, the Courts of Austria, France, Great Britain, Prussia and Russia, equally the friends of Portugal and Spain, after having taken into consideration the just claims o: the latter power, have charged the undersigned to make known to the Cabinet of his most faithful Majes-

That they have accepted the mediation demanded of them by Spain.

on the 1st of August which will continue until the first Monday in September, pain, and not without then a double marriage seemed to bind more closely the family ties already existing between the Houses of Braganza and Bourben, and when such an average week for three-weeks, and forward his account. That they have seen with real timate and more friendly, Portugal has invaded the Spanish possessions on the River Plate, and invaded them without any explanation what ever, and without any previous declaration.

That the principles of equity & justice which direct the councils of the five Courts, and the firm resolution they have adopted to preserve as much as is in their power the peace of the world, purchased by such great sacrifices, have determined them to take cognizance and part in this affair, in the intention of terminating it in the most equitable manner, and most conformable to the mode of maintaining the general tranquility.

That the said Courts do not dissemble that a difference between Portugal and Spain might disturb that peace and occasion a war in Europe, which might be not only disastrous to the two countries, but incompatible with the interests and the tranquility of other Powers. That in consequence they have resolved to make known to the Go. vernment of his Most Faithful Majesty, their sentiments on this subject, to invite him to furnish sufficient explanations upon his views, to take the most prompt and proper measures to dissipate the just alarms which his invasion of the American possessions of Spain has already caused in Europe, and to satisfy the rights claimed by the latter Power. as well as those principles of justice and impartiality which guide the mediators. A refusal to yield to such just demands would leave no doubt with respect to the real in tensions of the Cabrier of Rio Janeiro. The disastrous effects that might result to the two hemispheres would be imputed entirely to Portugal; and Spain, after having seen all Europe applaud her wise and moderate conduct, would find in the justice of her cause, and in the support of her allies, sufficient means of redressing her complaints.

The undersigned, in acquitting themselves of the orders of their Courts, have the honour to offer to his Excellency the Marquis d'Aguiar, the assurance of their high consideration.

LUCIEN BUONAPARTE.

GENEVA, April 25. I send you a copy of the document which contains the determination of the Allied Powers, to prevent the escape of Lucien Buonaparte to the United States of America, and those ulterior plans which the discontented refugees propose for the purpose of making of America a theatre of revolutionary ideas, and a new field for ambition and in trigue. The principles of justice, order and legitimacy that govern the powers of Europe, will always disoncert the ma ditious to disturb the peace, and will oppose a barrier to their spirit of rapine, and their plans of usurpation. The first and most efficawas derived from the zeal and activity of the Spanish government, well informed of these plots by exact accounts received both in Europe and America .- Thus Spain deserves the confidence of all Governments and the approbation of the people.

The following document will be read with much interest:

PARIS, -Protocol of the Conference of the 13th of March. Present, The Minister of Austria, Duke de Richelieu, Duke of Wellington, Sir Charles Stuart, the Prussian Minister, the Minister of Russia.

The conference having been opened this day with their Excellencies the Dukes of Richelieu and Wellington, to take into consideration the demand made by Lucien Buonaparte for passports to conduct one of his sons to the United States, & the Austrian Minister having again between the two countries more in | sence of Lucien Buonsparte in the United States would be still more dangerous than it is in Eurape, where he can be better watched, & that in consequence it is to be desired that the passports he has ask-ed for should be refused.

2. That in order to deprive him: of all plausible motives for soliciting the said passports, it would be equally desirable to refuse them to hisson Charles, whose journey seems to be only a pretext for the plans of the father.

3. That the news received by different means and from different countries, particularly from Naples; leave no doubt of the intrigues and dangerous relations which Lucien Buonaparte keeps up in Italy-and considering that Rome is, perhaps; of all cities that in which superintendence is the most difficult to be exercised, and is exercised with less severity, and that he may, notwithstanding the refusal of passports, find means of deceiving the vigilance of the Roman government, and of escaping to proceed to America; it would be desirable that another abode be assigned him than Rome and the Roman states, by the high Allied Powers, & that he should be further removed from the coasts, in order to render the plans of escape which he may meditate more difficult.

This opinion being common to all the members of the Conference, it has been resolved to consign it in the Protocol of the day, in order that it may be made known to the four courts, and may produce a determination on their part upon this subject.
