un emarlia estata un curalia estata cer ana paradum ceralde merce estate merce vice acada con la ndsor, (Vermons) the President of the by the Young Lieux

ADDRESS President of the U sed with a high sense ir which the inhabeting llage receive in being bez f the Union, we be king of the Young Late sor Female Academy which although from the en, will not we trut; able, or deemed entirely to President of the nation, ctor of our country, the of our rights, and deme , and the guardian of or ings of gratitude, and ag

address him, by the n ppeliation of Patron and Permit us, Sir, respectfik grafulate on yourne the State of Vermont, nt happy and prospersor of the country over which alled to preside, the the peace is now waving where clarion of war was head at your entrance upon pol both arduous and import a time when from the ges ace and tranquility the ou can have leisure to pro happiness and literary 15 of the rising generation; t happy, that the visit be rnorthern states have ben honoured, has been undera time, when every thing e combined to render i to yourself, and as to le; and we bury that ption of you has been and inue to be such, as is can their views of respect for ate character, and the eletion you have the honour nuch dignity to all, asprethe United States. Tax long live in the affections and enlightened people, & ess may crown all yourer or the public good, is the ish of many apatriotic, 2outhful female bosom.

ANSWER.

adies, ou to be assured, that no i, which I have received urse of my route, has a e greater satisfaction, that a which have been hond-e young ladies of the female of Windsor. I take deep as a parent and citizen, it ess of female education, en delighted, wherever I n, to witness the attestin . That you may be to d for your graceful and quirements, and for es virtue, is the object of desire. Accept my be or your har JAMES MONROL nibers of the Windsor ale Academy.

om the Boston Patriot. NARRATIVE.

late visit of the Preside dependence, 74, Com. Bis with that attention to of those under his con ich so strongly characte on presenting his office acting midshipman King mentioned his escapeak n boat from Bermuda. I is the statement in de midshipman King himed aken in the United Sale on, on the 22d November y his B. Majesty's in otom, commanded by So. The Vixen and South ere wrecked on the the wrecked on two the holes, on Little Island the hamas. We were the land by his major dian, and taken to Jamia were kept prisoners and have the holes has the April, 1813, when a price iven's crew were parted mong the number, and the D. he Rebecta Syms, of Ph We entered the Jel the 2d of May, and of

by the Poictiers, of a d, who ordered as to co n belonging to the Vixen on the Poictien, for the purpose exchanging them for some of his then prisobers at Philadel-The officers and men were ased on the 10th of May, with exception of James Stevens, penter of the Vixen, and myself, m Sir John thought proper to ain on the supposition of our ng British subjects. The Poicsailed for Bernuda on the 12th, arrived on the 25th of May. vens and myself were sent on rd the guard-ship Ruby. of 64 s, then commanded by Commoe Evans. The Ruby had a fine t, which sailed remarkably fast. entioned to some of my compans in captivity, that we might ture to cross the gulf in her hout much danger, but could get e of them to join me, with the Black, who gave his assent, & morning, when information was received that a party of armed men eption of a man by the name of were on their way towards Notting ham. The magistrates assembled e his oath that he would join me and swore in 1000 constables to keep iny scheme for our liberty. the peace. It appeared that a body Thinking that I could put confiof men had assembled at South Winge in this man, I next day sold field, and after arming themselves, shirts to some of the crew, & proceeded to Nottingham. On one of them belonging to the I hursday they committed some outby to buy me a po ket compass rages, and attempted to force all four loaves of bread. Being 6 they met to join; but were disap-8 days without getting any pointed in their expectation of voce to make my escape, and our lunteers on the road, none of that s being short of provisions, I description appearing. At about etwo of my loaves to the mess. seven in the morning they reached 24th of July being very stormy, Eastwood, where they had about continuing so during the night, 200 men, armed with guns, pikes, ought it would be the best op-&c. and some with bags of bullets tunity I could get of going off on their backs. Here they found the boat, & accordingly watchtheir greatest strength, and from orthefavouring moment. About thence declined in numbers. At o'clock, P. M. a heavy equall of Kimberly, 5 miles from Nottingham, came on, and the sentry on the they had but about 20. Mortified way went under a shed that and alurmed, they then threw away built over the main hatchway. their arms, and dispersed in various the officer of the deck & quar directions-several of them, howemaster got under the forward ver, were taken without resistance. t of the poop. Seeing the coast Twenty eight miserable looking ar, I got my pocket compass and creatures were secured and lodged remaining two loaves of bread, raffed my companion. We got in gaal. The towns of Laughborough, and vnonthe lower deck, and unship-Newark, were thrown into consione of the gratings of the low derable alarm at the intelligence of deck port; I gave my bundle to riotous assemblies, and proceedings companion, and told him to reat Langley Mill, and precautions in there until I could get the were taken to check the rioters if talongside; I got out on the they should appear. The peace ofnging boom and cut the painter ficers were directed to be in readihauled the bost close in to the ness, and troops ordered out; but ; but what was my astonishno disturbances took place in that t when my companion, after quarter. On Wednesday the 26 ding me the bundle, said he would prisoners were examined, Admiral o! In vain did I state that we Sir John Borlase Warren, presiding ald have fair wind one half the on the occasion. at least, owing to the trade From Leeds, it is stated, that a plot had been discovered to effect a ds, prevailing in that latitude; said it would be impossible to sthe gulf in an open boat, and tioned the scantiness of our isions; finding that I could not ail on him to go, I shoved off, et the boat drift astern of the When about a hundred yards rn; they struck a bell, and the ry cried all was well. I made s soon as possible, and at day was 30 miles from the ship. issing the boat they sent sevessels in chase of me as I since been informed by one of Henry on the 2d of August, 14 P. M. and on approaching

Light House, discovered the

th fleet lying in Lynnhaven

I hauled to the southward,

sched the boat about 12 o'clock

ward of the Cape; I unbent

oat's jib, and carried it about a ter of a mile from the boat, and to sleep; I got up about sun-

ext morning, and got to Mr.

ith every kindness that my sion required. I proceeded to olk after remaining with Mr. tehouse two days, when I re-myself to Captain Cassin,

advanced me funds to get to hington. I sold my boat for pliars; the boat was about 22 ong, 7 feet wide, and 3 deep, a fore sail, mainsail and jib. She allasted with fresh water in prisoners on board.

Oliver, who represented to the deluded men with whom he held his conferences, that there was a general plot in London to have a rising of the 8th of June, to take possession of the public offices, seize the constituted authorities release the State prisogers, secure the military, and thus effect without the least bloodshed, an entire change of the government. He proposed had several squalls between Berto extend this plan throughout the a and the Gulf Stream. I suf-da good deal for want of sleep, whole country, and to secure the military in every port of the kingdid every thing I could think of dom. This project being disclosed, rep myselfawake; my lips were the persons concerned in it, to the bed with the sun; I used to ir. number of ten, were on Friday arrested, secured, and privately exthem with my fingers, to try e pain would keep me awake; amined. On the examination it was stated that arms were deposited in proved ineffectual; I often the barn at Whitley. This proved afterwards to be false. The men asleep, and sometimes when I e would find the boat with her were committed for further eximiaback and steering a different nation, and the escort of dismountse. After being out four days, d to steer by tying my hand to ed cavalry, on the way to the prison, iller, which proved to be very were attacked with stones, brickbats, &c. They were, however, safely lodged in confinement. For to me the rest of the passage. fered a good deal in the Gulf, to the continual motion of the a week preceding the publication of I saw a brig, but thinking the account at Leeds, all had been she was an Englishman, I was ul of approaching her. I made change in the representation. Private meetings had been held for the purpose at Dewsbury, and a project offered by a man of the name of quiet in that neighbourhood. On the 14th it was stated, that the plot which had been mentioned, had been got up under the instigation of an agent from London, and that the principal offender had been suffered to escape. On examination it proved to be Oliver abovementi-ight, about ten miles to the oned. All was peace at Nottingham on the 14th.

> The trial of Watson for treason occupied seven days, and closed on the 15th June, by a verdict of acquittal. Lord Chief Justice Ellenborough, was nearly five hours in delivering his charge to the Jury, & then becoming exhausted, was assisted by Justice Abbot in finishing the recital of the evidence. His Lordship then concluded, by "entreating the jury would give in such a verdict as would quiet their consciences, protect the prisoner, and give him immunity from punishment | and cheered. if he deserved not to be visited by

FOREIGN NEWS. time, feel that they were protecting the laws of the land, & giving them, LIVERPOOL, June 17. and those who administer them, ef-

14th that disturbances had been of

On Monday the 16th great numbers of people had assembled at Al.

freton, and other neighbouring vil-close consultation. Rumours of these movements reaching Nottingham, troops were sent for to parade

the market place. Things however, remained quiet until the next

parts of the kingdom.

fective security."

It appears by accounts from the Nottingham Review, of the 14th The Jury now proposed to with-June, and the Leeds Mercury of the, draw, and an officer (Mr. Beaumont) was sworn to take them in charge a pretty serious nature in those during their deliberation,

Lord Ellenborough then intimated to the Jury, that they might have refreshment in the box before they retired; afterward, until their verlages, in Derbyshire, and excited dict was given in, they could not exconsiderable alarm; the guards were pect to receive any. doubled, and the magistrates held a

Mre Justice Abbot suggested to them to have some tea or coffee. Some of the Jury wished for sandwiches and wine and water, and in a few minutes afterwards manifested an anxiety to retire and consider their verdict withou waiting for refreshment.

Lord Ellenborough told them not to be in a hurry: the Court would very readily wait. Officers soon after escorted them out of the court to their room. Most of barristers in the front seats, after the retirement of the jury stood up, as did Mr. Watson, folding his arms. Afterwards, he wrote a note to Mr. Harmer, his solictor, then conversed with Mr. Wetherall; who was on the floor of the court, and received Mr. Harmer's answer.

The officer, to whose care the jury were committed, took the follow-

"You shall well and truly keep this Jury without meat, drink or fire; you shall suffer no person whatever to speak to them, nor you yourself, unless it be to ask them whether they are agreed, or not."

Before the return of the Jury, great huzzaing and clapping of hands were heard in the hall. Much surprise was apparent in the court. Lord Ellenborough said, the hall ought to be cleared, and Mr. Sheriff Kirby went out, as if for that pur pose, but quiet was presently restored, and it was found, that the applause had been given to the Lord Mayor, on his passing through the hall.

The Jury were absent about an tour and three quarters. Upon their return, their names were immediately called over, and they were asked who was their foreman? They replied, Mr. Richardson, who came forward. The officer of the court then said, "Prisoner, hold up your hand and listen to your verdict." The foreman of the Jury pronounced in a loud voice, NOT GUIL-

A barister, drawing aside the green curtain, instantly called out owards the hall-"Acquitted." He was heard only by a small part of the company, but their plaudits immediately made it known to the others, and were re-echoed from all parts of the hall. The intelligence spread rapidly through palace yard and the adjoining streets. It was impossible to walk in the neighbourhood, without hearing the words a hundred times in five minutes.

Lord Ellenborough looked round the court, as if his fordship, in the first moments of the impression made by the verdict, seemed to think the plaudits proceeded from a part of the audience there: but his lordship soon perceived that the utmost decorum prevailed within his

As soon as silence was obtained, Mr. Watson asked permission to say a few words. One or two gentlemen near him intimated, that as his counsel Mr. Wetherall, had with-drawn, this might not be proper, but the court appeared willing to hear him. Mr. Watson, bowing respectfully to the Jury, said, "Genlemen, I thank you much."

Lord Ellenborough asked the attorney-general, if he had any other charge against the prisoner? The attorney-general answered. "No, my lord.

Mr. Watson was then discharged; but, as the plaudits continued in the hall, lord Ellenborough expressed a wish, that the Jury should wait a little time before they withdrew; and Watson appearing to feel, that the reason of the request might extend to him, also remained in court. When he withdrew it was through the vaulted passage, which leads into old palace-yard, whence he passsed with Mr. Harmer to Millbank.

In the mean time, the carriage, which had been drawn up near the door of the hall to convey Mr. Watson back to the tower, if that had been permitted by the verdict, was removed, and the horse guards, who attended it, retired.

In Spring Gardens, Mr. Harmer and Mr. Watson were recognized

On the latter quitting Mr. Har-

it; while they would, at the same mer's hoose in Hetton garden, in a hackney-coach, the populace took the horses from the coach, & drew him down Holborn, and through Fleet street, till he arrived at Mr. West's, wire worker, (one of his bail) in Wich street, Drury lane, where he alighted.

Public Sale.

By virtue of a writ of venditioni expones, to me directed from the Court of Appeals for the western shore of Maryland, will be exposed to public sale, on Tuesday the 16th day of September next, at 3 o'clock in the after. noon, at James Hunter's taveru in the city of Annapolis, for cash, one negro man named Sampson, a blacksmith by trade, seized and taken as the property of Joseph Watkins, to satisfy a debt due John Yates, for the use of the Farmers Bank of Maryland. Joseph M. Ceney, late Sheriff Anne-Arundel County.

FOR SALE.

I will sell at Private Sale, that Tract of LAND known by the name of BROWN'S PURCHASE, lying on the Patuxent, and containing 261 acres, more or less. It is deemed unnecessary to give a description of the above Land, as it is presumed those who wish to purchase will view the same. which they may do by calling on Mr. John Davis, who resides on it. For terms of sale, application to be made to Messrs. Warfield & Ridgely, or to the subscriber, Absalom Ridgely. Annapolis, August 21.

Straved or Stolen

From the subscriber, on the 24th July last a sorrel HORSE, about 14 hands high, cropped and nicked, ten years old. If the above horse should have strayed away, and is found in the neighbourhood of Annapolis, a reward of five dollars with be given on his delivery, to the subscriber; if out of the centy ten dollars—it stolen; thirty dollars will be given, on conviction of the thief. the thief.

Washington G. napolis, August 21.

An Overseer Wanted. A single Man, who can come well ecommended for honesty, sobriety and industry, with some knowledge of farming, will meet with employ and liberal wages for the ensuing year, by application to the subscriber on the north side of Severn.

FREDERICK GRAMMER. Aug 21.

State of Maryland, sc. Anne Arundel county, Orphans Court. August 19, 1817.

Onapplication by petition of Philenon Plummer, jun. executor of the last will and testament of Stephen Matthews, late of Anne Arundel county deceased, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette and Political Intelligencer.

John Gassaway, Reg. Wills,
for A. A. County.

Notice is hereby given, That the subscriber of Anne-Arundel county, hath obtained from the or phans court of Anne Arundel county n Maryland, letters testamentary of the personal estate of Stephen Matthews late of Anne-Arundel county de-ceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the 2d day of October next, they may otherwise by law he excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 19th day of August, 1817.

Pilemon Plummer, jr. ex'r.

NOTICE.

This is to give notice, that the subscriber hath taken out short letters on the estate of John Worthington, late of Anne Arunder county, deceased. All persons having laims against the said deceased, are requisted to bring them, legally authenticated, & all those who are indebted to the said estate to make immediate payment, to immediate payment, to Beale M. Worthington, ex'r.

The Editors of the National Intelli-gencer are requested to publish the a bove advertisement once a week, for 6 weeks, and forward their pecound to this office for collection. July 10.

A FEW COPIES OF THE Laws of Maryland, PASSED DECEMBER SESSION 1816.

May be had at this Office-Price April 10.

State of Maryland, sc. Anne-Arundel County, Orphans court,

August 13, 1817. On application by potition of Thomas Franklin, administrator de bonis non of Ferdinando Battee, late of Anne-Arnndel county, deceased, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same ba published once in each week for the pace of six successive weeks, in the Maryland Gazette and Political Intelligencer.

John Gassaway, Rez. Wills, for A. A. County.

Notice is hereby given,

That the subscriber of Anne-Arundel county, hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, n Maryland, letters of administration de bonis non on the personal estate of Ferdinando Battee, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, in the city of Annapolis, at, or before the 25th day of September next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 13th day of August, 1817.

Thomas Franklin, ad'mr. $D. B. \mathcal{N}$

An Overseer Wanted.

A single Man, who can come well recommended for honesty, sobriety and industry, with some knowledge of farming, will meet with employ and liberal wages, for the ensuing year, by application to the subscriber, on the North side of Severn.

JAMES MACKUBIN.

Houses & Lots For Sale.

The subscriber having been duly authorised by the owners, offers for sale the following houses and lots in the city of Annapolis: the house and lot now occupied by Mr John Muncoe, as a Past Office, Shop, and Dwelling-The house and lot now occupied by Mr. Rezin D. Baldwin as a Tavern, (being the same formerly occupied by capt. Thomas)—And the house and lot on Church street, at present occupied by Mr. Gilbert Murdoch. Persons dis-posed to purchase will apply to William Steuart, Esq. at Mount Steuart, or to the subscriber in Baltimore. The whole property, if not previously disposed of, will be sold at Auction, on the premises, at 12 o'clock on Tuesday the 16th of September next G. H. Steuart.

August 14.

PROPOSALS OR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION,
AN ORIGINAL WORK,

A JOURNAL

of the loss of t'c BRIG COMMERCE, of Hartford (Ct.)-Capt. RILEY; OF THE CAPTIVITY OF CAPTAIN EILEY, who was for two months a Slave; AMONGST THE ARABS;

and of the Slavery and Sufferings of the Author FOR NINETEEN MONTHS, Among the same People;

with accounts of the MANNERS, CUSTOMS, & HABITS, DESCRIPTION OF THE COUNTRY OF THE ARABS.

BY ARCHIBALD ROBINS.

THE narratives and journals of Travellers, Adventurers, the Shipwrecked and Prisoners, are often told with exaggerations, and not unfrewently condemned as deceiving rather that informing the world .-The author of the proposed fournal is a citizen of Connecticut, and one of the suffering crew of Captain RILEY. He has seen life in a sphere uncommon to his countrymen-he has endured miseries uncommon to human nature. By the blessings of a merciful Providence he has sur vived to detail his sufferings to the world. If truth will excite astonishment, and even occasion incredulity, he cannot help it: but he is resolved to tell a plain unvarnished tale of extreme suffering-of the manners, customs and habits of the extraordinary people among whom he endured it. He will submit it to the world, hoping that the liberality of the public will, in a small degree, compensate him for his suffering, by reading the tale of it.

TERMS.

I. The work shall constitute a duodecimo volume of about three hundred pages, to be handsomely

il. The price to subscribers will be one dollar.

II. Those who procure twelve subscribers, and become responsible for the payment, shall have a thirteenth gratis. Subscribers on papers to be returned to William B. Marsh, Hartford, by the first day of October next,

@ Bubscriptions received at this

, and took all the office