Anne-Arundel County Court,
April Term, 1817.

An application to Anne-Arundel County Court by petition in writing of John Deale, of Anne Arundel county, praying for the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, as well as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said John Deale having satisfied the said court that he has resided in the State of Maryland two years immediately preceding the time of his application, and that he is in actual confinement for debt only; it is therefore ordered and adjudged by the said court, that the said John Deale be discharged from his confinement; and that he, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the public newspapers of the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the first Monday of September next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court of Anne-Arundel county, on the third Monday of September next, for the purpose of recommending trustees for their benefit, of the said John Deale then and there taking the oath by the said acts prescribed for debtors, and that he should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements thereto.

When they approached to within one hundred yards of the beach, they made me seat myself on the sand between two of them, who held me by the arms, bidding me order the money on shore. I knew there was none on board the wreck, or in the boat, but I imagined if I could get Antonio Michael on shore, I should be able to make my escape. I hailed accordingly, and made signs to my people to have one of them come near the shore; but, as they saw, by every movement of the natives, that my situation was dreadfully critical, none of them were inclined to venture, and I waited more than an hour, was often threatened with death, and made to halloo with all my might, until I became so hoarse as scarcely to make myself heard by those around me.—The pity of Mr. Savage at last overcame his fears. He ventured on the hawser, and reaching the beach in safety, was about to come up to me, where he would have been certainly seized, as I was, when I endeavored to make him understand by signs, that he must stay in the water, and let me clear of the natives, if he valued his life; but not being able to be understood, my guards, who supposed I was giving him orders to fetch the money, obliged me to get up to approach a little, until I made him understand what I wanted; he then returned on board the wreck, and I was then sent back to my former station.

20 Dollars Reward.

The above reward will be paid for bringing in gaol, or bringing home near Sophia, a bright mulatto woman, about eighteen years old, well grown, has large grey eyes, and her hair rather light. The above woman ran away from Col. Waring of Mount Pleasant, about the 16th June, (of course near the shore; but, as they saw, by every movement of the natives, that my situation was dreadfully critical, none of them were inclined to venture, and I waited more than an hour, was often threatened with death, and made to halloo with all my might, until I became so hoarse as scarcely to make myself heard by those around me.—The pity of Mr. Savage at last overcame his fears. Ranaway from the subscriber, on the 14th day of last month, a negro man named SOLOMON ROGERS, 26 years of age, about five feet ten inches high; he has a smooth black skin, full face, and good teeth. He took with him a blue cloth coat, grey casimere pantaloons, a short furred cloth jacket of a drab colour, two new ticklenburg shirts, a pair of new oxford trousers, and a good furred hat, besides other cloaths not particularly recollected. It is believed too that he wears a silver watch with a large key to it. As he has many acquaintances in the city of Baltimore, it is probable he has gone to that place, as he did about five years ago, when he was taken up and committed to jail. Whoever apprehends the said runaway, and secures him in any jail, so that I get him again, shall, if taken in Anne-Arundel county, receive 50 dollars, and if out of said county the above reward.

The other farm is nearly adjoining the above, and contains about 250 acres. This land is not inferior to any in the county, is under good fencing, and has a commodious dwelling-house, kitchen, two tobacco-houses, stables, and corn-house. The above lands are susceptible of great benefit from the use of plaster, and from their healthy situation, and pleasant neighbourhood, offer an agreeable residence. They are distant from the city about nine miles. The subscriber invites persons disposed to purchase to view the premises.
