PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY JONAS GREEN, CHURCH-STREET, ANNAPOLIS. Price—Three Dollars per Annum.

Public Sale.

By virtue of a deed of trust from Richard H. Harwood, esq. of the city of Annapolis, the subscribers will proceed to sell the following property, to-wit: On Friday the third day of October, the hour of 11 in the morning, if it be not the next fair day, they will offer on the premises, the plantation on which the said Richard H. Harwood is now residing, on Elk-Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, about three miles and a half from the city of Annapolis, containing about 12 1/2 acres of land, together with all the buildings thereon; the roads from the crop up the country, and from the said lands to Baltimore, pass through this land. The best judges are of opinion that this land is capable of being made equal to any of the Elk-Ridge lands. There are on it a good dwelling-house, and convenient out-buildings, a garden, a spring of most excellent water very near the house, and a well of fine water. At the same time they will offer five negro men, four women, three boys, and six girls, horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, and farming utensils.

On Friday the 10th of October, the hour of 11 in the morning, if it be not the next fair day, they will offer on the premises, a tract of land called "Bessington," being in Anne-Arundel county, on which Samuel C. Watkins at present resides, containing about 150 acres. This land lies on the bank of South-River Church to the lower part of the county, and is very susceptible of improvement.

On Friday the 17th day of October, the hour of 11 in the morning, if it be not the next fair day, they will offer on the premises, parts of several tracts of lands, the whole being in Anne-Arundel county, and containing about 416 1/4 acres, being in Charles county, about 10 or 12 miles below Piscataway. The above property or any part of it, will be disposed of at private sale if application be made in time. To the purchasers of personal property a credit of four months will be given for all sums not under twenty dollars. The terms to the purchasers of land will be very accommodating, and will be made known on the day of sale.

Henry H. Harwood, Richard Harwood, of Thos. Annapolis, Aug 5, 1817.

The editors of the Federal Gazette and the American of Baltimore, are requested to insert the above advertisement twice a week until the day of sale, and forward their accounts to this office.

From this time all submitted by their fate with tolerable patience, and kept the boat free, though we had continual bad weather, with murmuring. We wetted our lips with wine and water twice every day, and the bones and some of the raw flesh of our pig, with its skin but at length we became so faint as to be unable to take our turns at bailing, whilst the boat laboured much as to work off nearly all the nails that kept the planks to the timbers above the water.

By the 6th of September, at night we had not made the land, & we had no hope to make the boat hold together in any manner above the water. I expected we should have found the land that day, but with disappointment, and some of the crew began again to despair. I was by thirst, they forgot what they owed to their shipmates, and in the night got at, and drank off one of the two bottles of wine we had remaining. When I mentioned the loss of the wine on the morning of the 7th, all denied having taken a drop, adding that it was a pardonable crime, and that the who did it ought to be thrown overboard instantly. From the conversation I gathered the offenders, but the wine was gone, and no remedy remained but patience, and strict vigilance for the future.

THE Votes and Proceedings

Of the last Legislature. For sale at this office—Price 1/2 dollar. Sept. 26.

100 Dollars Reward.

Runaway from the subscriber, on the 14th day of last month, a negro man named SOLOMON ROGERS, 26 years of age, about five feet ten inches high; he has a smooth black skin, full face, and good teeth. He took with him a blue cloth coat, grey casimere pantaloons, a short furred cloth jacket of a drab colour, two new ticklenburg shirts, a pair of new oxburg trousers, and a good furred hat, besides other cloaths not particularly recollected. It is believed that he wears a silver watch with a large key to it. As he has many acquaintances in the city of Baltimore, it is probable he has gone to that place, as he did about 4 or 5 years ago, when he was taken up and committed to jail. Whoever apprehends the said runaway, and secures him in any jail, so that I get him again, shall be paid 50 dollars, and if out of said county the above reward.

Horatio Bidout. Whitehall, Anne-Arundel county, June 15, 1817.

LANDS FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers at private sale, either of the two following farms, lying on the head of South River, in Anne-Arundel county, to-wit: A Tract of Land called "White's Hall," now in the occupation of Mr. Stephen Lee, containing about 200 acres. The soil is of the first quality, well adapted to the growth of Corn, Wheat or Tobacco, and the improvements, consisting of an excellent dwelling house, kitchen, tobacco house and quarter, all lately erected, are in complete repair; there is also a well of fine water, and a young apple orchard of the choicest fruit.

The other farm is nearly adjoining the above, and contains about 200 acres. This land is not inferior to any in the county, is under good fencing, and has a commodious dwelling house, kitchen, two tobacco-houses, stables and corn-house. The above lands are susceptible of great benefit from the use of plaster, and from their healthy situation, and pleasant neighbourhood, offer an agreeable residence. They are distant from the city about nine miles. The subscriber invites persons disposed to purchase to view the premises. The terms, which shall be accommodating, will be made known on application to no. T. Barber. Annapolis, March 27.

FOR SALE.

The subscriber will sell, Thomas's Point,

And the lands adjoining, lying on the Chesapeake Bay, South River, Oyster and Fishing Creeks. These lands are bound with ship timber, and wood of almost every description. There is a large quantity of firm marsh belonging to it, and some low ground, which may be converted into meadow at a small expense. There are several small buildings on it. The whole contains between three and four hundred acres. This place is remarkable for fish, oysters and wild fowl.

In addition to the above lands, the subscriber will also sell the lands adjoining. The whole will contain between six and seven hundred acres; a fence of four or five hundred yards in length, running from the Head of Oyster creek to Smith's Creek, will enclose the whole land. This half of the land has a considerable quantity of firm marsh belonging to it, two tenements, and a well of good water. The whole is capable of being made one of the best grazing farms in the state.

March 27. J. F. Chase.

50 Dollars Reward.

Runaway from the subscriber on the 26th day of May last, living in Libertytown, Frederick county, Maryland, a negro man named CHARLES, who calls himself Charles Warfield. He is about 20 years old, about five feet six inches high, stout built and well made, has a small scar on the upper part of his right cheek, about as large as the mark of two small peas, a black complexion, and on the middle, across his head, his hair is longer than on either side. He had on when he left home, a furred drab doublet and waistcoat, low linen trousers, white and yellow striped ditto. The subscriber will give 50 dollars if secured in jail so that I get him again, and the above reward if brought home.

To Travellers.

Persons travelling to Baltimore will find it much the nearest and best road by way of the "Middle Ferry," formerly Holland's ferry, which is now kept in good order, and constant attendance, by Henry Johnson and Wm Arnold, where liquors and horse feed can be had. The road between the ferry and Baltimore has lately been straightened and improved, and is only three miles from the ferry to Mrs. Carroll's Bridge, where it intersects the Washington turnpike road. Jan. 1, 1817. one year.

That most Valuable and Highly improved FARM, Known by the name of the HAYLANDS,

PROPOSALS

FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION AN ORIGINAL WORK, TO BE ENTITLED, A JOURNAL of the loss of the BRIG COMMERCE, of Hartford (Ct)—Capt. RILEY, OF THE CAPTIVITY OF CAPTAIN RILEY, who was for two months a Slave, AMONGST THE ARABS; and of the Slavery and Sufferings of the Author, FOR NINETEEN MONTHS, Among the same People; with accounts of the MANNERS, CUSTOMS, & HABITS, DESCRIPTION OF THE COUNTRY OF THE ARABS.

BY ARCHIBALD ROBINS.

THE narratives and journals of Travellers, Adventurers, the Shipwrecked and Prisoners, are often told with exaggerations, and not unfrequently condemned as deceiving, rather than informing the world.—The author of the proposed JOURNAL is a citizen of Connecticut, and one of the suffering crew of Captain RILEY. He has seen life in a sphere uncommon to his countrymen—he has endured miseries uncommon to human nature. By the blessings of a merciful Providence he has survived to detail his sufferings to the world. If truth will excite astonishment, and even occasion incredulity, he cannot help it; but he is resolved to tell a plain unvarnished tale of extreme suffering—of the manners, customs and habits of the extraordinary people among whom he endured it. He will submit it to the world, hoping that the liberality of the public will, in a small degree, compensate him for his suffering, by reading the tale of it.

TERMS.

- I. The work shall constitute a duodecimo volume of about three hundred pages, to be handsomely bound. II. The price to subscribers will be one dollar. III. Those who procure twelve subscribers, and become responsible for the payment, shall have a thirtieth gratis. Subscribers on papers to be returned to William S. Marsh, Hartford, by the first day of October next, (P Subscriptions received at this office. August 14.
