LANDS FOR SALE.

The subscriber offers at private sale, the two following farms, lying on the head of South River, in Anne Arundel county, to wit: A Tract called "White's Hall," now in the occupation of Mr. Stephen Lee, containing about 200 acres. The soil is of the first quality, well adapted to the growth of Corn, Wheat or Tobacco, and the improvements, consisting of an excellent dwelling house, kitchen, and the improvements, consisting of a well of fine water, and a young orchard of the choicest fruit.

The other farm is nearly adjoining the above, and contains about 250 acres. This land is not inferior to any in the county, is under good fencing, and has a commodious dwelling-house, kitchen, two tobacco-houses, stables, and a corn-house. The above lands are susceptible of great benefit from the use of plaster, and from their healthy situation, and pleasant neighbourhood, is an agreeable residence. They are distant from the city about nine miles. The subscriber invites persons desiring to purchase to view the premises. The terms, which shall be accommodating, will be made known on application to T. Barber, Annapolis, Sept. 27.

100 Dollars Reward.

Runaway from the subscriber, on the 10th day of last month, a negro man named SOLOMON ROGERS, 26 years of age, about five feet ten inches high; he has a smooth black skin, full hair, and good teeth. He took with him a blue cloth coat, grey casimere trousers, a short full lined jacket of a drab colour, two new brown buckram shoes, a pair of new oxford shoes, and a good furred hat, besides a few articles not particularly recollected. He is believed to be that he wears a silver watch with a large key to it. As he has many acquaintances in the city of Baltimore, it is probable he has gone to that place, as he did about five years ago, when he was taken up and committed to jail. Whoever apprehends the said runaway, and secures him in jail, so that I get him again, shall be taken in Anne Arundel county, receive 50 dollars, and if out of said county the above reward.

Horatio Hidout, Whitehall, Anne Arundel county, June 15, 1817.

FOR SALE.

The subscriber will sell, Thomas's Point, and the lands adjoining, lying on the Chesapeake Bay, South River, Oyster and Fishing Creeks. These lands are covered with ship timber, and wood of almost every description. There is a large quantity of firm marsh belonging to it, and some low ground, which may be converted into meadow at a small expense. There are several small buildings on it. The whole contains between three and four hundred acres. This place is remarkable for fish, oysters and wild fowl.

In addition to the above lands, the subscriber will also sell the lands adjoining. The whole will contain between six and seven hundred acres; a piece of four or five hundred yards in length, running from the Head of Oyster creek to Smith's Creek, will enclose the whole land. This half of the land contains a considerable quantity of firm marsh belonging to it, two tenements, and a well of good water. The whole is capable of being made one of the best farming farms in the state.
