The trial pending in Baltimore county court since Friday morning, wis an action brought by the Rev. GIORGE DASHIELL Against CHAS. WORTHINGTON and WIFE, for certain words alleged to have been spoken of the plainting tending to injure him in his professional chafacter 28 2 minister of the gospel. The defence in effect was, that the words charged to have been spoken were true; and that they were not spiten with any malicious intent. The pleadings of the counsel were ine placed about half past two o'clock; and the jury, after retiring about ten minut.s, returned a verdict for the defendants. The other actions commenced at the same time with the above for similar charges, by the same plaintiff, have been discontinued. The above brief notice eithe result of the several actions his been suggested, for the purpose of rendering unnecessary any other publication on the subject .- Guz.

On Thursday, a Mr. ***** and
Mr. *******, in compliance with the proclamation of his Excellency the Bovernor, went to the nered ground of Hoboken, to make their offerings at the sarine of the godd ss of duelling. In perfect good nature they fired two rounds; on the third, **** fell. The ball entered his right side, lodged in his left. His life was at first despaired of; but there is now said to be a prospect of his recovery, and pof his being able to slied more blood in so noble a cause! The origin of the dispute is said to have been as trivial as usual. In short, every part of the affair was conducted in a style truly worthy of "men of honour" hey-new receive the meed of their heroic acion-public notice-notice as men of unquistioned and unquistionable onour! The Tunisian sloop of war com manded by the admiral of this re gency, Mustapha Rais, which went a cruising on the 16th of March last, with another sloop and a schooner, came back on the 13th inst. having presumed to push as far as the Cate gat, and to capture, on her return, 2 Hamburg ships within a short dis-tance of the British coast.—The masters, and 6 men of their crews whom Mustapha Rais kept on board his sloop as prisoners of war, were immediately confined by the Bashaws order, in the citadel of this city, called Gaspa, where they remain alto gether wretched and forlorn.

On the 22d and 24th inst his Britannic majesty's brig Satellite, and frigate Myrmidon, from Palerma & Malta, successively came in with dispatches for the consul. On the morning of the 25th, the captain of the frigate waited on the bashaw, and in the name of the prince regent, claimed the Hamburg prisonrs (the ships having been recaptured, without the streights, by the Englishfrigate -- ) upon the ground that they had been taken within sight of the British coast; and at the same time called upon him to direct his corsairs henceforth to abstain, like the Algerines, from cruising in these

Unawed by these demands, the bashaw answered the British consul, that, with respect to the Hamburg prisoners, he would not release them until after the arrival of the ships captured by his cruisers, and unjustly detained by the British government; & that, as to the limits which is wanted to be set to his corsairs, they had never cruised within sight of the British isles, and that therefore the injunction was useless-an evasive answer, which cloaks his sinister intentions! The British consul, seeing the impossibility of prevailing upon the bashaw to comp'y with the prince regent's wishes, called for an ostensive and categorical note, which H. E. immediately gave him; and the consul delivered it to the commandant of the frigate, which directly sailed for Malia.
