May 15: James Carrall. By His Excellency, Charles Ridgely, of Hampton, Esquire, Governor of Maryland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it appears thunto me by an Inquisition taken before John Aisquith, Esquire, one of the Coroners of Baltimore county, that a most atrocious mur der was committed on the person of a certain William Henry M'Cubbin, a citizen of the city of Baltimore, by some unknown person, on or about the twen-ty-second day of October last, which Inquisition hath been returned to me accompanied by a memorial of sundry tespectable persons, inhabitants of the city of Baltimore, praying the interposi-tion of Government: And whereas the quiet and security of the State depend on the vigilance of the constituted au-thorities in causing the laws against such enormities to be duly executed. I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of Five Hun-dred Dollars to any person who shall discover the author or perpetrator of the aforesaid murder, provided he be brought to justice. Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Me ryland this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.
C. RIDGELY, of Hampt.

By His Excellency's command, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council Ordered, That the foregoing procla-mation be published in the Maryland Gazette, Federal Gazette, Federal Republican, Frederick-town Herald, the Torch Light, Allegany Federalist, and Easton Monitor.
