Boot & Shoemaker, having removed, will future carry on business in the shop lately occupied by Mr. Basil Shephard, nearly opposite the store of Mr. J. Hughes, Church-street. To those of his patrons who have favoured him with their patronage, he re-tenders his unfeigned thanks, and hopes for a continuance of their encouragement, as he with confidence can say, the workmen in his employ are superior to any in this place, and that he can and will make Boots, Shoes or Gentlemen's Pumps, far superior to any made in this City.

Price—Three Dollars per Annum.

JAMES F. BRICE,
Attorney at Law, has just published Familiar Explanation of the Laws Wills and Councils, and of the Laws Executors and Administrators, and Rules whereby estates both real personal descend, and are to be disposed, in case no will be made, with directions to every man to make his will, the necessary form for that purpose, and the forms of other instru-intended for the benefit of those who are unacquainted either with the terms or the forms of law, & who are unacquainted how to act, without consulting themselves to the necessary of consulting the knowledge of some one conversant with the law. This, among other considerations, has induced the author to compile a book which may be consulted at hand, to which manner of compilation, when every moment is valuable, and by means whereof many of the most mistakes and omissions, readily committed may be avoided,

By His Excellency, Charles Ridgely, of Hampton, Esquire, Governor of Maryland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it appeareth unto me by an Inquisition taken before John Aisquith, Esquire, one of the Coronors of Baltimore county, that a most atrocious murder was committed on the person of a certain William Henry M. Colburn, a citizen of the city of Baltimore, by some unknown person, on or about the twenty-second day of October last, which Inquisition hath been returned to me accompanied by a memorial of sundry respectable persons, inhabitants of the city of Baltimore, praying the interposition of Government: And whereas the quiet and security of the State depend on the vigilance of the constituted authorities in causing the laws against such enormities to be duly executed. I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of Five Hundred Dollars to any person who shall discover the author or perpetrator of the aforesaid murder, provided he be brought to justice. Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Maryland this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

C. RIDGELY, of Hampt.
By His Excellency's command, NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

Ordered, That the foregoing proclamation be published in the Maryland Gazette, Federal Gazette, Federal Republican, Frederick town Herald, the Torch Light, Allegany Federalist, and Easton Monitor.

To Travellers

Persons travelling to Baltimore will find it much the nearest and best road by way of the "Middle Ferry," formerly Holland's ferry, which is now kept in good order, and constant attendance, by Henry Johnson and Wm. Arnold; where liquors and horse feed can be had. The road between the ferry and Baltimore is lately being straightened and improved, and is only three miles from the ferry to Mrs. Carroll's Bridge, where it intersects the Washing-ington turnpike road.

By the Committee of Grievances and Courts of Justice.

The Committee of Grievances and Courts of Justice will meet every day during the present session, from 9 o'clock in the morning until 3 o'clock in the evening.

half past eight o'clock on the mornings of Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; and Brewer's Tavern, Annapolis, at the same time on Sundays, Wednesdays & Fridays, and run through to dinner.

J. G. indulges the belief that gentlemen travelling this route will count on finding his Drivers, Carriages & Horses, superior to any that may oppose him, and they may be assured of finding his drivers properly instructed in every thing connected with the comfort and accommodation of passengers.

Seats to be taken at the houses before mentioned. Fare with usual weight of baggage, TWO DOLLARS.

Daily Line of Stages to ANNAPOLIS.

The subscriber thankful for that share of support which he has received from his friends and the community at large, in the line of his profession, and wishing to render his establishment more generally useful, has determined to run a daily line of Stages to and from Annapolis.

The carriages which will be employed in this attempt are his light close Coaches, which from their compactness will render those of his fellow-citizens who may incline to favour his attempt unusually comfortable.

The Coaches will start from the Shakespeare Tavern, Baltimore, at half past eight o'clock, EVERY MORN-ING, and calling at Towson's Tavern, Sign of General Washington, Gay-street, and Barney's Fountain Inn, Light-street, arrive at Brewer's Tavern, Annapolis, to dine—returning, leave Brew-er's Tavern, Annapolis, EVERY MORN-ING, at half past eight o'clock, and calling at Mrs. Robinson's Boarding house, arrive in Baltimore to dine.

Seats for Annapolis to be taken at the Shakespeare Tavern, corner of East and Lemon-sts. opposite the New Theatre—and in Annapolis, for Baltimore, at the Post Office, near Brewer's Tavern.

FARE THREE DOLLARS.
The public's humble servant,
Wm. B. Beanes.

Was Committed

To the goal of Anne Arundel county, on the 12th inst. as a runaway, a dark man, who calls himself John, or Thomas Dunwood, about 20 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches high; has a full face; says he belongs to Richard Lamar of Prince George's county.
His clothing consisted of an old wool hat, one pair domestic white and blue cotton pantaloons, small shirt and trousers, a pair of old brogue-trapped shoes, and one blue roundabout.
